

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, January 24. to Thursday January 27. 1669.

Plymouth, Jan. 21.

ON Wednesday last arrived here 6 small Ships from Ireland, their Lading Hides, Tallow, and Butter; two of them intend to unlade here, the rest of them bound for Holland, and other parts. Yesterday put in here a ship of London from Lisbonne, and another of Yarmouth, both of them Laden with Oringes and Lemmo s. One ship of London is now in the Offin, newly arrived from the Barbadoes, and may put in here with the first wind.

Dover, Jan. 25. This last night about ten of the Clock his Excellency the Lord Falconbridge sailed hence in the Merlin Yacht for Callis, with a fair VVind.

In the late Storm were cast away between Callis and Bohogue two Dutch Merchant Ships, with their Ladings of VVine and Brandy; one a Vessel of 300 Tuns, the other of 80 Tuns, but the Men escaped to Land. Several ships are put in here by contrary VVinds.

Lisbonne, Dec. 23. The 15th instant the French man of war which brought over the Count de Schomberg from Rochelle, went out to sea intending for St Christophers, but we are since advised that this ship is cast away by some misfortune upon our coasts, and about 30 of the men lost.

The 17th instant, Sir Edward Sprage with the Dragon and a Ketch came into this River to clearse, and the next day the Warwick and Garland two other of his Squadron with one Fireship having conducted a Fleet of about 40 sail of Merchant ships to the Northwards, and given chase to 7 Turkish men of War, which their foulness would not give them leave to reach; Two of these men of War may in few days put out again to sea for the security of our Merchants.

Four lusty ships are here fitting up for the Indies and many hands employed about them, but the want of Moneys gives us reason to doubt they will scarcely be ready to put to sea this following Spring as was intended.

Madrid, Dec. 27. The Queen Regent went some days since to the Church of Our Lady d' Attoche, where she heard a solemn Mass by way of Thansgiving for her recovery from her late sickness.

The Queen has ordered four men of war to be sent from Callis to the Isle of Sardignia with soldiers to the assistance of the Viceroy, the Islanders being there inclining to oppose him, especially those who had formerly their hands in the death of the Viceroy his predecessor.

The King enjoys a perfect health, and daily delights himself in his Exercises, wherein he is accompanied by the young Marquis de Mortara.

The Charge of General of the Sicilian Gallies is conferred on the Marquis de Cartanajetta, Son to the Cardinal de Moncada; and his Charge of Captain in the Regiment of Guards given to Prince Lodowick de Piombino, who is now at the Court.

Upon the arrival of the Newes of the Popes death, Cardinal Portocarrero was immediately sent for from Toledo, and ordered with all diligence to hasten away for Rome, to be present at the Conclave for the new Election; and several Courriers dispatch away, with Orders and Instructions for the Marquis de Astorgas our Ambassadour.

Rome, Jan. 4. The French Cardinals are here arrived with the Duke de Chaulnes, Ambassadour extraordinary from His most Christian Majesty, the Cardinals are entred into the Conclave, where Cardinal de Louillon had the Ceremony performed of Opening his mouth according to the usual Form and Custome.

The Factions are great, and as yet little appearance of a sudden agreement in the election of a new Pope; the French interest is much advanced upon the arrival of these Cardinals from France, who came well furnished with instructions and have already gained to their party divers of the Squadonists; the Spanish faction which hitherto has seemed the most powerful, leaves nothing undone for the advantage of their interest, but expect with impatience farther instructions from Spain by the Cardinal de Porto Carrero who is on his way hither. The faction of the Rospigliosi has upon the late match between Don Gio. Battista Rospigliosi and segno Pallavicina, joyned their interests with the Barbarini, and are thereby grown very considerable.

The Cardinals Chigi and Rosetti are lately fallen into a misunderstanding, which has proceeded to sharp language, the latter telling the other, that he ought not to expect to bear so great a sway in this, as he did in the former Conclave, and to carry the election at his pleasure.

Cardinal Azzolino some days since visiting Cardinal Albici at his Cell or Apartment, after some discourse told him that it was his design to contribute his best endeavours to raise him to the Papacy; whereupon Albici asked him what Reward he would expect if his design should prove successful; who answering, that he desired nothing, the other immediately reply'd, that he could not but take this as an argument, that whatsoever he pretended, he had really no intention to raise him to that Dignity.

Rome, Jan. 11. Yesterday it was confidently reported, that Cardinal Vidoni would be chosen Pope, but it now appears to the contrary. This day upon a Scrutiny it was found, that Cardinal Albici had 19 suffrages, Cardinal Bonvisi 20, and Cardinal d' Elci 25.

The last night a fire happened in the Cardinal of Hesse's apartment, which occasioned so great a confusion in the Conclave, that the Cardinals were thinking of breaking down the walls, and deserting the place, but in little time assistance was given, and the fire happily quenched.

Malaga, Jan 6. Here is lately sent into this Port the King David, which some time since had the ill fortune to be engaged by the Algier Pirates off the Cape St. Vincent, where, after three dayes stout resistance, from one of their Men of War he was laid aboard with about 70 Moors, who were all of them either killed upon the Deck, or forced over-board into the Sea and drowned; but the same day meeting with five more of those Pirates, was forced to Surrender. After some few dayes Captain Kemphorne redeemed him, but falling afterwards among 6 of the Corfairs, whom the Captain engaged for several hours, and in the end gave chase to, this Vessel fell again into the Enemies hands, but at the entering the Streights, was retaken by Sir Thomas Allen, and sent into this Port much torn, and full of VVater.

Dantzic, Jan. 15. From Warsaw we have Letters of the 3d Instant, which inform us of the arrival there the day before of Sir Peter Wich, Envoy from His Majesty of Great Britain, who departed hence the 21st past, and was on his way entertained by the Magistrates of Thorne with great Civility and Respect.

The King of Poland is yet at Warsaw, where he may continue all this Month, and, at the beginning of the next go thence to Czestochowa that eminent place of Devotion, where he intends to solemnize his Marriage with the Arch-Duchess the Emperours Sister.

The Poles seem very apprehensive of a Warr with the Turks, in so much, as a general Mandate is sent out to the Nobility, to put themselves into a Military Posture, and to be ready to March upon the first Orders.

On the First Instant the People of Thorne were put into superstitious apprehensions, upon the Appearance of 3 Suns about Eleven of the Clock in the Morning, at a time when the Sky was to all appearance clear, and free from Clouds, and the weather cold and frosty.

The Body of Prince Radzivil, whose sudden death in his Coach gave an occasion of a Report, and a Suspicion of his being Poyson'd, has been since open'd, and all persons convinced of the falseness of the Rumour, his inward parts appearing sound, his Physicians attributing his Death to a Catarrh, which choaked him.

Hambourg, Jan 24. The Commissioners are not yet entered upon their Conference about the Pretensions to the County of Oldenbourg.

From Frankfort they write, That great Differences and Disturbances are lately risen in the Neighbourhood between the Counts of Hanaw; the chief of which Family had, contrary to an Agreement between the Brothers, alienated some of the Dependences on the County of Muntzerberg; and was engaging Lichtemberg to the Duke of Lorraine for a considerable sum of Moneys: VVhich to prevent, the other Princes of the same Family had taken possession of that County, and had put strong Garrisons into the principal Towns; both parties endeavouring to gain the Neighbouring Princes to their parties. But the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Landgrave of Hesse are interposing in this Affair, and 'tis hoped may prevent any farther Disturbances.

Paris, Jan. 29. A great man of War built by His most Christian Majesties Order for a voyage into Persia, Madagascar and other parts in those seas, being a ship of 800 Tuns and carrying 85 Guns, sailed lately out of the River from Havre de Grace with intention to get to the Rendezvous at Port Louis in Bretagne, but was by a sudden gust of wind driven on shoar and staved in pieces, the Lieutenant and all the men lost, only the Captain escaping to shoar.

His Majesty at present enjoys his health and has not had any late fits of his distemper in his head, he seems at present in suspense, whether he shall first go into Flanders to visit his new Conquests, or to Bourbon to drink the waters which his Physicians have prescribed him for his health, but seems rather inclinable to the former.

Hague, Jan. 31. The Heets Vander Toche and Vrybergen, the States Deputies employ'd to the Constable of Castille at Brussels, have with much earnestness solicited the Constable of Castille to come to a resolution in point of giving satisfaction to the Swedes; whose negotiation has had so good an effect, that an Express yesterday arriv'd here from the Constable, assuring us, that those affairs which concern the Triple alliance are in so good a posture, that there is no doubt to be made but that the Swedes will suddenly have payment made to them of the Moneys which were some months since returned from Spain to Amsterdam.

The said Deputies were likewise order'd to demand satisfaction for several insolencies and violencies committed by the Spanish soldiers in the Country about Valkenbourg, where they set fire to several houses, and in the Majoralty of Boisleduc, where they plunder'd a Ministers house, of which they have not yet given an account.

Monsieur Guldenew the Danish Ambassador arriv'd here from England the 27th instant; and intends the next week to depart from hence on his return homewards.

The Corsairs of Barbary being numerous at sea and much disturbing our Trade in the Mediterranean, the Admiralties have order'd several ships to be fitted up to be sent to the Streights for the security of our Merchants, and tis said the Command of this Squadron will be dispos'd of to Vice-Admiral Van Ghent.

From Munster we are told that the Bishop is well pleas'd with the arrival of the Heer Mortaigne, Envoye from the States General of these United Provinces, to whom he intends to give a favourable Audience, and intends to send hither a Deputy with several proposals, which shall all of them tend to the settlement of a close Union and Alliance between him and the States.

The Heer Frederick Corais, who was formerly employ'd by the East-India-Company, as Governour of the Island Formosa; and, upon some misunderstandings condemn'd by them to a perpetual Imprisonment: Upon the Intercession of his Electoral Highness of Brandenburg is to have liberty given him to come hither, and to make his Appearance and Defence against such Charge as shall be brought in against him.

Margate, Jan. 25. The East-India ship which has continued for some time in this Road, is this day pass'd over the Flats, and has a fair wind to get into the River.

London, Jan. 26. His Majesty was lately pleas'd with the advice of the Lords and the rest of His Privy Council to Order His Proclamation to be issued out, publishing and declaring, That whereas, according to the Statute of 28 H. VIII. now in force, the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, Two of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, the Lord Chief Justice of the Kings Bench and the Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, met together the 21 of December last past to set the price of Wines: His Majesty by His said Proclamation doth declare, that according to the Rates set by them for the next year following, to be accounted from the First day of February next ensueing, Canary wines, Alegant and Muscadels shall not be sold in Gros, at above Twenty four pounds the Butt or Pipe, and at Nine pence the Pint by retail; and that Sacks and Malagoes be not sold in gros at above Twenty two pounds the Butt, and Eight pence the Pint by Retail; and that French Wines be not sold at above Twenty three pounds the Tun, and Eight pence the Quart by retail; and that Rhenish wines be not sold in Gros at above Six pounds the Aulme and Twelve pence the Quart by retail, and according to these proportions for greater or lesser quantities, either in Gros or by Retail; besides the Impositions laid on Wines which may be received by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, which Rates and Prizes, His Majesties pleasure is, shall be duly observ'd in all his Ports and other places within His Realm where Wines are landed, and within Ten miles of those Ports and places: and it is His Majesties pleasure, that in those places where Wines by Land-carriage shall be convey'd more then Ten miles from the next Port, the several sorts of Wines aforesaid shall and may be sold according to the Rates aforesaid, with an allowance not exceeding Four pounds the Tun, and one penny the Quart, for the Carriage thereof upon Land every Thirty miles, and according to that proportion, and not at greater Rates, under such penalties as by the Proclamation at large will more fully appear.