ER Majelty came this Day to the House of Peers; and being in Her Royal Robes seated on the Throne, with the usual Solemnity, Mr. Afton, Deputy Gentleman-Usher of the Biack Rod, was sent with a Messes from Her Majelty to the House of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thicher accordingly, Her Majelty was pleased to make a most Gracious Speech to both Houses, which follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen, My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is with all humble Thankfulness to Almighty God, and with entire Satisfaction to My Self, that I Meet you here in this First Parliament of Great Britain, not doubting but you ami with Hearts prepared, as Mine is, to make this Union so properus, as may answer the well-grounded Hippes of all My god subjects, and the reasonable Apprehensions of Our Enemies.
To this end, nothing is so immediately material, as to convince, as som as is possible, both Our Friends and Our Enemies, that the Uniting of Our Interests has not only improved Our Abilities, but Our Resolutions also, to prosecute this Just and Necostary War, ill Webitain a Sase and Honouvable Peace for Our Seleves, and ill Westain a Safe and Honourable Peace for Our Selves, and

It we stand a saje and tronsarable react for Our Seves, and for Miles.

In segret and extensive a War as this is, many things may helfally undertaken, which are not fix to be communicated before the stands. The Attempt upon Toulon was of this Nature; and things it had not wholly its desired Effect, has nevertheless been staded with many great and obvious Advantages to the Communicated with many great and obvious Advantages to the Communicated in this Year, and has made Our Way more easy, I impensive in the next.

Atterench have gained Ground upon Us in Spain, so they breken wholly driven out of Italy; by which it is become more of pall the Allies to join their Assistance next Year, for Enabled King of Spain to Recover His Assistant that Kingdom, and Reduce the whole Spanish Monarchy to His Obedience. The Wakness, and ill Posture of Assistant upon the Rhine in the Besiming of the Year, has given an Opportunity to the Itach to make themselves stronger in all other Parts; but this bid leass in a very promising way of being fully remedied upon next Campaign, by the Condust and Authority of the Elias of Hanover, whose seasons of that Communid has strengthened and obliged the whole Confederacy.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Eard has strengthened and obliged the whole Confederacy.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

Teight Application of the Supplies given Me by former ParliaEasts, the plain Necessity of Continuing this Way, the reasonable respect of putting a good End to it, it We be not wanting to by Selves, and the Honour of the First Parliament of Great brain, are, I make no doubt, Sufficient Arguments to incite you a Provide the Necessary Supplies which I am obliged to desire of just with ensuing Campaign in all Parts, and particularly for lettinely Support of the King of Spain, and the making good our Treaty with Portugal, as also for Strengthning the Confeletate Army under the Command of the Duke of Savoy; all visib Sarvices I don't doubt but you will think so necessary, that to be neglected, even though they should require a Asymentation.

The Suns already expended in this War, have been very great, which are Sufficient Proofs how well farsfied My Subjects have twant been with the Ends of My Government; of which I am I logible, as never to ask any Supplies from them, but what are islandy necessary for the Preservation of their Religion and Likety; and I look upon it as My great Happiness, that I have suiteleast Interest Separate from that of all My good Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,
In a Work so great and new in its kind as that of the Union,
Its impossible but that some Doubts and Difficulties must have some which however, I hope, are so far overcome, as to have spaced the Designs of those who would have made use of that listed to foment Disturbances.

Tore are several Matters expressly made liable, by the Artidistinct Union, to the Consideration of the Parliament of Great Whereas in the Gazette of Monday November 3. the following Words were inserted by Mistake; The Lord High Chancelor of Great Britain, in Her Majesty's Name, adjourn'd the Heuse till Thursday next: This is to certify, that, instead thereof, it should have been faid, that The Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain declar'd, That it was Her Majesty's Pleasure that both Houses of Parliament should adjourn themselves till Thursday the 6th of November.

Lisbon, Offober 23. N. S. We have received the following. Journal of the Motions of our Army which was designed for the Siege of Moura. From Fonte de Sapateros the 7th they marched to Villa-Viecosa, and rested there the 8th. The 9th they marched to Ferinas; and to Montsarraz the 10th, where they again received politive Orders to go to Moura; and were advised at the same time of the Loss of Ciudad-Rodrigo. They marched to 8th Marcos the 1th to Alguera the 10th and vis'd at the same time of the Loss of Ciudad-Rodrigo. They march'd to St. Marcos the 11th; to Algueva the 12th; and arriv'd at Moura the 13th. They view'd the Town the 14th; and notwichlanding they sound it very well fortified, they were preparing all things to attack the Place, when they receiv'd certain Advice, That the Marquis de Bay had assembled at Badajos 7 Regiments of Horse of Estramadura, and 3 of Andalutia, and was actually marching against them 1 upon which it was resolved, in a Council of War, to lay a side the Thoughts of the Siege. On the 15th they march'd to the Banks of the Guadiana, and pass'd that River the 16th. The 17th they were obliged to rest. The 18th they lay ar Monte-d'Avigo, where they halted the 19th. The 20th they arriv'd at Caltello-Real; the 21st at Redendo; and the 22d return'd to Villa-Viecosa. return'd to Villa-Viecofa.

return'd to Villa-Viccofa.

Penice, October 28. On the 17th Instant the Earl of Manchester, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain to this Republick, went to the College, attended by his whole Retinue, and receiv'd an Answer to his Speech of the 5th Instant. The Republick having not approved of the Expedient the Pope had found for an Accommodation of the late Dispute with their Ambassador, have order'd that Minister to return hither immediately. They write from Naples, That the late Viceroy the Duke of Encalona, Prince Calamara, and other Persons of Quality, were on the 2d Instant conducted at Noon-day through the City, and committed Prisoners to the Castle Novo. Those Advices add, That all was quiet in that Kingdom since the Reduction of Gaera; and, That Two Zealand Privateers were arriv'd at Naples from Leghorne, which are hir'd by that Government to cruise, with some small arm'd Barks, in the Gulf of Messina, and to convoy such Vesses as come from Apulia with Corn and Oil. Lêtters from Rome of the 15th Instant say, That the Pope hath condemn'd and forbid the reading of all Books, Letters, or any Papers that have been written, or may for the stuture be written, in Defence of Monlieur Codde, Bishop of Sebasse, and Vicar Apositolick in the United Provinces. The last Roman, Florentine, and Neapolitan Posts, are not yet come in, by reason of the bad Weather.

Backhoff, who came hither from the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, having obtain'd a Letter from his Prussian Majesty to King Augustus, desiring that Prince to recal his Troops out of the States of Weymar, Eistenach, and Schwartzburg; Monsieur Wessale, Secretary to King Augustus, is arriv'd here with an Answer to his Prussian Majesty's Letter: But that Answer being not altogether to the Satisfaction of this Court, it is thought they will write on the same Occasions to the Imperial Court, and the Diet of Ra-Occasion to the Imperial Court, and the Diet of Ra-We hear that an Ambassador from the Ottoman Porte is lately arriv'd at the King of Sweden's Camp, with Orders to acknowledge King Stanislaus, on Condition that Prince and his Swedish Majesty will enter into an Alliance with the Grand Seignion against the Muscovites. Letters from Wilda of the 23d of October report, That the Muscovites were decamped; that a Detachment was gone towards Ploskow; and that the Army wanting Provisions, defign'd to take their Winter-Quarters in White Russia. righ'd to take their Winter-Quarters in White Rullia. Prince Wiesnowisky's Troops are at Wilhomirs, Kapetz, and Dubinshock, 7 Miles from Wilda. They often attack the Van-guard of the Muscovites, and sometimes return with considerable Booty. They write from Lemberg, That the Primate, and the Under-Chancellor of the Crown, arriv'd there the tash of the last Month; and from Lublin. That the 13th of the last Month; and from Lublin, That the Crown-Army was there on the 23d. Advices from Posen say, That the King of Poland and the King of Sweden were still at Stupsk; and that the Senators were retir'd from thence because of the Scarcity of Provisions. Those Advices add, That 1500 Swedes pass'd by that Town in their way to the Camp; and that 9000 Men had pass'd by Uronki in their way likewise to the Swedish Camp. There was a Jew Christen'd last Sunday in the Dome of this City, the King Margrays Albert and the Eight Minister Gand King, Margrave Albert, and the First Minister, standing as Godfathers.

Whereas one William Sale was some Years since convicted in the Ecclesiastical Court at Canterbury, of having forged Holy Orders for himself, and for his own Father, under the Hand and Seal of the late Bishop Pearson of Chester; upon which he was deprived of the Living of Sturry in the Diocese of Canterbury: And whereas a Person, of the same Name of William Sale, came Litely to Eden-Bridge in the Diocese of Rochester, and there taught School, read public Prayers, and preach'd several times, without License from the Bishop; and having been often warned to come and exhibit his Letters of Orders to the Diocesan, or his Comet, he never appear'd with them, but alleged, that they were registred in the Court of Canterbury, and in possission or the Arch Deacen there. These are therefore to advise and require the same William Sale to appear before the Lord Arch-Bishop of Conterbury his Grace, or before the Bishop of Rochester, within the Space of one Month after the Date of these Fresents, to produce his true Letters of Orders, if he has any; or else he shall be proceeded against farther in the Bishop of Rochester's Court; and Norice shall be publicly given of him to all the Archbishops and Bishops of England and Fresent, that he is justy supposed to be the foresaid William Sale, who was convicted at Canterbury for forging Orders, upon evident Proof, besides the Auchenic Confessing Orders, upon evident Proof, besides the Auchenic Confession of his own Fisher.
