An Act for the Raising Money for the Finishing the Parish-Church of St. Mary's, and also for Re-building and Finishing the Parish-Church of St. Nicholas within the Walls, both in the City of Dublin.

An Act for Vesting a certain part of the Estate of Sir John Dillon in Trustees, to be sold for the Payment of his Debts, and limiting other Lands in lieu thereof to the same Uses.

An Act for the Explaining and Amending an Act, Entituled, An Act for Vesting the Estate of Sir Thomas Hackett Kt. in Trustees; and for empowering them to sell the same for Payment of his Debts, if the Value thereof amount to so much.

An Act for the Relief of Patrick Cusack, and Augustine Nugent, Gentlemen.

Then his Excellency was pleased to make the following Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords and Gentlemen,
It is with great Satisfaction that I now put an End to this Session of Parliament, wherein you have conducted all Affairs with due Regard to the Crown, and in it the Good of your Country; and I cannot doubt but you have a grateful Sense of the many good Laws the Queen has now given you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,
Before we part, I cannot but observe, amongst all the Qualifications with which Her Majesty is endowed, Her Subjects have been most eminently bless'd by Her Majesty's Vigilance, Moderation, and Justice; and by practicing them in your several Stations, the First will prevent all Foreign Attempts; the Second, by healing your Divisions, will strengthen the Protestant Interest, and secure your Peace at Home; and by the good Administration of Justice, you will suppress Prophaneness and Immorality, and altogether make a Flourishing and Happy People; to which end I earnestly recommend them.

After which the Lord Chancellor declar'd, That it was the Pleasure of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, That this Parliament be Prorogu'd to Thursday the Sixth Day of May next: And the Parliament was accordingly Prorogu'd to Thursday the Sixth Day of May next.

Copenhagen, Octob. 25. N. S. The King hath thought fit, for the ensuing Year, to alter the Manner of levying the Provision-Tax from the People, who, instead of paying it with the Product of the Country, in Corn, Oats, Wood, or other sorts of Necessaries, are
