REFERENCE TO THE NATIONAL BOARD
FOR PRICES AND INCOMES
COAL PRICES

The National Coal Board proposes that increases in the price of coal should be made from 1st April 1966, designed to yield a revenue of about £80 million in 1966-67.

As was indicated in the White Paper on the Finances of the Coal Industry (Cmd. 2805, issued on 4th November), the National Coal Board proposed in July to increase coal prices from 1st September 1965. They agreed to defer these increases for the time being but informed the Government that, in their judgment, increases in the price of coal would still be required after the various adjustments to their finances described in the White Paper had been made. The Government considered that, in view of the importance of coal to the economy, it was desirable that the case for such increases should be publicly established, and they decided to refer the question of price increases to the National Board for Prices and Incomes. The Board are accordingly requested to examine the case for the increases proposed against the statutory financial and other obligations of the National Coal Board and the considerations set out in Part 1 of the White Paper on Prices and Incomes Policy (Cmd. 2639). They are requested to make their report available in sufficient time that any increases that may be decided upon can take effect from 1st April 1966. 20th December 1965.

Any objections to the proposed Order should be sent to the Secretary, Welsh Office, Roads Division, 139 Newport Road, Cardiff, not later than the 14th January 1966, quoting the reference GT.14/11/017.

Status of Southern Rhodesia

1. It is hereby declared that Southern Rhodesia continues to be part of Her Majesty's dominions, and that the Government and Parliament of the United Kingdom have responsibility and jurisdiction as heretofore for and in respect of it.

Powers with respect to Southern Rhodesia

2.—(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision in relation to Southern Rhodesia, or persons or things in any way belonging to or connected with Southern Rhodesia, as appears to Her to be necessary or expedient in consequence of any unconstitutional action taken therein.

- (c) for imposing prohibitions, restrictions or obligations in respect of transactions relating to Southern Rhodesia or any such persons or things, as appears to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient as aforesaid; and any provision made by or under such an Order may apply to things done or omitted outside as well as within the United Kingdom or other country or territory to which the Order extends.

(3) An Order in Council under this section may make or authorise the making of such incidental, supplemental and consequential provisions as appear to Her Majesty to be expedient for the purposes of the Order, and any provision made by or under such an Order may be made to have effect from any date not earlier than 11th November 1965.

(4) An Order in Council under this section may be revoked or varied by a subsequent Order in Council thereunder.

(5) An Order in Council under this section shall be laid before Parliament after being made and shall expire at the end of the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day on which it was made unless during that period it is approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

The expiration of an Order in pursuance of this subsection shall not affect the operation of the Order as respects things previously done or omitted to be done or the power to make a new Order; and in calculating the period aforesaid no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

Duration of section 2

(3) The expiration of section 2 of this Act shall not affect—

- (a) the operation of that section as respects things previously done or omitted to be done; or
- (b) the Constitution of Southern Rhodesia 1961 as in force immediately before the expiration of that section.

Short title and extent

4.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965.

(2) This Act extends to Southern Rhodesia, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, any colony or protectorate within the meaning of the British Nationality Act 1948, 1948 c. 56, and (to the extent of Her Majesty's jurisdiction therein) to any foreign country or territory in which for the time being Her Majesty has jurisdiction:

Provided that no Order in Council under section 2 of this Act shall extend to any place other than the United Kingdom or Southern Rhodesia as part of the law of that place, except so far as it makes provision with respect to ships or aircraft to which this section applies, or affects the operation of any Act of Parliament which has effect in that place, with or without modifications, as part of its law, or of any instrument in force under any such Act.

(3) This section applies to British ships registered in the United Kingdom or any other country or place to which this Act extends, and to aircraft so registered.

3. This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia (British Nationality Act 1948) Order 1965 and shall come into operation on 18th November 1965.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

Section 12 (6) of the British Nationality Act 1948 (as amended by section 3 (1) of the British Nationality Act 1958) made provision for the registration as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies of certain persons who would have been citizens thereof but for their citizenship or potential citizenship of a country mentioned in section 1 (3) of the Act of 1948. Save as provided in section 3 (1) (c) of the Act of 1958 and in Schedule 1 to the South Africa Act 1962, a person could only be registered on an application made before the end of 1962.

This Order revives, for the time being, the lapsed provisions of section 12 (6) of the 1948 Act for the benefit of citizens of Southern Rhodesia in that it provides that such a person may be registered under those provisions on an application made at any time while the Order is in force.

1.—(1) A warrant for the return of a fugitive to Southern Rhodesia shall not be issued under section 6 of the principal Act unless the Secretary of State or other person by whom the warrant falls to be issued is satisfied that the return of the fugitive has not been rendered inexpedient by any unconstitutional action taken in Southern Rhodesia or circumstances resulting therefrom.

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

5. This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia (Fugitive Offenders Act 1881) Order 1965 and shall come into operation forthwith.
