

Berlin, Jan. 28. The Habsburgs have received Orders to prepare all things necessary for his Majesty's Reception at Oalsbad, against the latter End of April: About which Time the Court will go thither for 6 Weeks: And 'tis said King Augustus will make his Majesty a Visit there. The Prince of Holstein, who commands all his Majesty's Troops in Prussia, has complain'd to the King of certain Disorders committed by a Party of Polanders, who attempted to recover by Force a Person who had taken Refuge within the Dominions of Prussia. That Prince has further represented, That it is not for the King's Service to withdraw from thence so many of his Troops as it was intended. Two Regiments of Horse, commanded by the Margrave Philip and Major-General Durfin, which were marching out of Prussia, with other Forces, are hereupon countermanded. The Battalions of Foot and two Regiments of Dragoons have already passed the Vistula, and continue their March to this Place with as much Expedition as the Season will permit. Besides an urgent Letter from the States General, delivered by their Envoy to the King, concerning the early Preparations which are necessary for the Defence of the Empire against the vigorous Efforts of the Enemy, his Majesty has received another from his Electoral Highness of Hanover to the same Effect. The Elector has sent Instructions to his Envoy to act in concert with the Ministers of Great Britain and Holland, to persuade his Court to receive the 6000 Men offered by King Augustus, and obtain their good Offices with other Princes to bring them to the same Resolution. His Electoral Highness has also represented at large to the Diet of Ratisbonne the present Necessity of Affairs, and in very forcible Terms endeavoured to quicken their Resolutions: A Copy of which Letter the Elector has transmitted to the King. Letters from Warsaw of the 17th say, That Monsieur Pulniatowsky, Colonel of King Stanislaus's Horse-Guards, was arrived there, and brought Advice, That his Master has passed the Vistula. They write from Minsk of the 13th Instant, That the Czar was expected there on the 21st; and that he has ordered 26000 Men to be raised, and joined with the 4000 who were levied before his Arrival at Mscow. We are adviced from Wilda, That the Assembly of the Confederates, which was summoned thither, is now to meet at Minsk, for their greater Security.

Bague, Febr. 3. N. S. Letters from the Upper Rhine report, That the principal Design of the Marshal de Villars appears to have been formed upon Fribourg, by a Correspondence with a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Garrison, who communicated all the Steps he made in that Affair to the Governor. They add, That the Marshal finding his Transactions discovered, had taken new Measures, and quartered one Part of his Troops in the Higher Alsacia, and sent the other towards Besfort, in order to march into the Franche Comté.

Whitehall, Jan. 27. Major Hunt, of Her Majesty's own Regiment of Dragoons, commanded by Brigadier Carpenter, is arrived Express, by the Way of Genoa, from Barcelona, which he left on the 30th of the last Month, N. S. and brings Advice from my Lord Galway, That after the taking of Lerida, the Enemy put their Forces into Quarters in the Kingdoms of Arragon and Valentia, and placed the strongest Regiment in their Service at Bearware in Catalonia: A Party of a German Regiment of Foot, supported by 200 Catalan Horse, marched in the Night, and surprising that Battalion in their Quarters, took every Man of it Prisoner: By which Action the Enemy have no Part of Catalonia except Lerida in their Possession. Tortosa and Terragona are fortified in the strongest Manner imaginable, and capable of resisting the Enemy's Army for Several Months. Many of the English Prisoners taken at the Battle of Almanza were forced into the Service of the French King; but have deserted in such great Numbers, that there are 5 strong Battalions composed out of them, which are commanded by the Colonels Honeywood, Stewart, Dalzal, Clayton, and Debourg. In the Beginning of November his Catholick Majesty's Army marched to Lebourg de Orguile, consisting of 20 Battalions of Foot and 48 Squadrons of Horse. The Catalans have since that time agreed to raise and pay 6000 Men at their own Charge. The King proposes to raise 6700, who, with the Forces expected from Italy, will, 'tis hoped, enable his Majesty to act offensively. Major Hunt adds, That while he was at Genoa, a small Vessel arrived there with Advice, That Sardinia had declared for King Charles; and that Count Cituents was landed with 1200 Men, and opened his Catholick Majesty's Commission for Viceroy of that Island.
