HONOURS AND AWARDS

CHANCERY OF THE ORDER OF SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT GEORGE

12th September 1966.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointment in the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George:

To be a Member of the First Class, or Knight Grand Cross, of the said Most Distinguished Order:

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

13th September 1966.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to approve the award of the British Empire Medal for Gallantry (Civil Division) to the undermentioned:

(To be dated 18th August 1966.)

Llewellyn Lewis MATHEWS,
Burge Dawson BROWN.

On the 20th January 1966, at Darwin River Quarry, Northern Territory, a helicopter appeared to fly into a power line and then crash to the ground, bursting into flames. The only occupant, the pilot, sustained burns, lacerations and abrasions.

Mr. Mathews and Mr. Brown, in spite of the danger of the machine exploding, rushed to the wreckage to extricate the pilot, who was then unconscious. It was impossible to undo the safety belt at first because of the slumped position of the pilot. When the pilot was released he was found to be further restrained with part of the aerial cable, which was very hot, around his chest.

After the pilot had been lifted clear of the aircraft, it exploded. Had it not been for the courageous action of these two men, the pilot would have burned to death.
