

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 15. to Thursday March 18. 1707.

St. James's, March 16.

THE following Address of the University of Oxford was presented by the Vice-Chancellor, attended by a numerous Train of the most eminent Members of the said University, conducted by the Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, and introduc'd by their Chancellor his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the University of Oxon. May it please Your Majesty, WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxon, out of Our most hearty Concern for the Safety of Your Sacred Person and Government, and of Our holy Religion by Law Establish'd, do humbly beg Leave to declare to Your Majesty Our utmost Abhorrence of the Invasion of Your Dominions design'd and intended by some of Your own Rebellious Subjects, under a pretended Prince attainted of High-Treason, educated in Romish Superstition, and supported in this Attempt by a French Army.

As it has been the constant Care of Your University, to establish the Minds of those committed to them, with Precepts and Instructions which make Subjects dutiful, and Princes safe; so We hope always to shew Our just Detestation, as of this flagrant Attempt against Your Crown and Dignity, so likewise of those mischievous Doctrines and Opinions, that dispose and prepare Mens Minds for such Unnatural Enterprises against their Sovereign, and the Peace and Tranquility of their Native Country.

May the God of Heaven still defend Your Person and Government; and may those Enemies, whom Your Clemency and Goodness cannot vanquish, continue to fall and fly before Your Victorious Arms.

To which Her Majesty return'd the following most gracious Answer.

Give You many Thanks for Your Address, and for the Assurances You give Me of Your Zeal and Duty upon this Occasion.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon, was presented by Nathaniel Pierne and Frederick Herne, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord High-Treasurer of Great-Britain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty, WE cannot consider the Design, which is suppos'd to be now form'd, against some Part of Your Majesty's Dominions, without that Zeal and Concern for Your Majesty's Safety, and for the Peace of Your Kingdoms, which so much become all Your good Subjects. Upon this Occasion therefore, we beg leave to renew unto Your Majesty the Assurances we have often already given of Our most stedfast Allegiance to Your Majesty, and Our ready Endeavours to do, in Our several Places, the utmost Services we are capable of, against all Your Enemies whatsoever.

The many Successes of Your glorious Reign have sufficient-ly convinc'd the World, That French Policy is to be detest'd, and French Forces to be overthrow'd; and we have the greatest Hopes thus such, in a very short time, will be the Event in the present Case, especially considering Your Majesty's extraordinary Care and Conduct about the necessary Preparations: For as We heard of the Danger We were in, we heard to, almost at the very same time, that a suit-able Provision was already made against it.

May the great God, who disappointeth the Devices of the Crafty, and giveth Victory to his Servants, bless all Your Righteous Undertakings, not only for the Tranquility and Happiness of Your own Kingdoms, but the Restoration of the whole Spanish Monarchy to the House of Austria, and the settling the Peace of Europe on such lasting Foundations that it shall be no longer in the Power of Your Enemies to disturb it.

The following Address from the Mayor, Minister, Magistrates, Common-Council, and Free Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Devizes, was presented to Her Majesty by Josiah Difson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduc'd by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Boyle.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign, IT was with the utmost Concern for Your Majesty's Safety and Government, that We Your Majesty's Faithful Subjects of this Borough heard of the intended Invasion by the Pretended Prince of Wales, or rather by the French King in his Name, the Consequence of which, if it should succeed (which God prevent) would be the Overturning the present Government both in Church and State, together with the Protestant Succession.

We own at the same time, That the great and early Preparations Your Majesty hath made for the Security of these Kingdoms, hath given great Ease and Satisfaction to the Minds of all Your good People.

And we beg Leave to take the first Opportunity to assure Your Majesty, That we have a firm Reliance on Your Majesty's great Wisdom, and the known Zeal of Your Parliament and Your Ministry for Your Service; and shall readily venture our Lives, and all that is dear to Us in this World, to disappoint this desperate Attempt of Your Enemies.

The DECLARATION of the County of Surry, presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Onslow and Sir William Scawen, Knights of the Shire for the same County, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord-Lieutenant of the same.

WE the Lord-Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Surry, and Borough of Southwark,

Do unanimously declare to Your most Excellent Majesty, That We, with the utmost hazard of Our Lives and Fortunes, will stand by and support Your Rightful and Lawful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, the Succession in the Protestant Line, and the Government, as by the Law Establish'd, both in Church and State.

In opposition to the Person, Traiterously taking upon himself the Title of James the Third, and all his Adherents and Abettors whomsoever, now attempting to invade Your Majesty's Dominions with a French Power, in order to dethrone Your Majesty, and introduce Popery and Slavery.

Which Declaration Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and was pleas'd to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon James Clerk, and Isaac Shard, Esqrs;

The humble Address of the Mayor, Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of New Windsor; presented to Her Majesty by the Mayor, Corporation and Representatives in Parliament of the said Borough, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

AS it is our peculiar Happiness to live nearer the Influence of Your Royal Presence than most of our Fellow-Subjects, so it is our Duty to be more early in the sincere and hearty Professions of our Loyalty to Your Majesty, and Devotion