Westminster, March 20.

HER Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers; and being in Her Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Mr. Aston, Deputy Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleas'd to give the Royal Assent to an Act for assuring to the English Company trading to the East-Indies on account of the United-Stock, a longer time in the East and Trade therein mentioned, and for raising thereby the Sum of Twelve hundred thousand Pounds for carrying on the War, and other Her Majesty's Occasions.

An Act for continuing the half Subsidies therein mentioned, with several Impositions and other Duties to raise Money by way of Loan for the Service of the War, and other Her Majesty's necessary and important Occasions, and for charging of Prize Goods and Seizures, and for taking off the Drawbacks of Foreign Cordage, and to obviate the Clannish Importation of wrought Silks.

An Act for the avoiding of Doubts and Questions touching the Statutes of divers Cathedral and Collegiate Churches.

An Act for the better Amendment of that Way which leads from Cherrill, thro' Caine, to Studley-Bridge, in the County of Wilts.

An Act for erecting a Harbour or Key at East-Tarbet, in the Shire of Argyle.

An Act for continuing an Act made in the third Year of Her Majesty's Reign, Entituled, An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion and false Musters, and for the better payment of the Army and Quarters.

An Act for the more effectual Discovery of the Death of Persons pretended to be alive to the prejudice of those who claim Estates after their Deaths.

An Act for repairing the Highways from old Stratford, in the County of Northampton, to Dunchurch in the County of Warwick.

And to six Private Bills.

By the QUEEN

A DECLARATION,

Requiring all Officers and Soldiers to Observe strict Discipline, and for Payment of their Quarters.

ANNE R.

Whereas it is absolutely Necessary for the Ease of Our Subjects, and Maintaining the good Discipline of Our Forces, That constant Payment be made by the several Regiments, Troops and Companies of Horse, Foot and Dragoon in this Our Kingdom, as well upon their March as in their respective Quarters; And that none of Our good Subjects may suffer by the Disorders that may happen to be committed by the Officers or Soldiers within Our Pay and Entertainment, We have thought fit hereby to Declare by Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That in what Place soever any of Our Forces shall Pass and Remain, they shall duly pay their Quarters at the usual Rates and Allowances directed in that behalf, beyond which no Private Soldier or Officer of any Regiment, Troop or Company, is to be trusted for any Provisions or Sum of Money, on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, in their Quarters, and shall not upon any Pretence whatsoever, receive or avoid the same: And We do likewise strictly forbid all Our Officers and Soldiers to use any Violence or Threatning Words, or to give any other Offence or just Cause of Complaint to any Person whatsoever. And for the better preventing any Disorders, and for the more Regular and Punctual Payment of Quarters in the March of Our Forces, We do strictly Charge and Require, That upon the Arrival of any Regiment, Troop or Company in any Town or Village, Publication be made immediately, by Beat of Drum, or otherwise, and Notice given to the Chief Magistrate or Civil Officer of Our Pleasure, That all Officers and Private Soldiers shall duly pay their Quarters; And in case of Defaults, such Chief Magistrate or Civil Officer is to Acquaint the Commanding Officer therewith before their March, that he may speedily take Care, upon the severest Penalty, for the Payment of what shall be justly due. And if any of Our Officers or Soldiers shall presume to Commit any Spoil or Disorder, or otherwise Misbehave themselves, the said Magistrate or Civil Officer shall make their Complaint to the Commander in Chief of any Wrong done, whereupon Our express Will and Pleasure is, That such Commander in Chief shall cause immediate Satisfaction to be made to the Persons Injured; And if such Officer to whom Complaint is made, shall forbear or delay the causing due Satisfaction to be given as aforesaid, We do hereby declare Our Resolution, upon Information and Complaint to Us made by Our Secretary at War, to Punish such Officer by Cashiering, or otherwise, as the Nature and Quality of their Offence shall deserve. And We do further Declare Our Will and Pleasure to be, That no Officer or Soldier, in their March or Quarters, shall be lodged in any Private House whatsoever, without the Free and Voluntary Consent of the Owner; And that in case any Officers or Soldiers shall for any Reward or Consideration Leave or Change the Quarters appointed them, or shall Demand, or Exact Money for Quarters, or to Exempt any Persons from the same, they shall be Punished by Cashiering and Forbid all Officers and Soldiers to Destroy or Disturb the Game in any manner whatsoever: It being Our Royal Intention and Command, That all Officers and Soldiers in Our Service behave themselves orderly in all things, upon Pain of the severest Consequences of Our high Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this Seventeenth Day of March, 1707-8. In the Seventh Year of Our Reign.

God save the QUEEN.

The following Address was presented by the Lord Mayor, and the rest of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy, for the City of London.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, and the rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for Your City of London.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE are so deeply sensible of the unspeakable Blessings We enjoy under Your Majesty's Administration, as well as of Your Majesty's only Rightful and Lawful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and of the Obligations We have further brought Our selves under, by the Oaths We have taken, to support Your Majesty, and Your Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line; and more particularly against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all that shall Traitorously adhere to him; That We cannot but take the Opportunity which is given Us by the intended Invasion, to assure Your Majesty, that We will stand by and support Your Majesty, to the utmost of Our Power, against this Hellish Attempt and Conspiracy.

We humbly take the Liberty, upon this Occasion, to Congratulate Your Majesty, upon Your being at the Head of an United Parliament, which hath given such undoubted Proofs of their Zeal and Affection for Your Person and Government; and that You have the Assistance and Advice of such Ministers as have given the greatest Demonstration of the same. And as We have already taken all due Care that the Regiments of this City should be fill'd with Officers who may be entirely depended upon for their Zeal for the late happy Revolution, Your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line; so we will use Our utmost Diligence to Discharge the Trust Your Majesty hath lodg'd in Us, in every other Branch of it, for the Safety and Security of Your Majesty's Person and Government.

And that We may not omit any thing that may give Your Majesty all the Security imaginable, that these are Our unfeign'd Sentiments and Resolutions; We humbly take the Liberty to assure Your Majesty, That at the same time that We know Our Selves to be under all the Ties of Duty of all Kinds that can be devis'd, to act up to these Principles with all the Zeal and Vigour imaginable; We are as fully persuaded, That Our Duty cannot carry Us farther than Our Apparent Interest doth in this Matter: Since as We enjoy every thing under Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign over Us, either for this Life or a better, that a Government can well procure to its Subjects; so We know there is no Misery that We must not expect to be for ever intail'd upon Our Country, from the Subversion of this happy Settlement.

Will Your Majesty then be pleas'd to accept of Our humble Assurances, that We will act as it becomes those to do, who are fully persuaded, that he that doth not do every thing that lies in his Power, in the Station that God or Your Majesty hath plac'd him, for the Defence and Support of Your Person and Government, against the Attempt which that Pretender traitorously persists in, and all other Attempts whatsoever, can never answer it to Your Majesty or Your Allies, to himself or his Country, to the present Age or to Posterity, or to God Almighty at the last Day.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleas'd to return the following most Gracious Answer.

I Thank You for Your Address, and the Assurances You give Me; which I doubt not but You will rake good, since You have taken so much Care to fill the vacant Regiments with Officers well affected to the Revolution, to My Person and Government, and to the Protestant Succession.

St. James's, March 18. This Day the following Address of the Lord Provost, Bailiffs, and Town-Council of the City of Edinburgh, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Patrick Johnston, their Representative in Parliament; introduc'd by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Mar, Secretary of State for Scotland;

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Provost, Bailiffs, and Town-Council of Your Majesty's good Town of Edinburgh, for themselves, and in Name of the whole Community thereof.

THAT We being always under the deepest Impressions and most lively Sense of Our Duty to Your Majesty, as becomes Your most Loyal and Faithful Subjects, cannot but at this time, upon the occasion of an intended Invasion by Your Enemies against Your Person and Government, threatening the Destruction of Our Country, and of Our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and all that is dear to Men, judge it Our part to make Offer to Your Majesty of Our best Services, to the utmost of Our Capacities, both publick and private, with our Lives and Fortunes, to adhere to and defend Your Majesty's Person and Government, and to maintain the present happy Establishment and Succession in the Protestant Line, against all Popish Successors and Pretenders, especially the pretended Prince of Wales and all his Abettors; as also to oppose the present Invasion, in Defence of Our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of Your Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, to the utmost of Our Power. And that We may yet give a more real Proof of these Our Expressions of Our Duty and Loyalty, We further most humbly propose, That according to the Example here practis'd by this Your Loyal City of Edinburgh, in the Year 1692, upon the like Occasion of a threatened Invasion. We are resolv'd, and hereby most humbly offer to Levy and Reek out a certain Number of Soldiers for the Ends above-mentioned, upon Our own private Expences, and according to the Proportion that each of Us shall engage and subscribe to, with 40 Days Provision, if so be it shall please Your Majesty to Authorize Us thereto, and these to be modell'd and commanded by such Officers as Your Majesty shall be pleas'd to appoint; professing solemnly, that in whatever may or shall regard the Safety and Honour of Your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Defence of Our Religion, Laws and Liberties, against the present Invasion, and all Your Majesty's Enemies, We are and shall be ready to obey all Your Majesty's Royal Commands: And that God may long preserve Your Majesty's Person, and ever bless and advance Your Reign over Us with all Prosperity and Happiness, is and shall be the constant Prayer of,

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most humble, most faithful and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

St. James's, March 20. This Day the following Address of the Provost, &c. of the City of Glasgow, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Mar, Secretary of State for Scotland.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Provost, Bailiffs and Council of the City of Glasgow, for themselves, and in Name of the Community thereof.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Faithful and Loyal Subjects, from a deep Sense of the many signal Blessings and special Advantages which we enjoy under Your Majesty's most Happy Government, and from a just Abhorrence of the pernicious Designs of the French King and his Abettors, to invade these Your Majesty's Kingdoms, and to set a Popish Pretender upon the Throne, to the utter overthrow of all Our valuable Interests, Sacred and Civil, humbly beg Leave to own and acknowledge Your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and the Dominions therunto belonging.

We take this Opportunity to assure Your Majesty, that We are firmly resolv'd to the utmost of Our Power, with Our Lives and Fortunes, to Defend and Maintain Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Lawful Authority, against the pretended Prince of Wales and his Adherents whatsoever; and that on all Occasions We shall be ready to appear in Defence of the Protestant Succession, the true Reformation'd Religion, and Presbyterian Church Government as by Law Establish'd.

May Your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous, may Your Arms always be Successful, and may all the Designs and Contrivances of Your Majesty's Enemies still prove Abortive, to Your Majesty's Satisfaction, and the Joy of all Your good Subjects, and in particular of,

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most humble, most faithful and devoted Subjects and Servants, &c.

Both which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously, and order'd the Earl of Mar to return her Thanks to both those Cities for the Zeal they had shewn for the Preservation of Her Person and Government at this juncture.

The following Address was presented to the Queen on Friday the 19th of March, by Sir William Gostwyck, one of the Knights of the Shire for Bedfordshire, being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord-Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders at the Assizes assembled for the County of Bedford, on the 11th Day of March, 1707, do highly resent the present Infringe of the French King upon Your Majesty's Dominions, in sending the pretended Prince of Wales with Forces, in an hostile manner, to invade the same. We are truly sensible of the unspeakable Advantages We enjoy under Your Majesty's most happy Government, and how just and undoubted a Right and Title You have to the Imperial Crown of these Realms; and do humbly beg Leave, with the greatest Sincerity, to assure Your Majesty, That we will both now and at all Times, and on all Occasions hereafter, stand by Your Majesty in defence of Your Royal Person and Kingdoms, and the Protestant Succession, as by Law establish'd, with our Lives and Fortunes, as well against this Pretender as all other Your Majesty's Enemies, both at home and abroad.

A most humble Address from the University of Cambridge, presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Somerset, the Chancellor, attended by the Vice-Chancellor, several Bishops, Heads of Houses, Doctors, and many other Members of the University, being introduc'd by the Lord-Chamberlain.

WE Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge,

Being highly sensible of the manifest Injury design'd to Your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to these Your Dominions, which a Pretender from France has threaten'd to invade, humbly crave Leave to express Our utmost Abhorrence of this and all other Attempts which may be made to disturb the inestimable Happiness We enjoy under Your Majesty's most gracious Administration.

The great Security of Our Religion and Property under Your Majesty's Protection and Influence, and the happy Prospect We have of its Continuance, by the Establishment of the Protestant Succession, are Blessings We shall always think too valuable to be exchanged for the greatest Promises that can be made by a Popish Invader.

And We do with all Humility assure Your Majesty, That as by the Principles of Our Church We are taught the highest Duty and Submission to Our Superiors, so We, in Our several Stations, shall do Our utmost to recommend them to those under Our Care, and upon all Occasions be ready to employ them in a zealous Defence of You Majesty's most Sacred Person.

May the Blessing of God attend upon Your Majesty's Princely Care and Wisdom, upon the experienc'd Courage and Conduct of those who preside over Your Fleets and Armies, and upon the great Vigilance and Fidelity of Your Councillors at home; that so all manner of treacherous Designs against You may be rendred ineffectual, the common Enemy be defeated in all his Enterprizes, and Europe at last restored to a safe and honourable Peace. And may Your Majesty, after a long and prosperous Reign over a happy People, receive the everlasting Reward of these illustrious and shining Virtues which must have been instrumental in procuring it.

To which Her Majesty was pleas'd to give the following most Gracious Answer.

I Give You many Thanks for the Zeal and Affection You have shown to Me on this Occasion; and You may depend on all times on my Protection.

The following Address was presented by the Rt. Hon. the Marquis of Dorchester, Cassio Rotulorum for the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, at the Assizes held at the City of New Sarum, in and for the County of Wilts, the 5th Day of March, Anno Dom. 1707.

THE daily Influences We have of Your Majesty's great Clemency and Goodness to Your Subjects, more particularly express in Your late most Gracious Answer to the Address of both Your Houses of Parliament, and Your Royal Proclamation, by both which We have certain Information of an Hostile Invasion, unprovoked by the pretended Prince of Wales and his Traiterous Adherents, occasions this humble Address from Your Loyal County of Wilts; Who do for Our Selves, and in the Name of the whole County whom We at this time represent, with most humble and thankful Hearts, acknowledge Your Majesty's most early Care to prevent the Dangers that must of Necessity have ensued from such a bold Attempt; and cannot sufficiently admire that most pious and religious Dependance on the Mercies of God, which Your Majesty chiefly places Your Trust in. And next to that be pleas'd to accept, among the faithful Services of Your Majesty's Subjects in general, Our best Endeavours in this County, to observe what Your Majesty has enjoy'd us to perform, each of Us in Our respective Stations, not only by securing the Persons subjected, but by exposing and unweaving the pernicious Principles, upon which the aforesaid pretended Prince's Title is founded, and without which he would never have been advis'd to have hazarded such an Expedition; namely, the asserting a Divine Right to the lineal Succession to the Crown, in Opposition to the former Laws that limit and bind the Descent thereof, and in contradiction to the latter Acts of Settlement upon Your Sacred Majesty; and that since on the Protestant Line, on both which the Safety of Your Majesty and all Your good Subjects entirely depends; And which We humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty We will inviolably observe, not only for the Defence of our Religion, Liberty, and Property, but by a grateful Duty for the better guarding and preserving the best of Queens.

Edenburgh, March 15. This Day the Captain of the Medway brought a Letter to the Earl of Leven from Sir George Bing, with Advice, That on Saturday the 13th about 10 in the Morning they came in Sight of the French Fleet, and that about four a Clock one of the British Ships came up with the Rear of the Enemy, and engaged first with one, then with another, and afterwards with a third. But the French making all the Evening the best of their way to the Northward, and being small and clean Ships, the British Squadron could not come up with 'em, and that the Night coming on put an End to the Engagement. The French Squadron were chased from the Coast out to the Sea, and it is believed that they will be forced to return to Dunkirk with this Wind, which is at N. E. Sir George Bing saw the Enemy on Sunday the 14th in the Morning, and after a short Chase lost sight of 'em, upon which he is now making the best of his way to the Firth.

From on Board the Medway, March 15. We chased the Enemy to the Northward of Buccanefs, sometimes with reasonable Hopes of coming up with them. The Dover and Ludlow-Castle being the only clean sailing Ships we had, they were the first which came up with part of the Enemies Squadron, passing by some of the smaller to engage some of the larger Ships, and stop 'em 'till they could be relieved; they attack'd two or three of their Ships, among which was the Salisbury; they did not part with 'em 'till more of our Ships arriv'd, but work'd their Ship in a handsom manner to cut 'em off from the rest of the Fleet; but in the Darkeness of the Night they all got out of sight except the Salisbury, who falling in amongst our Headmost Ships, the Leopard enter'd Men on Board her. We were inform'd by the Officers who were taken, That there were 12 Battalions on Board their Squadron, commanded by the Count de Gacé, a Marshal of France. The pretended Prince of Wales, Lord Middleton, Lord Perth, the Mac Donnels Trevanion, and several other Officers and Gentlemen were on Board the Mars, in which also was Monsieur Fourbin, who commanded the Squadron. The Number and Strength of their Ships are very near the Account we lately receiv'd from Dunkirk, nor were they join'd by the Brest Men of War; and they further assure us, that the Ships our Out-scouts saw off of Calais were Privateers and their Prizes going into Dunkirk.

The Morning after this Chace we saw but 18 of the Enemies Ships, as far as we could perceive them from the Mast-head, in the E. N. E. of us. Having no prospect of coming up with them, we lay off and on Buccanefs all Day Yesterday to gather our Ships together; and this Day it blowing hard at N. E. with a great Sea, judging the Enemy could not seize the Shore to make any Attempt, we bore up for this Place; which was thought most reasonable, not only to secure but to give Countenance and Spirit to Her Majesty's faithful Subjects, and discourage those that could have Thoughts of being our Enemies.
