Turin, May 5. N. S. The Prince of Wirtemberg arriv'd here last Night from Milan. He is to command a Detachment of 6000 of the Emperor's Troops at Suzza, which are already upon their March for that Place. By our last Letters from Milan we hear, that Prince Eugene's Equipage went lately from thence, and is to take its Rout thro' Bavaria, in order, as we suppose, to join the Army, which according to some late Advices is to be form'd upon the Moselle, under the Command of that Prince. The General who is to be at the Head of the Imperial Troops in these Parts this Campaign, is not yet nam'd; but, it's generally believ'd, that Honour will be confer'd on Count Dawn. We every Day expect Major-General Stanhope at this Court, having had News of his passing by Frankfort on the 25th of the last Month.

Vienna, May 9. N. S. Prince Eugene of Savoy returned hither on the 6th Instant in the Evening, having visited the Courts of Dusseldorp and Hanover in his Return from Holland. They write from Presburg, that Prince Esterhazy, Palatine of Hungary, having gone to perform his Devotions on a Mount Calvary, a little way out of Town, he narrowly escap'd falling into the Hands of a Party of Malecontents, who seiz'd on his Coach and six Horses, they send daily from hence by Water, Provisions, Ammunition, and all other Necessaries for their Army in Hungary, where they propose very suddenly to open the Campaign. The Body of the Danish Troops, which have been, for some time, quarter'd in Banah, is shortly expected here in their way to Hungary. Our last Advices from the Queen of Spain were of the 4th Instant, and left her Majesty at Braunau, on the River Inn. The next Day her Majesty was to lye at Oering, where she was to meet her Mother, and rest the Day following. When the Queen arriv'd on the Frontiers of Bavaria, she was complimented by Deputies from the States of that Dutchy, who presented her with a Purse of 2000 Ducats. In her Passage thro' that Country, her Majesty had a Guard of Danish Cavalry.

Bern, May 12. N. S. The French Ambassador delaying still to exchange the Ratifications of the Treaty of Neuchâtel, this Canton has writ a Letter to desire him to appoint a time and place for that Purpose, to which he has not yet return'd any Answer; however, they rely so much upon the Solemn Assurances he has given them, that they have recall'd all the Troops they have kept in Neuchâtel for the Defence of that County since this Difference, and Count Metternich has disbanded the Regiment he had rais'd for the same Service. The Deputies of this Canton that were sent to Zurich about the Business of Tockenburg are return'd hither, but not having yet made their Report to the Council of their Negotiation, it is not particularly known what they have done in it; however, it is said in general they have compos'd the Differences which have so long disturb'd that Country.

Berlin May 12. N. S. Letters from Warlaw of the fifth Instant give the Palatine of Sandomir had suffer'd so much by the March of Troops thro' their Country, that they have been under great Difficulties to furnish their Consigent for the Augmentation of the Crown Army. The Nobility of the Palatine of Lublin have offer'd their Personal Service in the next Campaign, and Commission'd the Castellans to acquaint the General of the Crown with that their Resolution. General Mazeppa has notify'd to the Grand General, that he is willing to deliver up the Fortress of Bialocerkiow, and desires him to send the Commissaries of the Republick to take possession of it. Letters from Wilda of the 29th of April inform us, that the Kings of Sweden and Poland continu'd in their former Quarters; and that his Swedish Majesty, at the Request of King Stanislaus, had remitted the Contribution of 10000 Crowns which he demanded of that City.

Brussels, May 21. N. S. The Troops which have had their Quarters upon the Maese, and in other remote Garrisons, as also those of Louvain, Mechlen, and Liere, encamp'd this Day at a small distance from the Walls of this Place. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough rid out in the Morning to see them on their March, and afterwards took a Review of the Camp; which extends the Right at St. Ann Bede, to the Left at Veevay near the Grand Causeway. On Thursday the 24th, his Grace designs to advance towards Enghien, and will there be join'd by the British Troops, and the rest from Flanders; the Forces already encamp'd are all compleat, and in very good Condition. We have no further Account of the Enemy, than that they continue encamp'd in different Bodies, and propose to join to Morrow, or on Wednesday.

Hague, May 22. N. S. We hear the Elector of Hanover intended to set out on the twenty first Instant to join the Army upon the Rhine. His Son, the Prince Electoral, is expected here in his way to Flanders; where, 'tis said, he will make the ensuing Campaign. Advices from Hamburg tell us, that the Troops of Sweden, Prussia and Hanover, to the number of 10000 Men, had Invested that City, being sent thither to put an end to the Animosities between the Magistracy and People. We have receiv'd fresh Intelligence of an Advantage obtain'd by the Muscovites over the advanced Guard of the Swedish Army. The Prince of Nassau, Hereditary Governor of Friesland, arriv'd at Amsterdam on the 18th Instant, and proceeded the same Day on his Journey into Flanders, where he is to Command in Quality of General of the Foot. 'Tis said the Duke of Bavaria will stay at Metz till he can make some probable Conjectures which Way the Allies will bend their course on that side.

Kensington, May 15. On the 11th Instant the Comte de Briancan, Envoy-Extraordinary from his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, had Audience of the Queen; and afterwards of his Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark, to congratulate the Disappointment of the Pretender's Invasion on North-Britain with French Troops; being introduc'd by Sir Charles Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies.
