Notice of submission of Preliminary Draft Regulations entitled

The National Insurance (Contributions) Amendment Regulations 1967

In accordance with section 108 of the National Insurance Act 1965, the National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received from the Minister of Social Security for consideration and report thereon the preliminary draft of regulations entitled the National Insurance (Contributions) Amendment Regulations 1967.

A short explanatory note of these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 5d.) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the following addresses:

The Committee will take into consideration any objection, made by or on behalf of persons affected, received by them not later than 18th August 1967. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 10 John Adam Street, London W.C.2.

Ifor Evans, Chairman.

Explanatory Note

These regulations amend the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations 1948 (hereinafter called "the principal regulations") by inserting a new regulation 27A in Part V thereof, which relates to contributions which persons are entitled to pay but are not liable to pay. Paragraph (1) of the inserted regulation enables the Minister to give further time for the payment of contributions under regulations 5 or 7 of the principal regulations (which apply to persons in prison or detained in legal custody and to full-time students, unpaid apprentices and persons undergoing training, respectively), or under regulation 5 of the National Insurance (Residence and Persons Abroad) Regulations 1948 (hereinafter called "the residence regulations") (which regulation applies to insured persons outside Great Britain) where failure to pay within the period provided for in the regulation concerned is attributable to ignorance or error for which the person concerned was not to blame. Paragraphs (2) and (3) give a similar power to the Minister where there was or could have been a right to pay contributions under regulation 6 of the residence regulations (which applied to persons who were outside Great Britain on 5th July 1948 and were not then insured persons but who subsequently returned to Great Britain), which regulation was revoked in 1956. Paragraph (4) provides that persons to whom paragraphs 2 and 3 apply shall be insured persons for periods for which contributions are paid under the provisions of those paragraphs.
