

but other things were Accomplish'd in it are apprehended. Those Advices add, that the Dukes of Burgundy and Berry will stay at Valenciennes till the French Army is assembled. We hear from Paris, that the Marechal Villars is extremely dissatisfied that he is in Command in Dauphiny, at the Head of Troops to which he is wholly a Stranger. Advices from Spain say, that the Marquis de Bay was encamp'd near Badajoz; and that the Duke of Orleans had set out on the Seventh from Saragossa, in order to join the Army near Mequinenza. 'Tis said also, that the Duke of Noailles is to March with another Body towards Gironne; but that the great want of Money makes it at present impracticable to put the Dispositions they have form'd in Execution.

May 17. Yesterday came in the Bullion Gally, John Com-Master, the Drake Gally, John Eastmount Com-Master, and the Hunter, Captain Fleming, all three of this Port from Gibraltar. The same Tide came in the Sophia of this Place from Lisbon, and the Kent Sloop of and from Jamaica but last from Kinfales, from whence she set sail last Wednesday, and brings an Account, that the Hastings and Shoreham had taken the Jersey, a French Man of War, and carried her into Dublin.

Whitehall May 15. This Day the late Lord Griffin (one of the Prisoners taken on Board the Salisbury, being attainted by Oathwry for High-Treason committed in the Reign of the late King William) was brought to the Bar of the Queen's Bench by Vertue of Her Majesty's Writ of Habeas Corpus, directed to the Lieutenant of the Tower in London, in whose Custody he is; and being ask'd what he had to say why Execution should not be awarded against him, said having nothing material to alledge, the Court made a Rule for his Execution, as is usual in such Cases.

Kensington May 17. This Day the Excellency Baron de Spanheim, Ambassador-Extraordinary of his Majesty the King of Prussia, had Audience of Her Majesty, to notify to Her Majesty the Death of the young Prince of Orange, Grand-Son to the King his Master. He had afterwards Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark, on the same Occasion; having been introduc'd by Sir Charles Cottrill, Master of the Ceremonies.
