State Intelligence

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.
5th January 1968.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to appoint Lieutenant-General Sir George Gordon Lennox, K.B.E., C.B., C.V.O., D.S.O., to be King of Arms of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire in the room of Air Marshal Sir (Charles) Roderick Carr, K.B.E., C.B., D.F.C., A.F.C., retired.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1967.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Burial Act 1855 (1855 c. 128) it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 25th day of October 1881, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") directing the discontinuance of burials, in Prittlewell Parish Churchyard, in the County of Essex:

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the principal Order should be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The principal Order shall have effect subject to the following exception or qualification, viz.:

That notwithstanding anything in the said Order the burial may be allowed in the said Churchyard, of the bodies of the late Canon John Alfred Stanley and, at her decease, of Mrs. Lilian Elizabeth Stanley, provided that no part of any coffin containing the said bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889 c. 63) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Prittlewell) (Variation) Order 1967.

W. G. Agnew

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1967.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Minister of Housing and Local Government that, for the protection of the Public Health, burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in the Church and Churchyard of St. George, Portland, in the County of Dorset, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 10th day of October 1967, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act, 1853 (1853 c. 134), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Church and Churchyard of St. George, Portland, in the County of Dorset.

Provided that—

In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. George's Church and Churchyard, Portland, Dorset) Order, 1967.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 20th day of December 1967.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Minister of Housing and Local Government that, for the protection of the Public Health, burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in that part of St. Bartholomew's Churchyard, Church Minshull in the County of Cheshire, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto, has in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 10th day of October 1967, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial
