

2.—He shall be responsible for and superintend the general discipline and instruction of all boys admitted to the School.

3.—He shall be continually resident during the School terms, except when absent in the course of duties arising from his office, or with the previous consent of the Warden and Fellows, or for some urgent cause to be signified by him in writing to the Warden and Fellows.

4.—He shall have a house rent free. The house shall be kept in substantial repair by the College, and all rates and taxes and other outgoings in respect thereof shall be paid out of the income of the College.

5.—He shall receive such remuneration as shall be determined from time to time by the Warden and Fellows.

Second Master.

6.—The Second Master shall be appointed by the Head Master with the approval of the Warden and Fellows, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Head Master.

7.—He shall have charge of the Scholars and shall be responsible to the Head Master for their government, discipline and welfare; he shall be the Head Master's representative in the absence of the Head Master unless the Head Master shall otherwise appoint; and he shall perform such other duties in the School as the Head Master shall from time to time assign to him.

8.—He shall have a house rent free. The house shall be kept in substantial repair by the College, and all rates and taxes and other outgoings in respect thereof shall be paid out of the income of the College.

9.—He shall receive such remuneration as shall be determined from time to time by the Warden and Fellows.

10.—Subject as aforesaid, the Second Master shall rank as one of the Assistant Masters of the College.

X. ASSISTANT MASTERS.

1.—The number, position, rank, and remuneration of the Assistant Masters shall be subject to the directions from time to time of the Warden and Fellows.

2.—Every Assistant Master shall be appointed by and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Head Master. If at any time the Head Master shall dismiss an Assistant Master, he shall forthwith report such dismissal, with the reasons therefor, to the Warden and Fellows.

3.—The Warden and Fellows shall have power to assign out of the income of the College such remuneration as they may from time to time think fit to such Master or Masters (if any) as shall be required to assist in the domestic care and discipline of the Scholars, and to assign rooms to such Master or Masters.

XI.—SCHOLARS.

Number.

1.—Subject to the provisions of Section 5 of this Statute, there shall not be less than seventy Scholars of the College to be elected by the Warden and Fellows in the manner hereinafter provided.

Qualifications.

2.—The Scholarships shall be open to any boy who shall be a British subject by birth, duly qualified in respect of character and attainments who, in the year in which the election is held, shall not have attained the age of fourteen years on the first day of June and shall have attained the age of twelve years on the first day of September. Every candidate shall produce evidence satisfactory to the Warden and Fellows of the date of his birth, of good character and of nationality. Otherwise his candidature shall be disallowed, unless he obtains, under Section 3 of this Statute, special leave to be a candidate.

3.—The Warden and Fellows may in any case in which they think fit grant special leave to be a candidate for a Scholarship to any applicant who, being otherwise duly qualified to be a candidate, shall not have the qualifications of nationality required by this Statute, or shall not be able to produce satisfactory evidence that he has them. Applications for such special leave shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time direct.

Election.

4.—The election to Scholarships shall take place annually at a general meeting of the Warden and Fellows.

5.—The election shall be made by the Warden and Fellows after an examination conducted by the Head Master and examiners appointed by him in such subjects and in such manner as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine. The examiners shall arrange on a roll in order of merit the names of at least as many candidates as shall in their judgment be sufficient to supply the vacancies available, and the Head Master shall report their findings to the Warden and Fellows.

Admission.

6.—Every Scholar shall be admitted by the Warden or by the Head Master acting on behalf and at the request of the Warden; and a record of the admission shall be made in the Register of the College.

Tenure and Privileges.

7.—Subject to good behaviour, and subject to such Regulations as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time make with respect to the attainment by every boy of a position in the School commensurate with his age, a Scholarship shall be tenable until the end of the School half-year in which the Scholar attains the age of eighteen years; but the Warden and Fellows may make such Regulations as they may from time to time think fit for permitting a Scholar to retain his Scholarship until the end of the School half-year in which he shall attain the age of nineteen years. For the purpose of this section the School half-years shall be considered to end on the 1st day of January and the 1st day of August.

8.—There shall be paid in respect of every Scholar hereafter elected such annual sum towards his maintenance and education as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine. Subject to such payment, the Scholars shall be maintained and educated during their residence at School out of the income of the College:

Provided that the Warden and Fellows shall have power in the case of any Scholar, whose financial position appears to them to require it, to remit from time to time any part of the said annual sum. The Warden and Fellows shall determine the scale upon which such remission shall be made and the method by which the need of each Scholar shall be ascertained.

9.—In cases of grave misconduct, the Head Master shall have power to expel any Scholar. In every case the Head Master shall at once report to the Warden and Fellows such expulsion, and the reason therefor.

XII.—COMMONERS.

1.—There shall be such number of boys in the School other than Scholars, to be known as Commoners, as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

2.—The conditions governing the admission of Commoners, their lodging, boarding and education, shall be subject to the directions from time to time of the Warden and Fellows.

3.—There shall be paid in respect of every Commoner such annual sum for his maintenance and education and such other fees and charges as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

XIII.—EXHIBITIONS.

1.—The Warden and Fellows shall award competitive Exhibitions, to be held by Commoners during their residence at the School, of such number and of such value as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time determine.

2.—The qualifications and conditions of eligibility for such Exhibitions in respect of age, character, attainments, nationality and otherwise and the method of election to, and the conditions of tenure of, such Exhibitions shall (mutatis mutandis) be the same as those prescribed for Scholars in Statute XI.

XIV.—BURSARIES.

1.—The Warden and Fellows may award non-competitive Exhibitions, called Bursaries, to be held by boys in the School whose financial position appears to the Warden and Fellows to require it.
