

resident in Southern Rhodesia or constituted or incorporated as aforesaid.

(2) Any provision of this Order which relates to goods exported from Southern Rhodesia (or to the exportation of goods from Southern Rhodesia) shall not have effect in respect of goods exported (or the exportation of goods) which have only passed through Southern Rhodesia in transit and have not been the subject of any transaction there other than a transaction relating solely to their transportation; and any provision of this Order which relates to the exportation of goods to Southern Rhodesia, the supply or delivery of goods to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or the importation of goods into Southern Rhodesia shall not have effect in relation to goods which are intended only to pass through Southern Rhodesia in transit and not to be the subject of any transaction there other than a transaction relating solely to their transportation.

(3) For the purposes of this Order, the entry into Southern Rhodesia of a vehicle shall not be regarded as constituting the supply or delivery of that vehicle to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or as constituting its importation into Southern Rhodesia if the entry is merely for the purpose of the vehicle transporting persons into, out of or across Southern Rhodesia or transporting goods across Southern Rhodesia and is not part of or associated with a transaction involving a transfer of the ownership of the vehicle or of any interest therein.

(4) This Order applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft or any body corporate that purports to be registered in any particular place or, as the case may be, that purports to be incorporated or constituted under the law of that place as it applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft that is so registered or any body corporate that is so incorporated or constituted.

(5) Any provision of this Order which prohibits the doing of a thing except under the authority of a licence granted by the Minister shall not have effect in relation to any such thing done in a country or place (other than the United Kingdom) to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends or done elsewhere outside the United Kingdom by a person who is ordinarily resident in, or by a body incorporated or constituted under the law of, that country or place, provided that it is so done under the authority of a licence or with permission granted, in accordance with any law in force in that country or place (being a law substantially corresponding to the relevant provision of this Order), by the authority competent in that behalf under that law.

(6) References in this Order to countries or places to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends shall, in relation to any foreign country or territory in which for the time being Her Majesty has jurisdiction, be construed as applying to that country or territory only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf; and references in this Order to British protected persons shall, in relation to a person who has that status by virtue of his connection with such a foreign country or territory, be likewise construed as applying to him only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf.

(7) The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889 c. 63.) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto, as it applies for the purpose of interpreting and in relation to Acts of Parliament.

Transitional

19.—(1) Notwithstanding the revocation of the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968, section 38 of the Interpretation Act 1889 shall continue to apply, with the necessary adaptations, in relation to that Order as it applies in relation to an Act of Parliament and, without prejudice to the provisions of section 38 of that Act as applied by Article 18 of this Order or the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, references to this Order, or to a particular provision thereof, in Articles 9 and 15 (together with Schedule 1) of this Order shall be construed as including references to the previous Orders or, as the case may require, to the corresponding provision of any of the previous Orders.

(2) Notwithstanding the revocation of the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968—

(a) any licences granted under any provision of that Order and subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Order shall have effect, as from such commencement, as if they had been granted under the corresponding provisions of this Order;

(b) any directions having effect as if they had been given under Article 9 of that Order and subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Order shall have effect, as from such commencement, as if they had been given under Article 10 of this Order;

(c) anything done under the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 as modified by Article 12 of that Order shall have effect after the commencement of this Order as if done under the said Act as modified by Article 13 of this Order.

(3) In this Order—

(a) the references in Articles 3 (3) and 7 to goods that have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 3 (1) of this Order shall be deemed to include references to goods which have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 2 (1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) Order, 1966 (S.I. 1966/1595 (1966 III, p. 5020)), or in contravention of Article 2 (1) of the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968;

(b) the references in sub-paragraphs (c) and (d) of paragraph (2) of Article 13 to offences against the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 as it has effect by virtue of that paragraph shall be deemed to include references to offences against that Act as it had effect by virtue of paragraph (2) of Article 12 of the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968.

(4) References in this Article to the Commonwealth Immigrants Act 1962 shall be construed as references to that Act as modified, amended or extended by or under any other enactment.

Citation, commencement and extent

20.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) (No. 2) Order 1968 and shall come into operation on 3rd July 1968.

(2) Articles 3, 5, 6, 8, 11 and 19 of this Order, and Articles 16 and 18 so far as applicable thereto, shall extend to Southern Rhodesia and for that purpose the references in Article 16 to the United Kingdom shall be construed as references to Southern Rhodesia; but, save as aforesaid, the provisions of this Order shall not extend, as part of the law thereof, to any country or place (other than the United Kingdom) to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends.

Article 15 SCHEDULE 1

EVIDENCE AND INFORMATION

1.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order, or any provision of any other law, the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade (or any person authorised by him or them for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may request any person in or resident in the United Kingdom to furnish to him or them (or to that authorised person) any information in his possession or control, or to produce to him or them (or to that authorised person) any document in his possession or control, which he or they (or that authorised person) may require for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order; and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-paragraph shall be taken to require any person who has acted as counsel or solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged communication made to him in that capacity.

(3) Where a person is convicted on indictment for failing to furnish information or produce a document when requested so to do under this paragraph, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person, or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the
