

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 16. to Monday September 20. 1708.

Windsor, September 17.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the Queen, congratulating Her Majesty on the Glorious Victory obtain'd over the French near Audenarde, by the Forces of Her Majesty and Her Allies, commanded by His Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

The humble Address of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Corporation of Northampton; presented to Her Majesty by Francis Arundel, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled; presented to Her Majesty by Robert Eyre, Esq; their Recorder.

The humble Address of the Constables and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks, together with their Representatives in Parliament; presented to Her Majesty by Jame Chase, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bridgewater, Lord-Lieutenant of the said County.

Which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

Genoa, September 2. N. S. This State is raising new Levies with all possible Expedition, and has already above 7000 Men in Arms. Letters from Rome say, that the Marquis de Pric, Plenipotentiary from his Imperial Majesty, is suddenly expected there; and it is thought, upon the arrival of that Minister, some advances will be made towards an Accommodation between the Courts of Vienna and Rome. In the mean time, the Pope has reviewed his Troops, and, after having given them his Benediction, appear'd at the Head of them on Horse-back, and declared that he would take the Field with them as their Generalissimo.

Vienna, September 12. N. S. Two Days ago arrived here Prince Emanuel of Seiffon, with the News of the taking of Fenestrelles. He left the Duke of Savoy's Camp at Balbotet the last Day of August. We have Advice from Transilvania, by Letters of the 22d of the last Month, that General Kriechbaum having receiv'd Intelligence of Count Caroli's being posted between Clausenburg and Bonzida, with a Body of 9000 Malecontents, had sent 2000 German Horse against him; but upon the approach of the Germans, the Malecontents retired into the Neighbouring Mountains, and in their passage plundered two Towns, Millenbach and Sasvaros. In the first there was a Guard of 40 Germans, with a Lieutenant; and in the second an Ensign with 20 Men. Altho' the Emperor be Master of all the strong Towns in Transilvania, yet that Country is, at present, very much infested by the Malecontent Parties, which divide themselves into smaller and greater Bodies, from 20 to 2 or 300, and in that manner over-run the Country, pillaging and destroying where-ever they come; and as soon as they are pursued by the Imperial Troops, take shelter in the Mountains. Count Anthony Esterhazy has rejected the Offers made him by Marshall Heister; but Bezerecki, with several of his Under-Officers, having shewed a disposition to embrace the Emperor's Pardon, one of the Officers, who was privy to his Design, divulged it to the common Soldiers, and putting himself at the Head of 500 Men, marched into Ghiriz, and carried off Bezerecki, with the other Officers, who intended to submit to the Emperor. Marshall Heister being informed of what had passed, sent immediately a Detachment in pursuit of the Malecontents; which, it is said, overtook them at Keskemet, for Beze- redi with his Fellow-Prisoners at Liberty, and put most of the 500 Hungarians to the Sword. Count Zintzendorf is set out for Poland, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to King Stanislaus; he has Credentials for the Character of Ambassador, in case of a Diet of Pacification. He goes by the way of Breslaw, and carries with him the Resolutions of this Court, touching the points still in Debate about the Execution of the Treaty of Alt-Ranfadt.

Journal from the Camp before Lille.

September 20. N. S. The Trenches were reliev'd by Lieutenant-General d'Arnan, and Major-General Soble, with 5 Battalions on the Right, and 7 on the Left. The Night was for the most part employ'd in calarging the Saps, both on the Right and Left, and in advancing the Gallery towards the Horn-work of the Right, part of which was burnt by the Enemy. Three Mines were finished on the Right before the Grand Breach, and a Gallery completed towards the Counterguard of the Right. Two Mines were likewise ready to spring on the Left; but the Gallery towards the Counterguard of the Left could not be quite finished. The 21st the Trenches were relieved by Lieutenant-General Wilke, Major-General Sacken, and Sir Richard Temple Brigadier, with 5 Battalions on the Right, and 7 on the Left. The Disposition being made for attacking the Out-works between 6 and 7 in the Evening, the Signal was given by a general Discharge from the Batteries, both of Cannon and Mortars; the Mines both on the Right and Left were immediately sprung with good Success, the Granadiers thereupon mounting the Breach of the Counterguard on the Right, obliged the Enemy to retire into the Retrenchment of that Work, and made a very good Lodgment on the Breach. Our Men likewise beat out the Enemy, and made 2 Lodgments on the Counterscarp before the Grand Breach; but a great Number of fresh Troops coming out upon them, and the Officer who commanded the Troops appointed to sustain our Men being kill'd, they were obliged to quit those two Lodgments. The Attack of the Counterscarp of the Counterguard on the Left succeeded as well as could be desired, and our Men continued in their Lodgment there without any Disturbance. During these Actions the Prince of Savoy received a Wound from a small Shot in the Forehead, which has since been laid open, and his Highness is in no manner of Danger. The 22d the Trenches were relieved by Lieutenant-General Spar, Major-General Soble, and Brigadier du Troffel, with 5 Battalions on the Right, and 7 on the Left. The chief Work of this Night was to enlarge our Lodgment on the Counterguard, to advance the Gallery of the Horn-work on the Right, and to the Counterguard on the Left; as also to carry on and enlarge the Saps on the Right and Left in order to another Attack, for which 400 Granadiers were ordered from the Camp, commanded by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, to join the Troops of the Siege appointed for that Service. Our Loss this Night was very inconsiderable.

From the Camp at Lannoy, Sept. 24. N. S. On Friday the 21st, Brigadier Landsberg was ordered to March with 6 Battalions of Foot, and 8 Squadrons of Horse, and encamp near Courtray, whither 11 Squadrons more were ordered at the same time from Audenarde, and five more have been sent thither since. The Prince of Savoy is in so fair a way of Recovery of the Wound he receiv'd in his Forehead on Friday Night last, that it is hoped he may be abroad again in a day or two. During his being obliged to stay at home, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough has been every Day at the Siege, and was last Night in the Trenches during the whole time of the Attack of the Trench.