CIVIC AMENITIES ACTS

WEST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

CIVIC AMENITIES ACT, 1967

Wakefield Rural District

Conservation Areas—West Bretton and Woolley

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of the West Riding of Yorkshire, as Local Planning Authority, after consultation with the Wakefield Rural District Council, have designated the areas referred to in the Schedule to this notice as Conservation Areas in accordance with section 1 of the Civic Amenities Act, 1967. The areas are ones which the County Council consider to be areas of special architectural or historic interest the character or appearance of which should be preserved or enhanced, and will be the subject of stringent control of development. The County Council intend to take such action as may be available to them to secure the preservation of the character and the general improvement of the areas.

The Conservation Areas are defined on plans which may be inspected, free of charge, during normal office hours at the office of the County Planning Officer, Raines House, Denby Dale Road, Wakefield, at the office of the Area Planning Officer, Springfield, Pontefract Road, Castleford, and at the office of the Wakefield Rural District Council, 18 St. John's North, Wakefield.

THE SCHEDULE

West Bretton

The Conservation Area includes all the property and land in the triangle formed by School Lane, Huddersfield Road and Bretton Lane. To the west all those properties and adjoining land fronting Huddersfield Road and the road to Bretton Park are included from Tockhill to Home Farm. The properties opposite Home Farm, the cricket ground and Bretton Lodge all fronting the road to Bretton Park are also within the area. The eastern boundary is drawn to include Town Farm and all the properties and adjoining land south of it fronting Bretton Lane and Huddersfield Road near its junction with the road to Bretton Park.

Woolley

The Conservation Area includes the whole of the built-up area of the village, except Woolley Hall, the dwellings fronting Molly Hurst Lane and Home Farm. Also included are the trees on both sides of Water Lane and the large area of gardens, open land and woodland east of New Road in the vicinity of Mount Farm, Woolley Cottage and the old Vicarage.

P. J. Butcher, The Clerk to the West Riding of Yorkshire County Council.
