The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of Cheshire.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Common-Council, and Citizens of the City of Chester.

Brussels, Jan. 11. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and Prince Eugene, left this Place on the 9th Instant in the Morning, Count Tilly, who has commanded the Troops of the States-General since the Death of Felt-Maisnal Auverquerque, is at present Commander in Chief of the Armies of the Allies in Flanders. The Troops are drawing off to their Winter-Quarters; and the Officers of each Regiment who are appointed to raise Recruits, will receive their Orders within few Days to go to those Countries in which they are to Levy their Men. We are advised from the Frontiers, that the Troops which formed the late Garrison of the Enemy in Ghent, are already dispersed into their several Quarters. Letters from France say, that a Council, at which the Marshals of France were summoned to attend, was held at Court on the 4th Instant, in which the present State of the War was under consideration; but the Resolutions taken at that time are kept very secret. These Letters add, that four Regiments of Foot, and four of Horse, are ordered to follow the 8000 Men who lately marched out of Dauphiné into Flanders. 26 Battalions, and 39 Squadrons, are also commanded to march thither out of Allace. The Difficulties in raising Money for the present Exigencies of the War are so great, that there is a new Tax imposed, which obliges the Landlord of each House throughout Paris, and the Suburbs of it, to pay four Pence out of every Livre he receives for Rent, and the Tenant to pay two Pence for every Livre he pays to his Landlord. The Money arising from this new Imposition is immediately to be paid into the King's Officers, without being touched by the Farmers of the Revenue. They write from Namur, that there has been a Mutiny in that Garrison for want of Pay, the Soldiers having broken open the Warehouses of such Trade-men as sold any sort of Victuals or Provisions, and taken away their Goods by force.

Ostend, January 12. N. S. They write from Antwerp, that the Duke of Marlborough and Prince Eugene arrived there on the 9th Instant, and next Morning proceeded towards the Hague. The Capitulation of the Magistrates of Ghent for their own Privileges, and the Civil Rights of that Place, was sign'd on the first Instant, and consisted of 26 Articles; the chief end of which is to preserve the Exercise of their Religion, the Revenues and Immunities of all Religious Houses, Persons and Foundations, as well as all the Privileges which that City it self enjoyed in the Reign of Charles II. It is also provided, that the present Officers of the Government shall be removed, or still enjoy their Places, as shall be thought most for the Service of King Charles III. but that all Hereditary Employments and Hereditary Rights to Employments, shall continue in the same Persons who held them in that Reign; and that all Engagements relating to Publick Credit, shall be invariably observed. This Capitulation was subscribed by A. X. Triefs Aughem on the part of the Town; and in behalf of the Allies, by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and the Deputies of the States-General.

There are two Bials due from Holland.

The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, does hereby give Notice, that 20 Tickets of Leave, given by the Captains of her Majesty's Ships, to any of the Men belonging to them, shall be in force longer than the last Day of this present Month of January; and that from thence forward no Tickets of Leave to any Seamen belonging to the Fleet shall be in force, but such as shall be sign'd by Flag-Officers, and even those Tickets no longer than the tenth Day of March next; and his Lordship desires therefore require, that all Persons concerned do take notice thereof accordingly.
