

these will attract interest in the higher set of rates, unless the said Commissioners agree that they should be offset against the following year's quota. Different rates of interest apply according to whether the principal of a loan is repaid by instalments or at maturity.

Dated 12th March, 1970

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under Section 31(1) of the Finance Act 1966, viz.:

The Non-Residents' Transitional Relief from Income Tax on Dividends (Extension of Period) Order 1970.

This Order extends by one year the period during which relief is available under Section 31, Finance Act 1966. This section gives relief from United Kingdom income tax on dividends paid by United Kingdom companies to residents of the overseas territories with which the United Kingdom has the Double Taxation Agreements listed in Schedule 9 to the same Act. The relief was originally given for the years 1966-67, 1967-68, 1968-69 and 1969-70 but provision was made in subsection 1 of the section for the extension of this period.

The Order comes into operation on 6th April 1970, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1970 No. 326.

Copies may be purchased (price 6d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or from any bookseller.

The Transitional Relief for Interest and Royalties paid to Non-Residents (Extension of Period) Order 1970.

This Order extends by one year the period during which relief is available under Section 32, Finance Act 1966. This section ensures that certain payments to non-residents which are relieved from United Kingdom income tax under a Double Taxation Agreement are not treated as distributions for corporation tax purposes in the hands of the United Kingdom company making them. The relief was originally given for the financial years 1966, 1967, 1968 and 1969, but provision was made in subsection 1 of the section for the extension of this period.

The Order comes into operation on 1st April 1970, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1970 No. 325.
