Etters from Rome fav. that on the 17th of the last Month the Marquis de Pric had a long Conference with the Cardinal Paolucci, at which it was expected the Accommodation between the Courts of Vienna and Rome would be wholly concluded; but the Pope has not thought fit to comply with the Demands made by the Marquis... Copies of the Propositions of the Germans have been delivered to the Cardinals, with the Pope's Answer annexed to them. While things are in this doubtful State, the Court of Rome receives daily Advices of the Ravage which is committed in the Ecclesissical Territories by the German Troops. The Prince of Darmfladt is arrived with 4000 Men at St. Germano, and demands Previsions of the Pope's Subjects for the Subfifience of his Troops. At the same time a Body of 1500 German Horse are advanced to Ascoli, and live upon free Quarter on the Frontiers of the Abruzzo. The French Ministers, and those of the Court of Madrid, visit the Cardinals together, and protest against whatever shall be concluded at Rome to the disadvantage of the Duke of Anjou, and particularly against the Recognition of King Charles. It is faid, the Pope has thoughts of retiring to Avignon, and that the Ministers of France press him to that Resolution. His Majesty of Denmark is now in this City: Upon that King's Notification of his Arrival, the Senate appointed Cavaller Erizzo, late Ambassador-Extraordinary to the Queen of Great Britain, the Cavaliers Morofini and Nani, who have served the State as Ambassadors to the Court of Rome, and the Cavalier Delfino, late Ambaffador at Vienna, to attend his Majesty. These Ministers wait upon the King when ever he appears in Publick.

Genoa, Fanuary 6. N. S. Letters from Barcelona of the 27th of the last Month bring us an Account, that the Men of War and Transports, which sailed from Va-do, were arrived safe, and had landed their Troops in good Condition; that the French were then Masters of the Town of Alicant, but the Citadel was in a Posture of defending it felf for some time. Sir Edward Whitaker being arrived at Barcelona, fet Sail, upon the preffing Instances of King Charles, on the 25th, for Leghorn; to which Place, 'tis supposed, he is at present returned. These Letters add, that Mareschal Staremberg and General Stanhope were both in Person at the late Attempt to furprize Tortofa; and fay, that the the Allies had been three Days on their March before they came up to the Place, they took the Patrole on both fides of the Town. and had fixed their Ladders against the Walls before they were discovered. They made three Attacks, each with 1000 Men; two of those Affaults failed; the third fucceeded fo far that they got into the lower Town. but before they could advance to the last Gate, the Garrison drew together on that fide, and barricadoed the Gate in fuch manner that there appeared no Peffibility of forcing it; but the Allies continued in the lower Town all the fucceeding Day, killed the Governor and Town-Major, and took about 50 Prifoners, among whom were a Licutenant-Colonel and S Officers, before they retired.

Vienna, Jan. 9. N. S. The Diet of the Empire having conferted, that the Emperor, as King of Bohemia, ought to have a Vote in the Electoral College. his Imperial Majesty has appointed Count Francis Wratiflaw to represent himm his Quality of Elector; and the Count, having received his Commission and Instructions, is gone to Ratisbonne. The Abbot of Kempten being named President of the Aulick Council, in the room of the deceafed Count Octting, he is foon expected here to take Potlession of his new Office. Some Officers who are arrived here from the Imperial Quarters in the Mountains of Upper Hungary, bring an Ascount of the Expedition lately made in those Parts by the Baron of Ebergenny, Lieurenant-General of his Imperial Majosty's Forces; who having reduced the Castles of Bize. Buslatin, Bistritz and Littovic duced the Cattles of 1912e, passages, but has recovered out of the Hands of the Malecontents rive whole County of Trenschin They add likewise, that the Hungarians have drawn together many of their Forces towards those Mountains, and that the Villages thereabouts being all filled with Hungarian Troops, the Germans are obliged to fland carcilly on their Guard, for fgar of a Surprize. Ourslaft Advices from Italy tell us, That Mareschal Thaun still advanced nearer to Rome, the better to support the Marquis of Prios Negotiation ar that Court: When those Letters were dispatched, the Van-guard of the German Army lay at Pefaro. lages in the Neighbourhood of this City have been larely allarmed by the Passage of a Party of the Malecontents over the Leyta; but the Hungarians: after having pillaged an open Place, immediately retired with their Boory. However, for the greater Security, it has been thought fit to double the Guards of the Lines without the Suburbs. They write from Upper Hungary, that Lieutenant General Ebergenny, fince his reducing the whole County of Trenschin to his Imperial Majesty's Obedience, has likewife taken the Castle of Owar, which important Place covers the County of Treoschin, and commands the Pass between Turocz and Arava. Day the Diversions of the Carnaval began by a Course of Prince Lamberg, Master of the Horse, went first, driving an empty Sledge; then followed the Emperor, driving the Sledge wherein the Empress fate; the Ediett Arch-Dutchels was drove by Prince Maximilian of Hanover, and the youngest by Count Philip of Dietrichstein. The Ladies of the Gourt were drove by the Noblemen, according to their respective Quality. The Gentlemen according to their respective Quality. The Centlemen and Ladies were richly cloathed, and the Sledgesadorned with fo much Art and Expence, that the Entertainment appeared very Magnificent. The Diversion of the Day will be concluded with a Ball at Court.

Berlin, January 12. N. S. Orders are fent to 22 Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, and 3 Battalions of Foot, to be in a readiness for marching about the latter end of the next Month, to augment his Majesty's Troops in Brabant; and the King has declared that he will fend a greater number into those Parts, if it shall appear necessary for the Service of the Common Caufe. Directions are given, at the same time, for the early Recruiting all his Troops which have been in the Field this last Campaign. His Majefly is quite recovered of his late Indisposition; but has not yet appeared in Publick, by reason of the Coldness of the Weather, which has been so excessive that feveral, who have come early with their Gern to this City, have been found frezen to death at the opening of the Gates. His Majesty has lately taken ocrafion to express his Satisfaction on the Behaviour of his Troops at the Battel of Wynnendale; and to flow his Approbation of the Conduct and Bravery of Major-General Webb, under whose Command they acted, his Ma-jesty has sent the Major-General the Cross of the Order of Generolity. Letters from Michow of the 15th of the laff Month fay, that the Muscovites had taken a Resolution to disarm all the Cossacks in that Garrison; but that Design being discovered, the Cossacks made their Escape. The Muscovites have undermined the Bastions of that Place, in order to blow them up when they march from We hear by Advices from Mobilow of the 20th of the last Month, that the King of Sweden was at Zepzak on the Frontier of Ukrania, and the Czar at Novogroduck.

Berne, Fanuary 16. M. S. This Canron has lately received a Letter from the Emperor about the Affair of Tockenturg, in which he exhorts them to Accommodate that

Difference

Difference with the Abbot of St. Gall (to whom he tells them he has likewise written upon the same Occasion) and not to give their Enemies a Pretext to disunite the Cantons concern'd in this Affair. His Imperial Majesty concludes with an offer of his Friendship and Mediation. This Letter has alarm'd the Council here, and its thought-will contribute very much to the final Decision and Ac-commodation of a Difference that has been so long depending in this Country.

Hague, January 25. N. S. Prince Eugene went from this Place on the 20th Instant, in order to go to the Court of Vienna, from whence he deligns to return about the latter end of March. There is an Edict published here against prophane Swearing: An Offender, in that kind, is to be punished the first and second time by paying Mony; but the third time, he isto fuffer according to the Diference of the Magistrate. The Duke of Mariborough, fet out from hence yesterday, at seven in the Moraing, in a Sledge on the Ice towards Brussels. His Grace intended to pais the Meule, dine at Gortrudemberg, and lye last Night at Breda; we hope he arrived at Brussels this Day. The Earl of Albemarle, Major-General Cadogan, and Count Maffey, waited upon the Duke in this Journey. This Morning it began to thaw; if it continues for three days, the Squadron defigned for the Mediterranean, with the Palatine Troops, will put to Sea. The Body of Swifs which is here will be augmented, with the Addition of 30 Men to each Company. Count Ranzaw is arrived here from the Court of Denmark, in his way to Great Britain. They write from Leipsick, that King Augustus has laid afide the Thoughts of going to Venice, and is levying Men with fo great Diligence and Success, that tis believed he will, about the beginning of April, have
