AIR FORCE DEPARTMENT

Whitehall, London S.W.1.

27th July 1971.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the following award:

Queen's Commendation for Brave Conduct

X 2760250 Sergeant Richard Nicholls WATSON, Royal Air Force.

For his actions during an exercise with the Army, simulating an attack from the sea on a radar station, when one of the two inflatable boats was damaged and the engines of both boats failed. In diving, the submarine, which was to tow the two boats, inadvertently pulled both partly under the surface and Sergeant Watson, with great presence of mind and complete disregard for his safety, reached under the bows of his boat to activate the quick release device. He achieved this in spite of being completely submerged and in danger of being swept away. After thirty minutes, Sergeant Watson revived his engine and was able to take the other boat in tow. Both boats landed at the pre-designated point.
