The London Gazette. Punt. 4552

Published by Authority.

From Chursday June 23. to Saturday June 25. 1709.

It is thought fit, that the Gazette shall, for the future, be Publish'd three times in the Week, viz. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday; beginning from St. Fames's, June 23.

ER Majesty has been graciously pleased to Order, That the Brief directed the 16th Instant to be iffued upon the Petition of the Justices of the Peace of Middlefex, for the Collection of the Charity of well-disposed Persons, for the Relief of the Germans of wei-dispoted rections, to. the Protestant Religion, who, being oppressed by the Exactions of the French in their own Country, have sled for Resuge into this Kingdom, be Extended to, and put, in due Execution within, the whole Kingdom of Great Bri-

Turin, June 12. N. S. The continual Rains have fo swelled the River Stura, that the Imperial Troops lodged in the neighbourhood of Casal have been obliged to halt for some Days; but we hear, that on the 10th they passed by Orbazzano, and that their advanced Guard was arrived at the Camp of Rivalia: all the other Auxiliaries are in full March thither. His Royal Highness hath fent several Battalions and some Artillery to Fenestrelles, and has caused a great quantity of Meal to be Transported to Susa, Yvrca and Staffarde. All necessary dispositions are made for opening the Campaign, and the Equipage of his Royal Highness is ready for the Field. General Count Thaun. Brother to the Marshal of that Name, is arrived here, ro kerve in our Army, where he is appointed to Command the three Regiments which are expected from the Milaneze. His Royal Highness hath appointed the Count de Provana to succeed Count Tarini in the Quality of Ambassador at the Court of Vienna. The Marquis de Tournon is made Captain of his Highness's Guards, in the room of the Marquis de Condré, who for some time hath been Governor to the Princes; and the Count da la Tri-nité is to succeed the Marquis de Tournon in the Employment of Equery to his Royal Highness.

Milan, June 14. N. S. Count Zumjungen, the Imperial Commissary-General, has almost perfected the Reguere lation of the Contributions to be paid by all the Princes of Italy. The Grand Duke of Tulciny hath fent Monseur Hordini, to endeavour to obtain some diminution of the Tax laid upon him, which amounts to 40000 Pistoles; but that Minister has prevailed no farther, than that his Mafter may bring in his Contribution at two Payments. The Ministers of the Dukes of Parma and Modena have also consented to the Quota allotted their respective Masters; and it is not doubted, but that the Charge which the Duke of Modena has been at in providing Winter-Quarters for the Troops, and the Losses which he has fulfained by their Marches through his Country, will be taken into Confideration, and a Deduction made accordingle. ingly. The Marquis de Litta, who was fent to Genoa, to demand the Sum of 20000 Piftoles of that Republick, for their Share in the Expences of the War, is returned from thence without any positive Answer. It is compu ted that the whole arising from the Contributions in Italy will amount to 130000 Pistoles. We hear from Genou, that they were actually Embarking at Final 1500 Imperiations and contributions and the and contributions and the second contributions are second contributions. less, and Soe Milancze, with 2000 Barrels of 1 owder, and all other fort of Wariske Stores, on Board the Men of War and Transports Commanded by Admiral Whitaker. Penice, June 15. N. S. On Sunday last the Doge performed the annual Ceremony or espouting the sea with great magnificence; and in the Evening entertained the Senate, and feveral other Persons of distinction, who accompanied him, with extraordinary Splendor. The French

Ambassidor did not appear at this Soleminity, being lately offended at the Arrest of one of his Domesticks. who was formerly banished from this State. The Pope's two Nephews who were here, fet out the Day after the Ceremony, in order to return to Rome by the way of Fei-They write from Naples of the fourth Instant, that the Embarkation of the Troops and Ammunition is suspended until they receive Advices from the Squadron of the Alliss. His Catholick Majesty hath henoured Don Alfonso Cardonas, Count of Acerra, with the Title of Grandee of Spain; and given the State of Nocerra to Brince Pio, in consideration of the Services which they have done the House of Austria. Letters from Rome import, that the Marquis de Prié hath had a new Conference with Cardinal Paulucci, Secretary of State, after which he fent back the Courier who came to him from Milan. This Marquis had also an Audience of the Pope, which lasted three Hours, concerning the Recognition of King Charles.

Copenhagen, June 18. N.S. Monsieur Rosencrans, who attends His Danisla Majesty in his Journey as Marshal, and who was fome time ago Envoy-Extraordinary from hence to the Court of Great Britain, is made Bailiff, or ampiman, to the Court of Great Britain, is made Bailin, or ampiners, of the Diffrict of Copenhagen. Monfieur Juels who has been appointed to go Envoy-Extraordinary from this Court to that of Muscovy, set out from hence Yesterday for Keningsburg, in Order to pursue his Journey by Land from thence to Moscow. Mr. Crummerfeldt, who was concerned in the late Troubles at Hamburgh, and is Author of a Pamphlet in Justification of the Proceedings of those who took Part against the Magistrates, setting out from Holstein with a Design to pass thro Copenhagen into Swedeland, was seized before the Gates of the City three Days ago, and taken into Custody, having fome time past been ordered to depart out of this Gountry.

Berlin, June 22. N. S. The last Letters from Drefden inform us, that there had been a great Caroufel at Dressen, in which there was a Prize valued at 30000 The King of Denmark was pleased to run, but observing that the Prize was industricustly laid for him. fhunned it; by which means the Prince of Weifenfeildt, who follow'd the King, became Master of it. His Majesty and King Augustus have determined to leave Dresden on the 26th Instant, but design to take the Diversion of Hunting in their way to l'otsdam, where they are not expected it the 2d of the next Month. The Courts which arrend those Princes are so numerous, that Persons of the first Rank at Berlin have sent Baggage and Tents to Potsdam, in order to lye encamped, during the stay of those Necessary Orders are distributed in the Neighbourhood of that Place, for the bringing in Provisions for in great a concourse of People of all Qualities as will be there at that time. It being expected, that the Princels Royal may be in Child-birth when the King is at Porfdaid, Rockers are prepared in every Village between the Place and this City, to give his Majesty immediate No-tice, by Signal, whether a Prince or Princes shall be been to her Highness. It is believed the three Kings will be Gostathers at the Baptilin. Monfieur Forstener, Envoy-Exvia rdinary from the Duke of Lorrain, is lately returned hisher, with Instructions from his Master, to renew his Req est, that the German Courts would insist warmly up m the Restoration of all Alsatia and Lorrain to the Enpire. He is turther ordered to defire, that France may be obliged to repair all the Fortifications in his Master Dutchy, and reftere em in the fame condition as they were in before they were demolished; and that for the
