FOREIGN AND COMMONWEALTH OFFICE

9th November 1971.

London S.W.1.

The QUEEN has been pleased to appoint Thomas Oates, Esquire, C.M.G., O.B.E., to be Governor and Commander-in-Chief of St. Helena with effect from 30th October 1971.

23rd November 1971.

The QUEEN has been pleased to approve the award of the Colonial Police Medal for Gallantry to Constable Prince Albert Clarke and Constable Spurgeon Dames of the Royal Bahamas Police Force.

At about 1.15 a.m. on 17th April 1971, Police Constables No. 90 Dames, No. 744 Clarke and No. 762 Scavella, who were on mobile patrol, were diverted to investigate a break-in at a commercial building in the Freeport area.

As they got out of the patrol car on arrival at the scene, a man rushed from the building and the three officers gave chase. The suspect turned and fired a pistol at the three Constables, who took cover. As the suspect started to run again, Constables Dames and Clarke continued the chase, with the occasional shot being fired at them: as the police attempted to corner the suspect, he fired point blank at the two officers who were only a matter of feet away from him. One bullet came close to hitting Constable Dames in the face and at this point they were close enough to hear the gun click as though empty.

The suspect started to run again, and whilst attempting to reload the pistol, was cornered by the two Constables. In the ensuing struggle, the suspect struck Constable Dames on the head and on the thigh with a piece of wood, and Constable Clarke sustained a sprained wrist. The man was disarmed and arrested by the two officers.

While this chase was in progress, Constable Scavella returned to the police car and summoned assistance. He saw a second man running from the
