

done in the following Diet, but to name the Persons who are to be Members of this Council. He promises to consign to the Diet several authentick Copies of the Charter he granted them at his Coronation, to be deposited in the Places of Hungary mentioned in the Request of the States, and to send a Copy of it to the King of Spain, as being presumptive Heir to the Crown of Hungary; but refuses to give Copies of it to the Pope, or the States of the Empire. He tells the Diet that he will give no other Security to Prince Ragotzi and his Adherents, besides the aforesaid Charter, and a legal Redress in a General Diet of the Kingdom of any Abuses that may have crept into the Government; and that seeing Prince Ragotzi and his Adherents have hitherto pertinaciously refused to accept of the Offers of Mercy and Pardon that have been made them, there remains no other way for putting an end to the present Troubles, but to declare all and every one of those that have taken up Arms, if they do not return to their Allegiance within a Month's time, Traitors and Enemies to their Country, and all their Goods to be forfeited to the King's Exchequer. His Imperial Majesty concludes his Answer to the Grievances, with an Exhortation to the Estates of the Kingdom, to accept these his Resolutions with all Duty and Submission, to be contented with them, and not to spend time in vain and needless Replies, but to put a speedy end to the present Diet.

From the Camp before Tournay, July 11. N. S. Our Approaches of the three several Attacks have hitherto been carried on with very good Success and little Loss; the Trenches of the Attack against the Cittadel are relieved daily by a Lieutenant-General, a Major-General, and a Brigadier, with four Battalions; and at the two other by the like number of General Officers, and three Battalions at each, besides Workmen. The Batteries for Ruining the Defences are almost finished, and there are near two hundred Boats come up the Schelde as far as our Bridges, with the heavy Artillery and Ammunition, which have been landing there two Days, and will be brought to the Batteries with all the Expedition that can be made: At this time the Ways are almost every where unpassable, by reason of the great Rains which have fallen for some Weeks past. The Marshal de Villars continues still with his Army between Lens and la Bassée.

Hague, July 12. N. S. Letters from the Camp before Tournay say, that soon after the Place was Invested the Governour called a Council of War, in which it was debated, whether they should defend the Town and Cittadel together, or, without pretending to maintain the Town, retire into the Cittadel, but it was at last concluded, that they would defend both in the best manner they were able. However, this having been the Subject of a Dispute, confirms us in the belief of our former Advices, which said the Town was in a weak Condition. A Letter, bearing date the 27th of the last Month, from the Marshal Villars to the French King, has been lately intercepted, in which that General acquaints his Master that he expected to be Attacked within half an Hour, and doubted not but he should give his Majesty reason to be well satisfied with his Conduct.

Kalmouth, July 2. Yesterday the Jacobus Dogger of London, laden with salt, arrived here in fifteen Days from Lisbon; and this Day sailed out the Catherine of Bristol, being laden with Fish for Leghorn. Two Packet Boats continue in Harbour.

Yarmouth, July 4. Yesterday the outward bound Russia Fleet, with their Convoys, came to anchor on the back of our Sands, and being this Day joined by divers Ships from this Place, proceeded on their Voyage.

Portsmouth, July 5. Yesterday her Majesty's Ships the Chester and Lynn sailed from Spithead into the Harbour. Admiral Baker, on Board the Starling-castle, continues still at Spithead, with her Majesty's Ships the Somerset, Pembroke, Resolution, Winchelsea, Pearl, and the Griffin Fire-Ship. The Exeter, with the Transports and Merchant-men bound for Plymouth, continues still at Saint Hellens.

The Hon. the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Exc. Lord High-Admiral of Great Britain is pleased to direct, that all the Men belonging to her Majesty's Ship the Dreadnought, which are in or about London, do forthwith repair to their Duty on Board the said Ship at Chatham, to dispatch the necessary Works of Rigging her, and taking in her Guns, Stores and Provisions, otherwise they will be taken up and Punished as Deserters.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Pembroke, Lord High-Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, Exc. is pleased to direct, that the Men belonging to her Majesty's Ship the Royal Anne-Galley, which are now absent from her, do immediately repair on Board the said Ship at Woolwich, otherwise they will be taken up and punished as Deserters.

Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's Ship Dunkirk, will on Thursday the 14th Instant, at the Prize Office in York Buildings, be paid their Proportions of the Prize-Ship Hocquart, according to the Directions in Her Majesty's most gracious Declaration of the 1st of June, 1702.
