

of the Forfeiture Act 1870 and the Admiralty Pensions Act 1921, they relate also to retired officers whose commissions are terminated or whose names are removed from the List of Retired Officers because of misconduct. They do not apply to officers holding temporary or short service commissions or officers on the Supplementary List who have not been granted permanent or pensionable commissions.

3. Retirement for age or non-employment. An officer retiring on or after attaining the age limit fixed for service in his rank and branch, or, it having been decided that further employment is not available for him, retired compulsorily before attaining that age limit, may be granted retired pay, provided that, unless the special provisions set out in Clause 7 are relevant, he has completed at least 16 years' reckonable service as defined in Clauses 28 to 32 below. In the event of eligibility for full pay continuing after formal retirement, the award will take effect from the day following that in respect of which full pay was last payable.

4. The rate of retired pay will be based on the officer's rank for retired pay purposes, as defined in Clauses 23 to 27, and on the length of his reckonable service calculated in accordance with Clause 32.

5. Rates of retired pay. Subject to the provisions of this Section, retired pay may be awarded at the following rates:

6. When an officer's reckonable service exceeds a given number of years (up to and including 33 years) by one or more complete quarters of a year, his retired pay will be increased by that number of quarters of the difference between the rate for the number of years completed and the rate that would have been awarded had a further complete year been served.

7. Late entrants. (a) If an officer was appointed to a permanent commission before 1st April 1960, at an age later than that of the normal entrant and, in consequence of his late entry, has not completed 16 years' reckonable service at the time of compulsory retirement for age or non-employment, as provided in this Section, retired pay may nevertheless be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State for Defence provided he has completed at least 15 years' qualifying service.
