

In the mean time demand leave to raise 4000 men out of their own nation, upon the expences of the Emperour and the States of Hungary, to be placed in Garrison in the frontier Towns in the room of the Germans & that the Polish Money, and all other of mixt metals be called in: that their grievances in point of Religion be redressed: and that the Levant Company establish in Germany be suppress'd, as ruinous to the Trade of Hungary.

Brussell, April 4. This Countrey is not yet cured of their fears and apprehensions of the French upon the intended visit of his most Christian Majesty to his late Conquests, although the submission of his pretensions to the dependencies to the Arbitration of England and Sweden, seems to ensure our present peace.

We have had a warm rumour of some treasonable practices discovered at Ayre in Artois, but we suspend the belief thereof till farther confirmation.

Count Marsin was expected here on Monday last, but his return is now prevented, fresh Orders being sent to him to leave Ayre, and to visit our several Garrisons in Artois, and to put them into a posture of defence.

On Sunday last an Express was sent into Flanders with Orders for the march of the Duke de Houres and de Morsy's Regiments to Ayre, to reinforce that Garrison which was of late become weak, and the Companies thin.

Orders were a so dispatch'd to the Spanish Regiments under the Command of Don Fernandez Valladares, and Don Pedro d' Aldado to march, the first to Louvain, and the second by Malines towards Mons, which was accordingly put in execution, but the later marching out of Malines, a soldier of the said Regiment firing his Musket, unhappily killed three of the Townsmen, which occasioned so great a Tumult and disorder in the Town, that the whole Regiment might have ran much hazard, had not the Officers and Magistrates used extraordinary prudence to prevent it.

Another Spanish Regiment is to be sent away to reinforce the Garrison at Valencienne.

On Wednesday last arrived here an Express from Spain with Letters to the Constable of Castille from the Queen Regent, by which she is pleas'd in acknowledgement of his good services, to confer on him the place in the Council for the Government, lately vacant by the death of the Marquis d' Ayona, which tis believed will occasion his sudden departure for Spain, but not till some other person be sent to succeed him in this Government. Don Juan of Austria is press'd to undertake this charge, but if no arguments can prevail with him to accept thereof, tis believed may be confer'd on Charles, Prince of Lorraine.

The first instant was determined in the Court Feodal of Brabant, the Cause depending between the Count d' Egmont, and the Count de Ronnebourg, for the Lands and Barony of Gaesbeck, which was by sentence of the said Court, given to the later.

His Excellency having been for some days indisposed, on Wednesday appeared again in publick, but refuses as yet to give Audience, insomuch, as the Deputies of Hainault having attended it for 7 or 8 days, are this morning departed without it.

Hague, April 8. The Rhinegrave is yet here, but intends immediately after Easter to repair to his Government. Orders are already issued out for the speedy marching of several Companies to reinforce the Garrison at Maastrich.

Several conferences have been held between the States Deputies and Marshal Wurtz, with other principal Officers of the Army about the recruits: Holland intends to raise forthwith 6 or 7000 men for the strengthening the Garrisons upon the Rhine, and in Flanders.

The 2d instant, some Commissioners appointed by the States, had a conference with Monsieur Blaspil, the Elector of Brandenbourg's Envoye, who intends suddenly for Cleves, but to return again presently after Easter.

The Commissioners appointed for the examination of the differences between the Cities of Amsterdam and Leyden, have been lately at Amsterdam, and may in few days be able to give the States an account of that affair.

Vice-Admiral Van Ghent was this day resolv'd to leave Amsterdam, having in his company, a son of the Count de Stirum, to embark at the Texel aboard the man of war on which he intends to sail, with 11 others to the Streights, to secure our Trade against the Pirates of Algiers.

All Officers and Soldiers belonging to the States of Holland and West-Friesland, are order'd upon pain of cashiering, to be present at their several charges and employments by the 15th of this month.

Paris, April 9. Yesterday His Majesty arriv'd here from St Germain's, visited several places, and afterwards was pleas'd to be present at the Christning of Madams younger Daughter the Dutchess of Valois at the Carmelites Church in Rue de Boulogne.

The King hath alter'd his Resolution and will not begin his journey towards Flanders, till the second of May.

The last Courier from Rome tells us, that the Divisions and Factions in the Conclave continue as high as ever, but that our Ambassadour the Duke de Chaulnes, has by his frequent addresses to the Queen of Sweden prevail'd with her to use her interest with the Squadroneers which is very considerable, to make choice of such a person as may not have any unkindness for the interest of France.

Truro, Marr. 28. Letters from Barbados bearing date the 18 January last, assure us of the peaceable and thriving condition of that place, and consequently of the falsity of the report, which had gotten credit in several parts, of the insurrection of the slaves.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, having paid the 1442 Order in number Registered on the Act for the Eleven months Tax, shall proceed to the payment of the ensuing Orders to that number, in course, as the money shall be brought in to the Exchequer.

All persons selling Wine by Retail in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick, whose Wine-Licences ended at Lady day last past, are advis'd by themselves, their friends or agents, to repair to the Wine-Licence Office, situate in Durham yard, London, and renew their said Licences, and pay their respective Rents, due, and in arrears, that so they may save the charge and trouble which otherwise unavoidably will ensue.

Whereas it hath appeared, that several sums of Money collected in several Churches by virtue of a Brief for the relief of such persons as have suffred by Fire in the Town of Thetford, have been unduely taken up by a person going under several names with a forged Deputation, described to be a lusty broad man, with Flaxen hair, in dark coloured clothes, usually wearing a Hanger, his Teeth standing out, and somewhat cross eyed. These are to give notice thereof, to the end that the distressed persons, whose relief is solely aimed at, may not be defeated of the Charity intended them, but that the person thus defrauding them may be secured, and brought before the Lord Chief Justice, or Mr Justice Morton, to be proceeded against according to justice.

A Sermon against the Anti-Scripturists. Also another concerning the Sinfulness, Danger, and Remedies of Infidelity. Preached at Whitehall by Seth Lord Bishop of Sarum. Sold by James Gollins at the Kings head in Westminster Hall.
