Girona, August 1. N. S. We have received Advice by Vessels which have arrived here in six days from Barcelona, that the Germans and Portugueze were encamped near Cervera; but that it was expected they would soon march towards Lerida, in order to pass the Segra at that Place. The Allies have transported such abundance of Corn to Catalonia, that his Catholick Majesty hath ordered great Quantities to be laid up in his Magazines. Admiral Sommerdyck, with a Squadron of fourteen Dutch Men of War, which lay before Thoulon, is every Moment expected at Barcelona. The French have lately sent several Merchant-ships, with a strong Convoy, to import Corn from Barbary. An Embargo hath lately been laid upon several Ships laden with Corn, and bound for Provence from Portofarina in Africa.

Venice, August 9. N. S. The Procurator Signior Sebastian Folcarni is appointed Plenipotentiary of this Republick, and ordered to begin his Journey for the Hague within the space of one Month. This Minister hath formerly been Ambassador at the Courts of Spain and France. The last Letters from Rome say, that the Pope has recovered his Health. Monsieur Albani was preparing to receive holy Orders, and is to be invested with the Dignity of a Bishop, before he sets out for Vienna. He designs to begin his Journey towards that Place on the 15th Instant. All Differences between this State and the Court of Romz are wholly accommodated.

Berne, August 17. N. S. The last Letters from Geneva say, that his Royal Highness's Army continued at Conflans, and that of France at Montmellian. It was believed, that as soon as the Cavalry should have joined Count Thaur, he would march with advance towards the Enemy's Camp. We have no certain Accounts of the Motions of the French Troops that are returning from Spain. Our last Advices say, that twenty five French Battalions are to remain there, under the Command of one French Lieutenant-General, two Majors-General, and six Brigadiers; but that they are immediately to enter into the Service and Pay of the Duke of Anjou. We are advised from Madrid, that there are great Animosities between the Grandees of that Kingdom. The particular Causes of these Distractions are not known, but several Persons of Distinction have been lately apprehended on this Occasion.

Berlin, August 17. N. S. Thursday last being the Prince-Royal's Birth-day, the King, Queen, and the whole Court came to Town from Charlottenbourg, and were entertained by the Princess-Royal. Their Majesties went after Dinner to Landsberg, and will not return from thence to Charlottenburg till Tuesday next. The Princess-Royal designs shortly to go to Cleves by the way of Hanover, to meet the Prince at his Return from the Campaign of Flanders. The King has declared, that Monsieur Knyphausen shall reside in the Court of Denmark, with the Character of his Envoy-Extraordinary. He has likewise appointed the Chamberlain Kaspiken to go to the Court of Muscovy in the same Character. Monsieur Marechal set out on Wednesday last for Guben as Envoy-Extraordinary to King Augustus, who was yesterday to make the Review of those Troops which are to Morrow to begin their March towards Poland. On Wednesday last a Courier dispatched from the Czar, came hither with a Letter written by his Czarish Majesty's own Hand, to the King of Prussia, which confirms the Relations we have lately had of his complete Victory over the Swedes. The Courier went immediately from hence to the Court of Denmark, to deliver to his Danish Majesty a Letter from the Czar upon the same Subject.

Hague, August 27. N. S. The Count de Massey set out from hence on the 22d Instant, by Order of his Majesty the Duke of Savoy, to communicate some important Affairs to the Duke of Marlborough. The last Advices we have received from his Royal Highness's Army say, that Count Thaur continued at Conflans, in expectation of the Cavalry which was to join him on the 17th. Yesterday the States of Holland adjourned themselves to Tuesday next. Signior Corsaro, the late Ambassador from the Republick of Venice to the Queen of Great Britain, designs to set out for the Army within few days. Signior Folcarni is suddenly expected here from Venice, where he is to assist in all Negotiations which may regard that Republick. The States-General being advised that the Plague increased very much at Danitz, inasmuch that fourteen hundred Persons died in that City in one Week, have thought fit to publish an Edict, whereby all Vessels coming from the Baltick are directed to stay at the Texel till they shall receive further Orders. They are likewise prohibited to unload or import any Merchandize from such Vessels on pain of Death, unless with the Permission of the Deputies of the Admiralty, or their Deputies at the Texel. For the more certain prevention of that Distemper, they have further ordered, that no such Vessels shall touch at any other Harbour in the United Provinces besides the Texel, or set any of their Men on Shore, on pain of Confiscation of the Vessels, and Death to the Transgressors. Yesterday in the Evening a Captain of the Guards of his Czarish Majesty arrived Express to the Muscovite Ambassador in this Place, with a confirmation of the entire Defeat of the Swedish Army. That Gentlemen left the Muscovite Camp on the 20th of July. O. S. and saye, that the Czar was then marching in Person with thirty thousand Men towards Poland, having writ to King Augustus forthwith to advance into that Kingdom. He adds, that the King of Sweden was escaped into Crim Tartary, with a Train not exceeding sixty Persons; and that a Body of eight hundred Men, which made a stand on the Banks of the Boristhenes, to favour their Master's Escape, were all killed or taken. The King of Sweden's Chirurgion is among the Prisoners, who reports, that his Majesty received a Wound in the Foot by a Musket-Ball, eight Days before the Battel. The Number of the Prisoners taken by the Muscovites, including both Cossacks and Swedes, amounts to twenty two thousand Men. His Czariſh Majesty hath ordered his Minister residing here to signify the Particulars of this Victory to the States. Letters from France say, there was lately a great Insurrection of the poor People of Paris for want of bread, who ran together in great Numbers, plundering several Shups and Houses; but that the Tumult was soon appeas'd by the Governour of that City.

Falmouth, August 18. On the 16th Instant came in the Prince Packet-boat in twenty days from Lisbon, in which arrived the Lord Barrimore on his Parole. Yesterday appeared off our Harbour, the Neptune Privateer of Middleburg, which sent in a French Sloop laden with Sugar. This day is come in the Welch Fleet, under Command of the Southamp'on and Lizard. The Newfoundland Fleet past by this Harbour yesterday.

Dartmouth, August 19. Yesterday in the Afternoon Rear-Admiral Baker, with all the outward-bound Fleet, sailed from Torbay to the Westward, the Wind at South-east, and all this Day at North-east, so that we hope they will all get safe out of the Channel. This Morning several Sail of Ships past by this Port to the Westward, which we suppose to be the New-England Fleet from Spit-head.

Plimouth, Aug. 19. On the 17th Instant sailed the Dover and Strombulo, with twenty Sail for Newfoundland and Guiney; and the Southampton and Lizard, with about a hundred Sail for Wales. Yesterday came in the Nottingham from the Downs, and the Patience of Arundel for the Dock. This Day came in the Lancaster and Chatham, with seventeen Sail for Ireland; and the Marvellous with Prisoners from France. Came in, and sailed, the Chester, with seven Sail for New-England, and the Pearl Packet-boat for the West-Indies.

Portsmouth, August 20. On Thursday last her Majesty's Ships the Chester and Lancaster sailed from St. Helens to the Westward, with about forty Sail of Merchant-men and Coasters under their Convoy. At the same time, the Rose Pink sailed to the Westward through the Needles. The same day also the Cruiser came into our Harbour; at which time the Nottingham sailed by to the Westward.
