Ganon, August 1 . N. S. We have received Advice by Vesfels which have arrived here in fix days from Barcelona, that the Germans and Portugueze were encamped near Cervera; but that it was expected they would from march towards Lerids, in order to spafs the Segra at that Place. The Allies have transported such abundance of Corn to Catalonia, that his Catholick Majesty hath ordered great Quantitles to be laid up in his Magazines. Admiral Sommer-dyick, with a Squadron of Jourceen Dutch Men of War which lay before Thoulon, is every Moment expected at Barcelona. The French have lately fent feveral Merchant thips, with a strong Convoy, to import Corn from Barba-Ty. An Embargo hath lately been laid upon feveral Ships laden with Corn, and bound for Provence from Porto-Farina in Africa.

Venice, August 9. N. S. The Procurator Signior Scbastian Folcarmi is appointed Pleniporentiary of this Republick, and ordered to begin his Journey for the Hague within the space of one Month. This Minister hath formerly been Ambassador at the Courts of Spain and France. The last Letters from Rome say, that the Pope has recovered his Health. Monsieur Albani was preparing to receive holy Orders, and is to be invested with the Dignity of a Bishop, before he sets out for Vienna. He designs to begin his Journey towards that Place on the 15th Instant. All Differences between this State and the Court of Rome are wholly accommodated.

Berne, August 17. N. S. The last Letters from General layer that us Royal Highness's Army continued at Conflans, and that of France at Montmellian. It was believed, that as foon as the Cavalry should have joined Count Thaun, he would forthwith advance towards the Enemy's Camp. We have so certain Accounts of the Morions of the French Troops that are returning from Spain. Our last Advices say, that twenty five French Battalions are to remain there, under the Command of one French' Lieurenant-General, two Majors-General, and fix Brigadiers; but that they are immediately to enter into the Service and Pay of the Duke of Anjou. We are advised from Madrid, that there are great Animolities lietween the Grandees of that Kingdom. The particular Caules of these Distractions are not known, but several Persons of Distinction have been lately apprehended on

Berlin, August 17. N. S. Thursday last being the Prince-Royal's Birth-day, the King, Queen, and the whole Court came to Town from Charlottembourg, and were entertained by the Princes-Royal. Their Majesties went after Dinner to Landsberg, and will not return from thence to Charlottemburg vill Tuesday next The Princels-Royal defigns shortly to go to Cleves by the way of Hanover, to meet the Prince at his Return from the Campaign of Flanders. The King has declared, that Monfieur Knyphaufen shall reside in the Court of Denmark, with the Character of his Envoy-Extraordinary. He has likewise appointed the Chamberlain Kampken to go to the Court of Mulcovy in the large Character, Monfieur Marechal set out on Wednesday last tor Guten as Envoy-Extraordinary to King Augullus, who was yefterday to make the Review of those Broops which are to Morrow to begin their March towards Poland. On Wedneldayilafta Courier, dispitched from the Czan, came hither with a Letter, which en by his Czarish Majesty's own Hand, to the King of Prussa, which confirms the Relacions we have lately had of this complete Victory over the Swedes. The Courier went immediately from hence to the Court of Denmarks to deliver to his Danish Majesty, a Letter from the Czar upon the fame Subjection and Hague, August 27. No. 3. The Count de Mastey let out from hence on the 22d Inflants, by Order of his Mafter the Duke of Savoy, to communicate some important Affair to the Duke of Marlborough. The last Advices we have received from his Royal Highness's Army fay; that Count Thaun continued at Conflans, in expectation of the Cavalry which was to join him on the 17th of Yesterday the States of Holland adjourned themselves to Tuesday next, Signier Cornaro, the late Ambassador from the Republick of Venice to the Queen of Great Britains deligss to fer out for the Army within few days. Signior Folcarine is suddenly expected here from Venice, where he is to shift in all Negotiations which may regard that Republick. The States-General being advised that the Flague encreasesh very much at Danizick, infomuch that fourteen hundred Persons died in that City in one Week, have thought fit to publish an Esich, whereby all Vessels coming from the Baltick are directed to flay at the Texel till they shall receive turther Orders. They are likewise prohibited to unload or import any Merchandize from such Vessels on pain of Death, unless with the Permission of the Deputies of the Admiralty, or their Deputies at the Texel. For the more certain prevention of that Distemper, they have turther ordered, that no fuch Vessels shall touch at any other Harbour in the United Provinces besides the Texel, or see any of their Meu on Shore, on pain of Confiscation of the Vessals, and Death to the Transgressors. Yesterday in the Evening a Captain of the Guards of his Czarifh Majesty arrived Express to the Muscovite Ambassador in
