

'tis said) of Obedience to the Emperour, he has had an Audience, but the business of his Negotiation is suspected, since the Emperour continues with as much Earnestness as before to give out his Orders for the necessary defence of the Kingdom of Hungary, and has Ordered all his forces which were quartered in Bohemia and Moravia to march towards the River Waag, and those in Silesia, Stiria and Carinthia, to pass into Croatia.

Two dayes since his Imperial Majesty sent away an Express to the Baron de Casa-nova his Resident in Turkey, to know whether the Grand Signior had any intention to protect or encourage the Count Serini, who (as appears by the confession of the Count de Tattenbach, lately seized in Croatia) intended the week before Easter to joyn with the Turks, and enter into the Emperours Territories.

From Hungary they write, that the Deputies from the Cities of Upper Hungary have had a conference with the Emperours Commissioners, but broke it off without any probability of an agreement; the Hungarians openly protesting, that they intended to defend and maintain their liberties.

The States of Bohemia have engaged to entertain 3000 Foot and 1700 Horse for the Emperours service, besides their proportion allotted for the old Militia. Moravia and Silesia undertake for 6000 Foot and 3000 Horse; the two Austrias for 12000 Foot and 6000 Horse, and Tyrol obliges it self to furnish out the Train of Artillery.

Hambourg, April 1. Letters of the 19th past from Stockholm inform us, that the King of Swedeland is in perfect health; that he gave a personal Audience to the Danish Envoye, and received from him the news of the death of his Master the late King of Denmark.

Several Letters from the same place gives us variety of prodigious stories, of many strange apparitions to the people about the Copper-mines, 24 Leagues distant from Stockholm, to the extraordinary terror of the inhabitants.

The 29th past, the young Prince of Denmark on his return from Italy lodged at Aliena, whether the Senate sent their Deputies to compliment and present him; the next morning he passed near the works of this City on his way for Denmark, and was saluted from the City with 20 pieces of Canon from off the works.

From Copenhagen we are advised, that the Heer Le Maire, Resident from the States General of the United Provinces, on the 28th past, delivered to the Chancellor his new Letters of Credence, and was the next day conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies to his Audience, where, in the name of the States his Masters, he complimented the new King, condoling the death of the late King his Father, and congratulating his succession to that Crown.

The Swedes Resident has had likewise his Audience upon the same subject.

The Duke of Lunembourg Celle is lately arrived at that Court, to visit and compliment the Queen Mother his Sister. The Duke John Frederick d' Hanouer is returned home.

The differences between the Archbishop of Cologne and the City of that name, are not yet in the way of composition, the Archbishop having lately published a Manifest, declaring his pretensions, and forbidden the Countrey people to carry in any of their provisions to furnish their Markets.

From Bohemia they write, that his Imperial Majesty has upon the news of the revolt of the Hungarians, sent his Commands to all the Monasteries, to furnish out Ten Horse a piece fit for service to assist him for the reducing them to obedience; and that the Drums are beating in all parts of the hereditary Countreys to raise men for the same service.

From Vienna we are told, that all that City, and generally the whole Countrey is in great apprehensions of the issue of the tumults in Hungary, the Hungarians having got together a very great force, which they would pretend to be raised only for the security of their own liberties and Religion, refusing to owe their defence to the German Militias, and have forbid all persons to furnish any of the German soldiers with any provisions or other necessaries under the penalty of a fine of 40 Florins, to be levied upon all such as shall be proved to have any ways assisted them.

The Turks are said to have drawn together a body of 8000 men, near Ganischa, and 16000 more about Offen.

Orders are given out by his Imperial Majesty for the speedy raising of three Regiments of Croaz.

Genova. April 2. Five days since sailed hence the Dutch Convoy in company with several English and Flemish ships homewards bound, intending to call in at Villa Franca, and Marseilles for such other ships as shall lie ready to take the advantage of their Convoy.

Three days since departed hence the Genova Convoy consisting of two men of war of 60 Guns and 400 men apiece, and two Merchant ships of 30 and 40 Guns, laden with fine Goods for Spain.

Here are now in Port 12 sail of English ships waiting for Convoy.

Several persons of the greatest eminency of this place are lately gone to Finale to compliment the Duke d' Ossuna the new Governour of Milan, upon his happy arrival.

From Turin they write, that the young Prince of Piedmont is somewhat in a better condition then formerly, and that the Court has great hopes of his recovery.

The Count de Meffi is lately returned to that Court well satisfied with his voyage into England.

Paris, April 16. The 28th instant His most Christian Majesty intends to set forward on his journey to visit his new Conquests, intending so to continue his progress, as to be back again at St Germaines, by the 19. of June, if nothing unexpected intervene.

The Jews at Metz sollicite earnestly here for the pardon of 4 of the Principal persons amongst them, who stand now Condemned with their Priest to be burnt alive, upon Proof made against them of an horrible Sacrifice, they were sometimes used to make of a Christian Child, for which fact also the rest of the Jews are to be forever banished from that place, as they are also to be out of all the Empire.

From Rome we are told, that the people begin now to grow weary of the tediousness of the Conclave, and the great Obstinancy of the several Factions, too studiously careful of their private concerns, rather than the interest of the Church; and that the Duke de Chaulnes our Ambassadour omits nothing that can be done, especially amongst the Squadronists, with whom he has gained a considerable interest, to exalt such a person as may favour the concerns of this Kingdom.

Yesterday morning dyed that Learned and eminent person Monsieur Drelincourt, one of the Ministers of the Protestant Church at Charenton in the 77th year of his age, of an apoplectical distemper. The same day a Consistory was held at Charenton for the election of his successor; they have made choice of Monsieur du Bosse, who is believed will in few days receive the honour of his Majesties confirmation according to custom.

Advertisement.

All persons selling Wine by Retail in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick, whose Wine-Licences ended at Lady-day last past, are advised by themselves, their friends or agents, to repair unto the Wine-Licence Office, situate in Durham yard, London, and renew their said Licences, and pay their respective Rents, due, and in arrear, that so they may save the charge and trouble which otherwise unavoidably will ensue.