Windsor, September 25. The following Address from the City and Liberty of Westminster was presented to her Majesty by Thomas Medlycott, Esq; Deputy-Steward, being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, High-Steward of the said City.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Duke of Ormond, High-Steward of Westminster, the Deputy-Steward, Justices of Peace, High-Bailiff, Burgesses and Burgesses Assistants, and other the Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

MADAM,

WE beg your Majesty to accept of the Joyful Congratulations of your People upon the complex and glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Troops, and those of your Allies, at the late Battle near Mons, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Prince Eugene of Savoy.

Every Year of your Majesty's Reign has been distinguished by fresh Blessings to your People, and new Glories to the British Name; but none greater than this, when (after taking so important a Fortress as that of Tournay) the same Army (ambitious of fresh Glory) attack'd the whole Forces of the Enemy in the strongest Inrenchments, and under the most advantageous Situation, that Art or Nature could contrive. But nothing is too difficult for your Experienced General in so good a Cause, and for such a Queen, whose constant Piety and Goodness has bespoke her the Favour of Heaven, as well as made her the Darling and the Admiration of Mankind; for the Strength of their Lines served only to give them Courage enough to stand, to increase the Honour of the Action, and your Majesty's Glory in their Defeat.

May your Majesty ever succeed in the great Cause you have undertaken, till you have finish'd all in an honourable and lasting Peace, to the Immortal Glory of your Name, the Prosperity of your People, the Security of the Church of England, and Protestant Succession as Established by Law. And we, your loyal Subj. etc. presume to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready to hazard our Lives, as well as Estates, to enable you to improve these Advantages to those great and pious Ends.

Which Address her Majesty received very graciously.

Cracow, September 8. N. S. The Arrival of his Majesty King Augustus in this City, on the 3d of this Month, put the People into an unspeakable Joy, which they expressed by loud Cries and Acclamations as he passed thro' the Streets. The chief of the Nobility who had fallen in with the Measures and Interests of King Stanislaus submit themselves in great numbers to him; and we have had every Day since the King came, new Crowds of People of all Qualities, to Congratulate his return into Poland. In the mean time the Followers of King Stanislaus leave that Court with the same precipitation, as the other Subjects of Poland hasten hither. It is reported King Stanislaus is delivered into the Hands of a Party of the Crown; and we have a Confirmation of those Letters which said that Prince had published a Manifesto, wherein he utterly resigned all Right and Title to the Kingdom.

Hamburg, September 14. N. S. There is now a prospect, that the Differences between the Magistracy and Populace of this City will be speedily accommodated. The chief Officers of the Burgesie have, in respect to the Inclination of his Imperial Majesty, received the Person lately proposed to them for their Colonel. Monsieur Burchardi, his Prussian Majesty's Minister residing in this City, hath declared to Monsieur Lilienster, the King of Sweden's Minister, that his Master required a General Diet to be held of the Circle of Lower Saxony, and demanded a positive Answer. That Minister engaged to consult Sweden for their Resolution in this Affair. The Neighbouring Countries are alarmed at the Warlike Preparations which are making throughout the Dominions of the King of Denmark. The Regiment of Marines which is at Rensbourg in Holstein, have received Orders to transport themselves to Copenhagen; and it is reported, that the King designed to assemble his Troops in the Island of Fuhnen, and the Duchy of Jutland; and that his Majesty would appear in Person at the Rendezvous, to make the Review of his Troops. The Swedes being apprehensive of the King of Denmark's Designs, have taken the necessary Measures for the Defence of their Country: For this end they are raising new Levies throughout the Kingdom; and have given Instructions that a strong Fleet or Men of War be speedily provided at Carlskron. Letters from Saxony import, that the Prince of Furstenburg, and General Plug, having accompanied King Augustus to the Frontiers of Lusatia, were returned to Dresden. General Plug designs to return speedily to the King, his Master, who was entered into Poland by Bombast on the Frontiers of Silesia. The Danish Regiments which were formerly in the Service of his Imperial Majesty in Hungary, are ordered to proceed through Saxony to Holstein, where they are to be compleated; and it is advised, that those Troops are already arrived in those Territories.

Hague, September 24. N. S. Letters from Maastricht of the 20th of September say, that the Prince of Hesse, Brother to the Prince Hereditary, passed through that Place on the 18th, in his way to Aix la Chapelle, from whence he will return to the Army after a short stay at that Place. On the 19th Monsieur de Wassnaer and Monsieur Geldermassen had dispatched those Affairs for which they went into those Parts, and left Maastricht under a triple Duty Charge charge of Cannon. The Regiment of Villegas marched on the same Day towards the Army, to relieve the Regiment of Jurland, which is to join the Garrison of Maestricht. There are also some Regiments commanded to march out of Leige, Huy, and other Places on the Meuse, in order to supply the Want of such Troops as are appointed to be relieved from immediate Service, and go into those respective Towns as their Winter Quarters. It is hoped the Garrison of Mons will not be able to make any considerable Resistance, it being said that the whole Strength of it consists of only nine Walloon and two Bavarian Battalions, and one French Squadron.

Falmouth, September 22. On the 20th sailed the Dutch Dagger which came from Rochel ter Holland. This day sailed the Neptune Privateer of Flushing, Cornelius Garrolson Commander, bound Home with two Prizes, one that was bound for Guiney, the other from Martinico for Naa-z. There are two Lisbon Packet-Boats in our Harbour.

Plymouth, September 23. On the 21st came in her Majesty's Ship the Plymouth from Cruizing, she hath taken and brought in with her a French Man of War of forty four Guns, and about three hundred Men; the French lost their Captain, and about fifty Men, and the Plymouth a Captain of Marines and seven Men, in the Engagement.

Dartmouth, September 23. This day arrived the White Elephant, a Dutch Digger, of and for Zurickzee, with Sait and Treacle from Rochel. Came in also a small French Privateer, which was taken by two Dutch Privateers, and was bought by a Guernsey Man for the same Service.

Bristol, September 24. The Duckingfield Galley of this Port arrived here on the 22d Instant in five Weeks from Mountraras, and Yesterday came in Her Majesty's Ships the Hampshire and Hastings, and under their Convoy the Nassau and Sarah Frigates of this Place from Jamaica, and several other Vessels from Cork and Kingfale; they sailed from those Ports last Wednesday. Yesterday also arrived the Anna Maria of and from Oporto, in thirteen Days; and the Nostra Signora de Parais, of and from Bilbao. The Hastings Man of War has brought in here as Prize the Diligence of Naats, from St. Domingo, loaden with Sugars and Indigo. The Peter and Elizabeth of and from Antegoa is come in this Day, as is also the Union Sloop of Jamaica. John Toms Master, from Carolina; and also the Four Comforts from the same Place, who was taken on the Coast of Ireland, but soon after forced into Kingfale Harbour with a strong Southerly Wind.

Deal, September 25. Her Majesty's Ships the Rupert, Swifsure, Canterbury and Woolwich continue here: Besides which here are the Cornwall Galley, Neptune, Sea-Nymph, John's-Galley and Crown, bound for the Straights; the Betsey and Queen Anne for Lisbon; the Beake-Galley for Newfoundland; the Flying Mercury for Faro; the Queen Anne-Galley for Pennsylvania; the Batcheller's Delight, Beginning and Waterwall for Ireland. And Yesterday in the Afternoon came down Her Majesty's Ship the Falmouth.

Windjor, September 25. On the 17th Instant her Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Howard Gould, Esq, one of the Commissioners of the Licutenancy of London, on occasion of presenting to her Majesty their Congratulatory Address on the late Victory.

The Holland Mails of the 27th Instant, and 1st and 2d of October, N. S. are not yet arrived.

His Excellency the viceroce Ambassador gives notice, that he is on his Departure from Great Britam, and desires all those that have any Demands upon him, to come to his House at Nine Elms, where they shall receive Satisfaction.

Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, &c. Lord High-Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. is pleased to direct, that all the Men belonging to Her Majesty's Ship the Bonaventure, who are in and about Town, do immediately repair to their Duty on Board the said Ship at Sheerness, otherwise they will be taken up, and punished as Deserters.

Notice is hereby given, That a Meeting of the Commissioners appointed by her Majesty's Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to Treat and Agree for such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as shall be judged proper to be Purchased for the better Fortifying Portsmouth, Chatham and Harwich, pursuant to a late Act of Parliament, is appointed to be at the Town-Hall in Harwich, on Friday the 7th of October next.

J. Hughes.

Notice is hereby given by the Paymaster of the Malt-Lottery Tickets, that Money was reserved in the Receipts of her Majesty's Exchequer on the 23d of this Instant September, 1709. to satisfy the 105th payment of the said Tickets, which are numbered from 118000 to 119000 inclusive, with all Interest due; which Money will be paid at the Malt-Lottery Office at the Exchequer, on demand.
