These officers displayed great gallantry in connection with the fire which destroyed the Jumbo Floating Restaurant on 30 October 1971 in Aberdeen Harbour, Hong Kong, in which 34 people lost their lives. The Trunk Road (High Street, Kirton) (Prohibition of Waiting) Order 1973

The Secretary of State for the Environment has made an Order under sections 1 and 84D of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967 as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act

1968, the effect of which is to revoke and re-enact the provisions of the Trunk Road (London Road, Kirton) (Prohibition of Waiting) Order 1972, which Order erroneously cited the road concerned as London Road instead of High Street. The only change is the substitution of "High Street" for "London Road" throughout. The Order now prohibits the waiting of vehicles on the north-west side of that length of the A.16 Trunk Road known as High Street in the Parish of Kirton, Lincs., from 7 yards north-east of its eastern junction with Station Street to 28 yards north-east of that junction.

Exceptions are provided in the Order to enable a vehicle to wait for so long as may be necessary for a person to board or alight from the vehicle, to enable goods to be loaded on to or unloaded from the vehicle, or to enable the vehicle to be used in connection with any building operation or demolition, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance of the road or the services therein.

Any person who desires to question the validity of, or of any provision contained in, the Order, on the ground that it is not within the powers with respect to the Order conferred by the above Act, or on the ground that any requirement of, or of any instrument made under, any provision of that Act has not been complied with in relation to the Order, may within 6 weeks of the 5th March 1973 apply to the High Court for the suspension or quashing of the Order or of any provision contained therein.
