DURHAM COUNTY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1971

Whitburn—Designation of Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 1st August 1973 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 designated as a Conservation Area that part of Whitburn described in the Schedule hereto.

Whitburn is a village of great architectural quality and is particularly important because of its location in the industrial and urban north-east part of the county, and the contrast between its character and that of the surrounding area. The main part of the village, comprising the Green, Front Street, Whitburn Hall and Church Lane, lined and encircled with fine tall trees, is an area of considerable beauty. The green is bounded on the south by harmonious groupings of detached houses and terraces of varying periods, styles and sizes, including Whitburn Hall. The properties on the north side of the Green are at a higher level, and are largely hidden by a fine avenue of trees. These houses are large and detached, dating from the late 18th century onwards. The lane leading to the 13th century Parish Church is an attractive, leafy walk, virtually traffic-free.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Boldon Urban District Council, East Boldon, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The Green, buildings to the south, older properties on North Guards, and part of East Street (A.189). Open land to the west from which there are open views of the coastline and Sunderland, and land to the south which is being laid out as an extension to Cornthwaite Park.

Dated 2nd August 1973.

County Hall,
Durham.
