The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesse and Commonality of the Town of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE presume in Duty to your Majesty to offer our humble Acknowledgments for your Royal Care, the happy Cause of the late remarkable Successes of your Forces, under the Command of his Grace John Duke of Marlborough.

The Influence of your Majesty's Favour to that Great General (whose Bravery and Conduct you have so often experienced) inspires him with Resolutions to encounter all Hazards, and overcome the nimost Difficulties, to accomplish the just Designs of a Princess, who means the Prosperity of her own Nation, and the Peace and Tranquility of those unfortunate Neighbours who want her Assistance.

And from these Intentions of your sacred Breast, and the Wisdom and Valour of that Heroe, we have Reason to hope for the desired End of all your Victories, which will crown his Glory in the faithful Execution of your Commands, and give your Majesty the highest Delight, as it will be the Satisfaction of your People.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesse of the ancient Corporation of Portsmouth, was presented to her Majesty by Sir John Gibson, Deputy-Governor, being Introduced by Admiral Churchill, one of their Representatives in Parliament.
