Windfor, October 30.

HE humble Address of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and the Corporations of Newport, Newtown, and Yarmouth in the Isle of Wight; was presented to her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

Which Address her Majesty received very graciousty.

Vienna, October 23. N. S. On the 18th Instant Monsieur Albani arrived here; after some stay in this Court he defigns to proceed towards Hungary, and from thence continue his Journey to Poland. General Zumjungen is returned to Piedmont with the Repartition of the Winter Quarters for the Imperial Troops in Italy. Baron Heems is dispatched again to the Hague, with new Infractions from his Imperial Majesty, to act in conjunction with the rest of the Allies, on the present posture of Affairs. We hear from Constantinople, that the Ottoman Port appears inclined to espouse the Interests of the King of Sweden, in opposition to his Czarish Majesty. The Emperor hath given Orders, that all the Advices this Court hath necived relating to the Health and Affairs of the King of Sweden, be communicated to his Majesty's Minister residing here, that he may transmit that Intelligence to the Senate at Stockholm. We have received Advices from Hungary of several Successes over the Malecontents of that Kingdom; that General Croix had taken a Convoy of three hundred Waggons which was defigned for Neuhaufels that Colonel Schillingh had furprized Count Efterhali, and dispersed the Body of Dragoons under his Command; and that General Heister was marching his Army towards Espiers, but it was supposed would soon be obliged to retire into Winter Quarters. The last Letters from Italy say, that they expect the Neighbourhood of the Imperial Troops will encline the Court of Rome speedly to acknowledge King Charles, and accommodate all other Differences which are depending between that Court and the House of Austria; and, we hear, that Monsieur Albani hath Instructions to determine these Affairs, to prevent the Troops of his Imperial Majesty from marching into the Ecclesiastical State.

Vinice, Offober 25. N. S. Last Week Monsseur Cornangare in to the College an Account of his Embassy to Great Britain. We have received repeated Advices from Rome, that the Pope held a Consistory on the 14th Infant, and therein publickly declared Charles the Third, Catholick King of Spain, and the Pope is hereaster to have the Nomination of Bishops to such Sees as are in those Dominions, whereof King Charles hath the position. Immediately after this Declaration of his Holines, the Prince Colonna, and others that possess E-states in the Dominions of the King of Spain, erected his Arms over the Gates of their Palaces, and his Catholick Majesty's Picture is to be hung up in the National Churches on Festival Days, according to the usual practice of the Country. They who are in the Interests of the Crown of France, and of the Duke of Anjou, seem very much displeased at these Proceedings; but none have sared to make any open Declarations against them, since the late Censures which have been passed against Monsseur, by declaring that what he did was by positive Instructions from the Court of Madrid; and that the Command haif on the Spaniards not to apply to the Court of Reme for any Benefices, Bulls or Certificates, was to have lasted only till an Accommodation should be agreed on between these two Courts.

E. rlin, November 2. N. S. By Advices from the Court Merletwerder of the 25th of the last Month, we hear that the King arrived there on the 25th, and the Day after his Arrival he went to meet the Czar as far as the Vistula; that these two Princes having made the usual Compliments, went together into his Prussian Majesty's Coach, being accompanied by Monsieur Keyserling, his Majesty's Envoy to the Czar. It is believed that their Majesties will not stay above three or four Days at Marienwerder, the Czar being desirous to join his Troops which are before Riga, which according to the Account we have of them, consist of one hundred and twenty thousand Men. The King is also shortly expected here, for it is not probable, that he will stay long in a Place so near the Insection of a Pestilence. Many of his Majesty's Retinue having met upon the Road several Vagabonds which had been driven from the Places of their Abode, on Suspicion of being insected, will be obliged at their return to perform their Quarantain at some distance from this City. It being reported, that the Plague was broken out at Brandenburg, Commissaries have been immediately sent thither, to examine of what nature the Diseases were which reigned there, but after a strict examination it was found that the Distempers were not Pestilential.

found that the Distempers were not Pestilential.

Copenhagen, November 2. N. S. Admiral Guildenlieu.

who Commands the Squadron in the intended Expedition, hath hoisted his Flag on Board the Danebrog. The Troops are to begin to Embark on the 4th Instant, and the Fleet will be under sail for Schonen within this Week, if the Wind, which at present is contrary, prove savourable, but the Artillery which is to be employ'd in this Enterprize is not yet arrived.

Bruffels, November 7. N. S. On the 5th Instant Prince Eugene, and the Deputies of their High Mightinesses set out for the Hague; and yesterday Lieutenant-General Cadogan set out for the same Place. The Enemies are now entirely separated, and are marching into Winter Quarters; but the Mareschals of Boussers and Berwick are still on the Frontiers; it is said the former is to reside at Valenciennes, and the latter at Maubeuge, during the Winter. The Mareschal de Villars was to begin his Journey to Paris on the 2d of this Month, and the Elector of Bavaria was expected at Valenciennes the same Day.

Hague, November 5. N. S. Both Armies are marching to their Winter Quarters, and all things are in Tranquility A Squadron of the Guards of the Prince on the Frontiers. of Friese, confisting of eighty Horse, fell into an Ambuscade of the Enemy near Malines, and were entirely defeated, with the Lofs of their Baggage, Drums and Standard; but the Cornet and thirty Men retired to Malines. The Duke of Marlborough arrived here on the 3d Instant from Brussels. We hear, that his Grace defigns to embark for Great Britain on Sunday the 10th Initant, if the Wind be favourable; the Convoy and Yatchs being fafely arrived in the Mcule. Mr. Robinson, her Britannick Majesty's Envoy to the King of Sweden, came over with the laid Convoy, and is at present in this Place. Prince Eugene is expected here to Morrow; we hear, that after a short slay, he will set out for Vi. enna. The Prince Hereditary of Hesse Cassel is also arrived here, with several other General Officers. Monsseur Professini, Ambassada and Placinetorisas to the Professini. Foscarini, Ambassador and Plenipotentiary from the Republick of Venice to the States General, hath delivered in his Credentials, and this Day he fignified his Arrival to the Publick Ministers. Monsieur van Stocken, the King of Denmark's Minister residing here, departed this Life on the 3d Inftant. Monficur Rosenkrants designs to embark with the Duke of Marlborough for England. The States have appointed the 13th of this Month to be observed as a Day of Publick Fasting and Prayers. The second Loctery of two Millions of Florins has not filled as the former did; and it is reported, that if it be not full before

Hague, November S. N. S. Yesterday in the Evening Prince Eugene, accompanied by the Earl of Albemarle; and this Day Lieutenant-General Cadogan, with feveral other Genera Officers, arrived here. The Duke of Marlborough hath ordered the Yarchts to fall down to Helvoerflays to Morrow, and defigns to embark for England next blonday. The States have lately published three Edicts, one to prohibit all Traders to Dantzick to transport any Merchandize from thence, but Corn, and that under certain Restrictions mentioned in that Proclamation. The ficond repeats he Prohibition to transport that Commodity into the Enemy's Country, and promifes a Reward of two thousand Florins to such as shall discover any who have already, or shall for the future offend in this kind. The third relates to the French Refugees who are fettled in this Country, and excludes all their Relations in France from inheriting the Effects which those Refugees either brought from thence, or have acquired here, fince they and their Children are difinherited in France atter the fame manner. Next Week the States of Holland are to affemble, in order to fettle the State of the War (which will then be ready to be laid before them.) as also the Funds which are necessary for defraying the Expence of it. We hear that immediately on the Duke of Anjou's Arrival at Madrid, his Council took a Refolution to make a confiderable Augmentation of his Infantry and Cavalry; and Orders were forthwith dispatched to the several Regiments to proceed in new Levies accordingly. We hear from Hanover, that the Eichtoral Princess was delivered of a Daughter on the 2d Inflant, which was baptized on the and called Anne, in Honour to her Majesty of Great Edinourgh, October 22. The Price of Corn is very much abated in this City, by reason of the plentiful Harvest we have had throughout North Britain.

Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, &c. Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, erc. is pleased to direct, that all the Men belonging to her Majesty's Ships the Rupert, Nonfuch and Windfor at Portsmouth, that are absent from their Duty, do immediately repair on Board them, where they will be paid before the Ships Sail from thence, etherwise they will be taken up, and punished as
