PRIVATE LEGISLATION PROCEDURE (SCOTLAND) ACT 1936

British Railways

Notice is hereby given in terms of section 1 (4) of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936 that the Secretary of State, the Chairman of Committees of the House of Lords and the Chairman of Ways and Means in the House of Commons having considered representations by the British Railways Board that it is expedient that the under-mentioned Parliamentary powers to be operative in Scotland and elsewhere which the Board desire to obtain should be conferred by one enactment have decided that the said powers would more properly be obtained by the promotion of a Private Bill than by the promotion of a Private Bill and of a Provisional Order under the said Act.

1. To continue in force in their application to the British Railways Board and their subsidiary, British Transport Hotels Limited, until 1st August 1979 the provisions of section 54 (Powers of police as to search and arrest) of the British Transport Commission Act 1949 as amended by section 21 of the British Railways Act 1969.

2. To exempt apparatus forming part of a lifting barrier installation at a level crossing of a road by a railway of the British Railways Board from any requirement in any enactment for the provision of a cut-off switch on the low voltage side of the transformer in connection with apparatus consisting of luminous tube signs designed to work at a voltage normally exceeding 650 volts, or other equipment so designed, and of the transformers required to raise the voltage so as to operate the signs or equipment.

Dated 23rd November 1973.
