

Mary Wilson at their decease provided that no part of any coffins containing the said bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and (b) the bodies of Mrs. Murial Farthing and Mr. David Clement Farthing in a single grave provided that the uppermost coffin containing the body is sealed with a layer of concrete over the top of the coffin to a depth of not less than three inches.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889, c. 63) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Nicholas' Churchyard, Gosforth, Northumberland) (Variation) Order 1974.

N. E. Leigh

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 25th day of January 1974.

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that, for the protection of the Public Health, burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in St. Mary's Churchyard, Longnewton, in the County of Durham, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 13th day of November, 1973, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853 (1853 c. 134), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in that part of St. Mary's Churchyard, Longnewton, in the County of Durham, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that—

In any earthen grave now existing in the said part of the Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Mary's Churchyard, Longnewton, County Durham) Order 1974.

N. E. Leigh.

TREASURY

Treasury Chambers,
London S.W.1.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under sections 1, 3 (6), and 13 of the Import Duties Act 1958.

Viz.: The Import Duties (Temporary Reductions and Exemptions) Order 1974.

This Order provides for exemption from or reductions in import duties in the case of goods specified in the Schedules from 1st January 1974 to 31st December 1974 or in the case of goods in Schedule 1 to the earlier dates there specified.

There is exemption from import duties in the case of all goods in Schedules 1 and 2 if the goods satisfy the requisite conditions to benefit from the eventual abolition of customs duties in trade between Member States of the European Communities.

In the case of other goods, where a rate of duty is specified in column 3 of Schedule 1 or 3, duty is reduced to that rate instead of any higher rate which would otherwise apply and where "free" appears in column 3 in relation to the goods, they are exempt from duty whatever their origin.

In the case of goods originating in Egypt or Cyprus greater reductions in duty are available than those referred to above in a number of cases, such reductions being shown respectively in column 4 and 5 of Schedule 1 or 3.

Goods in the case of which reductions are specified in Schedule 3 have hitherto been subject to lesser reductions in duty under the Import Duties (Reductions and Exemptions) (No. 2) Order 1973, which is amended accordingly. (They remain exempt from duty by virtue of that Order if they satisfy the requisite conditions to benefit from
