Frankfort, December 1. N. S.

Yesterday Prince Eugene arrived here under a triple Discharge of the Cannon of this City, and having staid some Hours, he proceeded to Aschaffenburg, where he is to have an Interview with the Elector of Mayence; from whence his Highness designs to continue his Journey to Vienna. The Regiments of Mecklenburg and Woltembittel, which were marching towards their Winter Quarters in their respective Countries, have received Orders from General Gronsfeldt, to return to Weynheim. They write from Ratisbon, that the General Diet hath sent Memorials to the chief Potentates of the Alliance, desiring them to have a particular regard to the Security of the Empire at the next Treaty of Peace, by obliging France to restore the entire Duchies of Lorrain and Barr, together with the City and Baillages of Longwic, Clermont, Stenay, and all the Lands which they were obliged to deliver up to France in the Year 1661, as well as those which the Dukes of Lorraine were possessed of before the Regency of Duke Henry the III. and which they enjoyed long before the Treaty of Westphalia; the Landgraviate of Upper and Lower Alsatia; the Principality of Montbelliard and its Dependencies; the Baillages, Lordships and Dominions belonging to the Teutonic Order, and that of St. Johns; the Sundgow and Brifgow, with all the Fortifications along the Rhine from Basil to Philipsburg; Bedford, Pfalz-burg, Hombourg, Bilsch; the Bailliage of Haguenau; the Bishopricks of Metz, Toul and Verdun, with the City of Moyencwic; the Bishoprick, City and Fortrefs of Strasburg; whatsoever hath been taken from the Bishoprick of Basil; Franche-Comté, and the Fortresses of Thionville and Saarlouis; and to insist on the demolishing of Huninguen, Landscrown, New Brifac, Fort Lewis and Fort Morrier. It is also proposed in these Memorials, that all the Subjects of the Empire, of what Quality and Condition soever, shall be established in their Ancient Rights, Privileges and Immunities; that a Barrier be appointed for the continual Security of the Empire, and particularly of the four Associated Circles which are most exposed; and that the Cities, Lordships, and all other Territories in the Low-Countries belonging to the Crown of Spain, which are Feudatories to the Empire, be restored to his Catholic Majesty; and that all things be regulated in such a manner, that the French King, or his Successors, may never hereafter form any Claim or Pretension to the same. These Letters add, that on the 24th of the last Month the Deputies of the Protestant Princes had a Conference together; and that they had also writ to her Britannick Majesty, and the States-General, to recommend to their Consideration the Interest of their Religion at the next Treaty of Peace; and that they will have an especial Regard that they enjoy the same Freedom in the Exercise of it as formerly.

Cologn, December 4. N. S. The Cardinal Saxe-Zeiss and the Count of Konigseck are daily expected in this Place. General Bersau reviewed our Garrison Yesterday. It is said that some Potentates in the Alliance will suddenly send Ministers hither, to Mediate between the King of Prussia and this City, and endeavour wholly to Accommodate the Misunderstandings between them. Several Danish and Saxon Officers continue to recruit their respective Companies in these Parts. Divers Prussian Officers who were Quartered in our Neighbourhood are gone into Brandenburgh, in order to raise new Levies. The Garrison of Bonn, consisting of four thousand Men, is to be reinforced with a Dutch Regiment. Many French Parties pass frequently through our Neighbourhood; but we have not heard of any considerable Attempt that hath been made, or great Injury done to the Inhabitants of the Country. Some Saxon Companies have lately marched through these Territories in their way to Winter Quarters in their own Dominions.

Hague, December 6. N. S. Letters from Paris advise, that the Marshal d'Harcourt hath been created a Peer of France, in Consideration of his Service on the Rhine last Year. The French King hath sent Commissioners into France-Comte, to make an exact search for all such as were suspected to have held any Correspondence with Count Mercei, when he passed the Rhine, in order to penetrate into those Parts; and it is advised that several Persons have already left their Habitations, for fear of being Prosecuted for favouring that Design. These Letters add, that besides a Buckle set in Diamonds, which the French King sent to the Duke of Bavaria by Monsieur Torcy, his Majesty also presented that Prince with twenty five Purfes, in each of which were two thousand Livres in Gold, which Present was made him to defray the Expences of his Journey. Letters from the North advise, that it being reported at Elsinor, that the Swedish Fleet was sailed from Karlsroon, and had taken a Yacht in the Baltick belonging to the King of Denmark, the Danish Fleet immediately hoisted Sail, and stood towards Karlsroon, so that it is expected we shall soon receive Advice of an Engagement between those two Fleets.
