DEVON COUNTY COUNCIL

The County of Devon (Ide Lane, Ide) (Weight Restriction) Order 1976

Notice is hereby given that the Devon County Council propose to make an Order under Sections 1 (1), (2) and (3) and 84D (1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967, as amended.

When the proposed Order comes into effect you will not be allowed to drive any vehicle the unladen weight of which exceeds two tons in that length of Ide Lane in the Parish of Alphington in the District of Teignbridge from its junction with the Class III Road No. 19 north of Ide Bridge to its junction with the Ide Lane Diversion running between the Alphington Spur Interchange and Pocombe Bridge at Roll Bridge Farm.

Exemptions in the Order will permit any vehicle to proceed in the road referred to if the vehicle is being used:

- (a) for the conveyance of persons, goods or merchandise to or from any premises situated on or adjacent to that road;
- (b) for the purposes of agriculture in connection with land adjacent to that road or for the conveyance or haulage of timber felled upon that land; or
- (c) in connection with any building operations or demolition in or adjacent to that road, the removal of any obstruction to traffic in that road, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of that road, or the laying, erection, alteration or repair in or adjacent to that road of any sewer or of any main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity or of any telegraphic line as defined in the Telegraph Act 1878.

The proposed Order revokes the County of Devon (Road between Pocombe Bridge and Ide) (Weight Restriction) Order 1972 and the effect of the proposed Order is to release the section of Ide Lane between Pocombe Bridge (A30) and Roll Bridge Farm from the existing restrictions.

Full details of the proposal are in the draft Order which, together with a map showing the affected road and a statement of the Council's reasons for proposing to make the Order may be inspected during usual office hours, Monday to Friday, at the offices of Teignbridge District Council, Kingsteignton Road, Newton Abbot, or at The Enquiry Office, 31 Southernhay East, Exeter, or at the address given below.

If you wish to object to the proposed Order, you must send the grounds for your objection in writing to the undersigned by 27th February 1976.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1947

GEDLING BOROUGH COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Lambley Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of Section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 as amended that the Gedling Borough Council as local planning authority after consultation with the Nottinghamshire County Council have determined that the area described in the Schedule to this notice is an area of special architectural or historic interest, the character or appearance of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance and have accordingly designated the said area as a Conservation Area.

The effect of designating an area as a Conservation Area are as follows:

1. Where any application for planning permission for development of land in or adjacent to a Conservation Area is made to the council and the development would, in the opinion of the council, affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area the application will be subject to the special procedure in Section 28 of the Act.
2. Any building within a Conservation Area other than a Listed Building except a building in Section 58 (2) of the Act and building excepted by the Secretary of State must not be demolished without the consent of the local planning authority.
3. Advertisements in a Conservation Area may also be controlled by the local planning authority to avoid detraction from the appearance of the area.
4. Trees in a Conservation Area are also protected by the Act and any person doing any prohibited act against a tree will be guilty of an offence. This includes felling, topping, lopping, uprooting and wilful damage to trees. Trees of a certain size or species or trees belonging to specified persons or bodies may be excluded by the Secretary of State.

Plans and details regarding the Conservation Area may be inspected during normal office hours at the Chief Planning and Estates Officer, Council House, Carlton Square, Carlton.—Dated 28th January 1976.

W. Brown, Chief Executive

Council House,
Carlton Square,
Carlton.

SCHEDULE

Boundaries of the Conservation Area

The boundary originates at the junction of Spring Lane and Main Street and goes westwards, to the north of the water pumping station grounds. It then crosses the Dumble opposite the western boundary of Lambley School Recreation Ground, turning east again along the southern side of the school land. The boundary then follows the school's eastern curtilage and crosses Gatfoot Lane, to the rear of the Nags Head Public House and properties of 23-31 Main Street, turning north again on the western side of Main Street Garage and then along the western edge of the Windmill Croft. It then follows the lane on the ridge top; it then skirts the west, south, east and northern boundary of properties on Steeles Way, Orchard Rise, Willow Close and Trinity Crescent to exclude this new development from the Conservation Area.

The boundary then continues from the north-east corner of field 8548 following the southern bank of Lambley Dumble and crossing the Dumble at the footbridge; the boundary then follows the line of the Dumble eastwards up to the western boundary of number 18 The Dumbles where it turns north and then east, to follow the rear of property boundaries of 18-6 The Dumbles. The line then continues northward to the rear of properties on the west side of Green Lane up to number 43 and then east to number 44 on the east side of Green Lane. Then it goes southwards along the rear of properties on the east side of Green Lane to the bank of trees, at the junction of Church Street and Green Lane, which are included in the Conservation Area. The boundary then follows the northern rear boundaries of all properties between 34 and 10 Church Street and then along the northern boundary of fields numbered 3940 and 4743, to include fields adjoining Reed Pond House. The boundary joins Park Lane and turns westwards along Park Lane and Main Street and turns south-eastwards to the west side of the Pumping House, until it joins the grass lane running to the south side of properties on Main Street. All properties to the south of Main Street are included in the Conservation Area except for the open spaces of Castle Nurseries and the Riding Stables. It then runs north to exclude properties on Flamstead Avenue to rejoin the originating point.

GLOUCESTER CITY COUNCIL

GLOUCESTER CORPORATION ACT 1958 The Old Cemetery, Cemetery Road

Notice is hereby given that the Gloucester City Council intend to exercise the powers contained in Section 22 of the Gloucester Corporation Act 1958, in relation to an area containing approximately 700 graves and situate on the left-hand side of the main drive of the Old Cemetery at a distance of approximately 20 yards from the Cemetery Road entrance, the precise position of which is shown on a plan which may be inspected during normal office hours at the office of the Cemeteries Superintendent, Coney Hill Cemetery Gloucester.

The Council in pursuance of the powers contained in the said Section 22 intend to remove from the Cemetery all tombstones, memorials, kerbstones, railing and any other thing which is above ground level, level the graves contained in the area mentioned and turf or seed those graves so that in future it will be possible to cut the area with appropriate machinery and at no expense to the owners of the graves. A limited number of selected memorials will remain in order to preserve the character of the area as a cemetery.

The Corporation may put to such use as they think appropriate or destroy any tombstone, memorial or kerbstone, railings, etc. removed in pursuance of this scheme unless it or they is or are claimed within three months after the date of the first publication of this notice. Records will be made of each tombstone or memorial taken from the burial ground and of each inscription contained thereon. Full particulars of the proposal may be obtained upon enquiry at the office of the Cemeteries Superintendent during normal office hours.

The Corporation intends to begin to carry out the proposal on or after 1st March 1976 save that if notice of objection to any proposal and of the grounds thereof is sent in writing to the undersigned before the proposal to which the objection relates will not be carried out without the consent of the Secretary of State for the Environment unless the notice is withdrawn.—Dated 13th January 1976.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to Her Majesty's Stationery Office, The London Gazette Office, Room B82, Atlantic House, Holborn Viaduct, London EC1P 1BN (callers should use the Charterhouse Street entrance) for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be prepaid. The office hours are from 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and Section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 161 of the Companies Act, 1948, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

All communications on the business of The London Gazette should be addressed to Her Majesty's Stationery Office, The London Gazette Office, Room B82, Atlantic House, Holborn Viaduct, London EC1P 1BN
