

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday, May 12. to Monday May 16. 1670.

at month, May 9.

THe fifth instant came in here the Garden of Holland from Brest, upon the account of his most Christian Majesty, to lade some Masts which were formerly cast away about the Lizard.

The next day came in the Fig-tree of London from Virginia, laden with Tobacco, and is gone for Fomy to enter there for Holland. The same day came in the Neptune of London from the Earbados, and is since sailed for London.

The 7th instant, a ship of Flushing bound to the western Islands, off the Lizard discovered a man of war, which endeavoured to get between her and the land, which she fearing to be a Turk, put back again into this harbor.

Rome, April 26 Cardinal Porto Carrero arriving in this City, was presented by the Constable Colonna with a rich Coach and excellent Horses, and was complimented by the Roman Barons, the forraign Ministers and all the persons of greatest quality, Cardinal Rospigliosi and Cardinal de Medicis the Princes Rossana and others, making him also several Presents, amongst others, the Viceroy of Naples his Uncle, sent him six excellent Coach Horses. Upon his entry into the Conclave, he freely declared, that it was not the intention of the Queen Regent of Spain, to exclude any Cardinal from the Election, but that he would be satisfied with the exaltation of any person, of what party or faction soever, if otherwise meriting that great Dignity. Since this, an extraordinary Courier is arrived from Spain with several dispatches for the Cardinal Porto Carrero, the Spanish Ambassador and Father Nithard, formerly the Queens Confessor.

From Naples we are informed, that the Receiver-General of the Knights of Malta, having with leave from the Viceroy employd a Religi us person to Treat with the Banditi for the release of Chevalier Tancrede, a Knight of that Order, who with the son of Signior Vitale was unhappily taken by them, they have so far condescended, as to lessen his ransom from 50000 to 700 Crowns, they have already released the Knight, but detain Vitales son for security of payment.

The Viceroy has offered those Banditi a general pardon, upon condition, they will oblige themselves to serve his Catholick Majesty for some time in his Garrisons, which tis believed will have a good effect upon them.

Madrid, May 1. We have not any news from Cadix or St Lucar of the arrival of our Gallions, of which we are in great expectation.

The Duke de Veraguas will be suddenly at Cadix, both to take care for the security of the Gallions from the Corsairs, and for the sending away a considerable succor to the Count de Assentar the Governour of Ceuta, upon the coast of Barbary, with a large sum of Money for the payment of the Garrison, and the reparation of the Fortifications there, we being the more careful of the defence of that place, upon information, that the Emperor of Morocco is making great preparations for a Siege, and tis feared he may have a design upon Ceuta.

From Estermadura we are advised, that the Portugais are repairing with diligence the fortifications of their frontier Towns.

The ship which was employd by Don Pedro d' Aragon the Viceroy of Naples, with part of his own goods, several excellent horses, and many Franciscan Fathers who intended to be present here at a general Chapter of the Order, put on shoar the said Fathers with the horses and goods at Barcellona, but sailing thence towards Alicans, was taken and made prize by the Pyrats.

On St. Marks day the Officers of Justice, who are usually present upon all Festivals, wheresoever there is any extraordinary contourse of people; going according to custom, to some great Assembly in this City, were solemly necessitated to pass by the French Ambassadors Lodgings, whose people supposing an injury thereby done to the privileges of Ambassadors, endeavoured to dispute their passage, but timely notice of this disturbance being given to the Queen, she so ordered the business, that the Officers passing by in Coaches, and on horseback, without exposing the badges of their authority, the peace was preserved, and all parties concerned had their satisfaction.

Vienna, May 1. The Count Serini has opened to the Emperor the whole design of the disturbance in Hungary; and communicated to him the Articles which he had proposed to the Grand Segnior, which were in substance as follows.

1. That the Grand Segnior should permit the free exercise of the Christian Religion in all those Countreys which should be induced to do him homage, as in Stiria, Croatia, and such other Provinces as should be brought to revolt from the Emperours service, and that he should preserve all the Priviledges and Laws which are already established amongst them.

2. That he should not compel any of the people of the said places to take Arms upon any account; but if the said Countreys were assaulted, that the Grand Segnior should assist them with all his forces if need should require it, but whilst the war lasted, they should not be obliged to pay any tribute, but in time of peace they should pay him 12000 Rix dollars every year.

3. That the frontiers towards Turky should be divided, one half to be possessed and defended by the people of the said Countreys, the other by the Turks.

4. That convenient bridges should be made for the passage of Merchandises for the better encouragement of Trade between them and the Turks; and that it be ordered, that all Goods passing by any other way, should be confiscated, and those persons who undertook to Convey them by any private way, should be made prisoners and put to ransom.

5. That the Grand Segnior should have nothing to do in any Provinces which should yield themselves to Count Serini, or should be subdued by him by force of Arms.

6. That whilst any of his race were living, no other Prince of any other family should command in those Countreys, but that his Children and their posterity should succeed in the Government.

7. That