Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 27. to Tuesday May 30. 1710.

St. James's, May 29.

THE following Address from the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of Ireland, in Parliament assembled having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Wharton, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, was presented to her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, one of her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament Assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, cannot meet without acknowledging your Majesty's great Favour and Goodness which calls us together, and humbly begging Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall, with all becoming Cheerfulness and Gratitude, endeavour to answer the Ends of this our Meeting.

We do, at the same time, in the most dutiful and humble manner, congratulate your Majesty upon the great and early Successes of your Majesty's Arms in the present Campaign, under the Conduct of your Renowned and Victorious General the Duke of Marlborough, which open to us a Prospect of further Victories, or of such a lasting and honourable Peace, as we may justly promise our selves from those already gained.

As the Glory of your Majesty's Arms Abroad, and the Wisdom and Justice of your Administration at Home, make us regard your Majesty as the greatest and best of Princes; so we are resolved to embrace all Opportunities of shewing our selves the most dutiful and loyal of Subjects.

And to the end that as much as in us lies we may convey to our Posterity those inestimable Blessings, restored to us by the late happy Revolution, and continued and improved under your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, we shall be ready to hazard all that is dear and valuable to us in the Defence and Support of your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, of our present happy Constitution, and the Church as by Law Established, and of the Succession in the Protestant Line, as the same stands settled by Acts of Parliament lately made in England.

Dublin, May 23. Yesterday in the Afternoon the House of Commons attended his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant with the following Address.

To his Excellency Thomas Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant-General, and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE her Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return our humble and hearty Thanks for your Excellency's Speech to both Houses of Parliament.

Your Excellency's Eminent Zeal for her Majesty's Service and Government, your generous Concern for our happy Establishment in Church and State, your distinguished Regard to the Rights and Liberties even of the least Subject, and your particular Care of the Interest and Welfare of her Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Protestants of this Kingdom, create in us a just and grateful Sense of her Majesty's Royal Care of us, and Goodness towards us, in giving us this Opportunity of meeting again, under your Excellency's Administration, to consider of, and provide what may be yet necessary for our Happiness and Security.

Her Majesty's Satisfaction in the Dispatch of the publick Business received at our last Meeting, her Approbation of the Care that was taken of the true Interest of this Kingdom, her Readiness to consent to those good Bills that were and shall be transmitted to her, and that Notice she is pleased to take of the Cheerfulness with which we gave the Supplies last Session, increase our Duty, Zeal and Affection to her Royal Person and Government; which we shall endeavour to demonstrate by our readiness in giving such Supplies as shall appear to be necessary to enable her Majesty to support the Establishment Honourably, to comply with the humble Applications we have made to her, and to carry on that Work and provide those Stores which we have judged proper for the Defence and Security of this her Kingdom; the State of all which will, we doubt not, be fully and faithfully laid before us, according to your Excellency's Direction.

That Union among our selves which your Excellency recommends, and which her Majesty hath so much at her Heart, is in it self so agreeable to the Nature of every well-disposed Mind, and so evidently necessary to our own Happiness and Security, that we assure your Excellency we shall use our utmost Endeavours to disappoint, and defeat the Hopes of those that wish to create Animosities or Divisions among us.

We are fully satisfied that our Established Church, of which her sacred Majesty is the brightest Ornament, is in a safe and flourishing Condition; and it is with great Pleasure we see it so happily and effectually secured to us and our Posterity by the Laws now in Force, by the Wisdom of her Majesty's Councils, and the glorious Successes of her Arms, that nothing but Folly or Malice can insinuate its being in Danger from her Majesty's Administration, or the Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover.

We most gratefully acknowledge that our Civil Rights and Liberties must be secure to us under our Queen, who hath from the beginning of her Reign to this Day most gloriously espoused and vindicated, not only the Rights of her own People, but the Liberty of Europe in general.

The Consideration of these inestimable Blessings fill our Hearts with such inward Joy and Satisfaction, as leaves no room for any Fears or Jealousies to distract our Minds, or disturb our Happiness; nor shall any Strife or Contention appear among us, but a generous Emulation to give the most convincing Proofs of that Duty and Loyalty that becomes the best of Subjects to the best of Princes, and of our constant Zeal and Affection to the Church and Protestant Succession by Law Established.

Copenhagen, May 27. N. S. Monsieur Lecke, the Master of the Ceremonies, and Secretary to the Orders of the Elephant and Danebrog, is made a Commissioner of the Treasury; and it is believed, that Monsieur Wybourg, the late Envoy at Vienna, will succeed him in his former Employments. The Prince-Royal is now Sick of the Measles; but is past all Danger. Last Week the Courier whom the King sent three Months since to the Czar, returned to this Court, together with an Officer in the Muscovite Service. Since their Arrival the Russian Ambassador hath had several Audiences of his Majesty, and been frequently in Conference with his Ministers. It is observed, that they are very well pleased with with the Contents of the Dispatches brought by these Couriers, wherein it is supposed his Majesty gives the Court Assurances of Assistance, both with Men and Money, for the prosecution of the War against Sweden; and the Czar hath written a very obliging Letter to the King on this Occasion. His Danish Majesty hath sent the Order of the Elephant to the Prince Muzikoff at the Camp before Riga. Some of the Sailors expected from Norway are arrived here, but the greatest part are not yet transported; so that Admiral Raab continues with his Squadron without the Sound, as well to secure their Passage, as to block up several Swedish Vessels in the Roads of Gothenburg and Maelstrand. The Danish Officers, who were taken Prisoners at the late Battle in Sweden, and were here on their Parole, are gone back to Sweden. The Swedish Lieutenant-General Biornschold is also returned here, and hath made some Proposals for his Liberty, by being exchanged for several Danish Officers of lower Rank; but that Affair is not yet regulated. The Court is this Day to set out for Fredericksburg, where they will reside during the Summer Season.

From the Camp before Douay, June 5. N. S. On the 31st Night we opened three of our Saps at the Prince of Nassau-Frisland's Attack on the Left, and made a Lodgment on the Salliant Angle on the Right of the Counterescarp, which was perfected last Night. We are now preparing to make the like Lodgment this Night on the Left of the same Attack, which will be facilitated by the Discovery we made last Night of a Mine of the Enemy's, which we blew up with several of their Men, and a considerable part of their Works. At the Prince of Anhalt's Attack on the Right, we are enlarging our Lodgments, and carrying on our Saps, some of which are advanced within a few Paces of the Counterescarp. The Marschal de Villars seems to have given over all thoughts of Relieving the Town on this side. His Army made a Movement Yesterday about a League backwards, having suffered in their former Camp for want of Waters; they are now Encamped with their Right at Fapou, and the Left at Mont Vimi, but our Out-guards continue still in fight of each other. Seven hundred Waggons laden with Ammunition for the Siege, came Yesterday in the Evening to the Camp from Tournay.

Hague, June 6. N. S. We have yet no Account that the last Courier who was sent by the Plenipotentiaries of France to Versailles is returned to Gertruydenberg. On the 4th Instant the States of Holland were reassembled, and are now employed in Regulating some particular Affairs relating to their Province. The Enemy having drawn the greatest part of their Troops from the Rhine, in order to join the Army in Flanders, the Allies have taken the like Measures to reinforce their Army. Yesterday a Conference was held with the Ministers of the Allies for this purpose, and it was proposed that only the Troops of the Circles of the Upper Rhine should remain on that Frontier; and that the respective Contingents of Lower Saxony and Westphalia, and all the Imperial Troops, (twelve Squadrons whereof had already received Orders to March towards Flanders) should join the Army under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough and Prince Eugene. The several Ministers that were interested in this Affair have this Day writ to their respective Principals on this Occasion, that these Troops may repair to the Netherlands with all possible Diligence, according to the Project they have communicated to them.

King's, May 14. This Day the Sophia Packet-Boat, with a Mail for Jamaica, was chased in here by a Privateer of twenty four Gun. In the Afternoon her Majesty's Ships the Hastings, Capt. Paul Commander, came in from Cruising, and brought in with her a French Privateer of six Guns and sixty six Men, belonging to Nantes, which he took this Morning near Galley-Head.

Dartmouth, May 26. This Evening came in here the Great Pearl, a Dutch Privateer, from Cruising, and brought in with her a French Vessel, of about sixty Tuns, laden with Salt, which she took on the French Coast, and a French Privateer, carrying twenty six Men, which she took off of Plymouth.

Deal, May 27. On the 25th Instant came in her Majesty's Ships the Salisbury's Prize and Leo with three French Prizes; as also the Mary-Galley, Hind and Otter. Yesterday Morning arrived the Salisbury, Ruby, and St. Albans. The Tyger and Leo sailed Yesterday in the Afternoon for Holland. Last Night the Salisbury, Salisbury's Prize, Hind, and Otter failed to cruise to the Westward. And this Morning Commodore Coruwall, in her Majesty's Ship the Dreadnought, sailed with the Swiftsure, Ruby, St. Albans, and Mary-Galley for the Coast of Dunkirk. At the same time also the Adventure sailed with the two Irish Vessels, and two others from Dover-Head, under her Convoy, for Ostend.

Portsmouth, May 28. On Thursday last her Majesty's Ships the Valure, South-Castle, Foy and Monk's Prize arrived from Cruising, and brought in a French Man of War of eighteen Guns; all which, except the South-Castle, sailed on Friday into the Harbour. The same Day the Portland, Jersey, Rose-Pink and Tryton's Prize arrived at this Port. Admiral Aylmer continues still at Spithead on Board the Royal Sovereign, with the Royal Anne, Russell, Newark, Norfolk, Cornwall, Lyon, Lancaster and South-Castle. There are also at St. Helens the Torbay, Edgar, Jersey and the Rose-Pink; but the two latter will sail to the Downs with the first fair Wind, having about fifty sail of Merchant-men and Coasters under their Convoy, bound for London.

The Commissioners for Visualling her Majesty's Navy having received a Letter by the Penny-Post dated the 25th Instant, sign'd J. T. wherein the Person who wrote the same proposes to make some Discovery of Embezzlement of her Majesty's Stores: Notice is hereby given, That if the said Person will come to their Office, and make out his Allegations, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

WHence the acting Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Peter Felcombe of London, Vicar, have certified to the Right Honourable the Lord High-Chancellor of Great Britain, that he hath in all things conform'd himself according to the Directions of the late Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts: This is to give Notice, that his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Acts direct, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 17th of June next.

DEFERRED lately from Cambridge, from Captain George Carew, in the honourable Colonel Andrewes Windsor's Regiment, William Thompson, 5 foot 9 inches high, 29 years old, in a grey Coat with black Trimming, his own Hair, pretty well set, he came from Padley in Huntingdonshire. Thomas Ward, 5 foot 6 inches high, aged 38 years, lived last at Hilson. John Kestell, a German, 5 foot 6 inches high, with a white Coat, a fair Wife, aged about 44, speaks broken English, but very intelligible. Matthew Pell of Nottingham, 5 foot 6 inches high, aged 29 years: Whoever sees these men, and gives Notice to Major Soule in the Tower, or to Captain George Carew, at his Quarters in Salisbury, shall have 3 Guinea Reward for each; or if they will repair to their Company in Salisbury, or to Major Soule in the Tower, in 15 days, they shall be pardoned.
