SCHEDULE

SCHEDULE I

Section III

8. On the death of an Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank in service on or after 1st April 1973, with retired pay or pension, the widow, provided she is otherwise eligible, may be paid, for a period of 91 days, a short term family pension equal to the rate of her husband's pay or half pay on the day he died, excluding additional pay and allowance, or the actual rate of her husband's retired pay or pension in issue at the time of his death. This short term pension may be increased if it is less than the normal family pension payable under Clauses 5 and 6.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 9th day of June 1976.

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in St. Andrew's Churchyard, Woolaston, in the County of Gloucestershire, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 17th day of March 1976, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853 (1853 c. 134), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in St. Andrew's Churchyard, Woolaston, in the County of Gloucestershire, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that—

- (a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stone-work or brick-work properly cemented.
- (b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Andrew's Churchyard, Woolaston, Gloucestershire) Order 1976.

N. E. Leigh

The Plan referred to in the foregoing Order in Council

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of July 1976.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Secretary of State for the Environment, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Greasley, in the County of Nottinghamshire, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in St. Mary's (Old) Churchyard, in the said

Parish, which is shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 14th day of September next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 14th day of September.
