TOWN AND COUNTRY
PLANNING ACTS

COVENTRY CITY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

The Nuneaton Borough Council Designation of Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that Coventry City Council and Nuneaton Borough Council, as local planning authorities under the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 have designated certain contiguous areas in the respective City and Borough as a "Conservation Area" under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, this area has been named Hawkesbury Junction Conservation Area.

The objects of such designation are to preserve the character or appearance of areas of special architectural or historic interest, as distinct from the preservation of individual buildings, to control development in such areas and to encourage measures to improve the environment.

Within designated areas the consent of the appropriate local planning authority must be obtained before any building is demolished or partially demolished. It is also necessary to give the authority 6 weeks notice, in writing, before any tree in the designated area is cut down, uprooted, topped, lopped, wilfully destroyed or damaged. In both cases limited works are permitted, but information on this should be obtained from the appropriate local planning authority.

Hawkesbury Junction Conservation Area is at the junction of the Oxford and Coventry Canals and straddles the local authority boundary common to the City of Coventry and the Borough of Nuneaton. The Area is about 6½ kilometres (4 miles) north-east of Coventry city centre and 2½ kilometres (1½ miles) south of Bedworth town centre.

The Conservation Area covers about 1.91 hectares (4.72 acres) and comprises parts of two canals, various areas of land in different uses, a variety of buildings—including an unused pump house, a terrace of cottages (Grade II listed buildings) and the Greyhound Public House (also Grade II), which are of architectural and historic interest—and structures—including three footbridges one of which is dated 1837. The Area extends along the local authority boundary on a south-west to north-east axis, measuring about 230 metres (250 yards) in length, from the north-east parapet of the disused mineral railway bridge where it crosses the Coventry Canal to a point on the towing path of the Coventry Canal about 25 metres north-east of the wooden footbridge.

A plan and detailed description of the Area are available for public inspection during normal office hours at the office of the City Architect and Planning Officer, Coventry, and at the office of the Planning and Development Officer, Council House, Nuneaton.
