PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October 1976

PRESENT

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is expedient to provide additional benefits for those members of the Naval and Marine Reserves who are injured in the course of their duties, and for the dependants of those killed in similar circumstances:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act 1865 (1865 c. 73) and section 1 of the Naval and Marine Reserves Pay Act 1957 (1957 c. 32) and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Citation

This Order may be cited as the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions (Reservists' Attributable Benefits) Order 1976.

Interpretation

The Interpretation Act 1889 (1889 c. 63) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

General

The rates of pensions and gratuities payable shall be as set out in the Schedule to this Order.

N. E. Leigh

SCHEDULE

SECTION I

Invaliding Awards

1. The provisions of this Section shall apply to members of the Royal Naval Reserve, the Royal Marines Reserve, the Women's Royal Naval Reserve and Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service Reserve. They also apply to members of University RN Units who join as Honorary Midshipmen RNR. They do not apply to Combined Cadet Forces Officers or to Sea Cadet Corps Officer and Rating Instructors, other than those who are members of a Reserve Force specified above and who are injured whilst undergoing peacetime training with the Armed Forces in accordance with paragraph 2 below.

2. (a) A member of any of the Reserve Forces specified in paragraph 1, who is invalided from that reserve with a degree of disability assessed at 20 per cent. or more, may be awarded a disability pension at the rates shown in paragraph 3 below provided that such disability is accepted by the Department of Health and Social Security as being attributable to or aggravated by peacetime reserve service.

(b) "Peacetime service" denotes any period of duty or training with the Armed Forces (including any duly authorised period of unpaid training) other than service which is given at a time of general mobilisation or imminent national danger or emergency to which sub-paragraph 2(d) below applies.
