WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY ACT 1949

To all Holders of Amateur (Sound) Licence A and Amateur (Sound) Licence B

The Secretary for the Home Department hereby gives notice that on and from the 1st day of January 1977 all licences as amended from time to time of the above types granted by him on or before 31st December 1976 shall be read, construed and take effect as if:

1. Paragraph 1(1)(a), (b) and (c) thereto was deleted and replaced by:
  - (a) to establish in the United Kingdom an amateur sending and receiving station for wireless telegraphy (hereinafter called "the Station");
    - (i) at the above address (hereinafter called "the main address"); or
    - (ii) at any premises (hereinafter called "the temporary premises") or any location (hereinafter called "the temporary location") for separate periods none of which shall exceed four consecutive weeks; or
    - (iii) at any premises (hereinafter called "the alternative premises") provided that at least 7 days before the Station is established at the alternative premises notice in writing of the postal address of the alternative premises is given to the General Manager of the Post Office Telephone Area in which the alternative premises are situated or, in the case of the Channel Islands to the Director of the Telecommunications Board of the appropriate Bailiwick. The said General Manager or Director shall also be notified in writing when the Station is no longer established at the alternative premises; or
    - (iv) in any vehicle or vessel but not on the sea or within any estuary, dock or harbour; or
    - (v) as a pedestrian;
  - (b) to use the Station for the purpose of sending to, and receiving from, other licensed amateur stations as part of the self-training of the Licensee in communication by wireless telegraphy:
    - (i) Messages in plain language which are remarks about matters of a personal nature in which the Licensee, or the person with whom he is in communication, has been directly concerned;
    - (ii) Facsimile Signals;
    - (iii) Radio Teletypewriter Signals;
    - (iv) Visual Images;
    - (v) Signals (not being in secret code or cypher) which form part of, or relate to, the transmission of such messages, signals or images;
  - (c) to use the Station, as part of the self-training of the Licensee in communication by wireless telegraphy, during disaster relief operations conducted by the British Red Cross Society, the St. John Ambulance Brigade, the Emergency County Planning Officer, or any police force in the United Kingdom, or during any exercise relating to such operations, for the purpose of sending to other licensed amateur stations such messages as the Licensee may be requested by the said Society, Brigade, County Planning Officer or police force to send, and of receiving from any other licensed amateur station such messages as the person licensed to use such other licensed amateur station may be requested by the said Society, Brigade, County Planning Officer, or such police force to send.
2. Paragraph 1(2)(a) thereto was deleted and replaced by:
  - (a) The Station shall not be established or used in an aircraft or a public transport vehicle.
3. Paragraph 6 thereto was deleted and replaced by:

6. Log.

(1) An indelible record shall be kept in one book (not loose-leaf) (in this Licence called "the Log") showing the following:

(Fixed Station)

- (a) Date.
- (b) Time of commencement of period of operation of the Station.
- (c) Call signs of the stations from which messages addressed to the Station are received or to which messages are sent, times of establishing and ending communication with each such station, frequency band(s) and class or classes of emission in each case (including the tests referred to in clause 4(2) above; and CQ calls).
