

of State therein named or any two or more of them full power and authority during the period of Her Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom to summon and hold on Her Majesty's behalf Her Privy Council and to signify thereat Her Majesty's approval for anything for which Her Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in St. Hybald's Churchyard, Hibaldstow, in the County of Humberside, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 15th day of December 1976, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and His Royal Highness The Prince Charles, Prince of Wales, being authorised thereto by the said Letters Patent, and in exercise of the powers conferred on Her

Majesty by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853 (1853 c. 134) and all other powers enabling Her Majesty, do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her Majesty's behalf order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

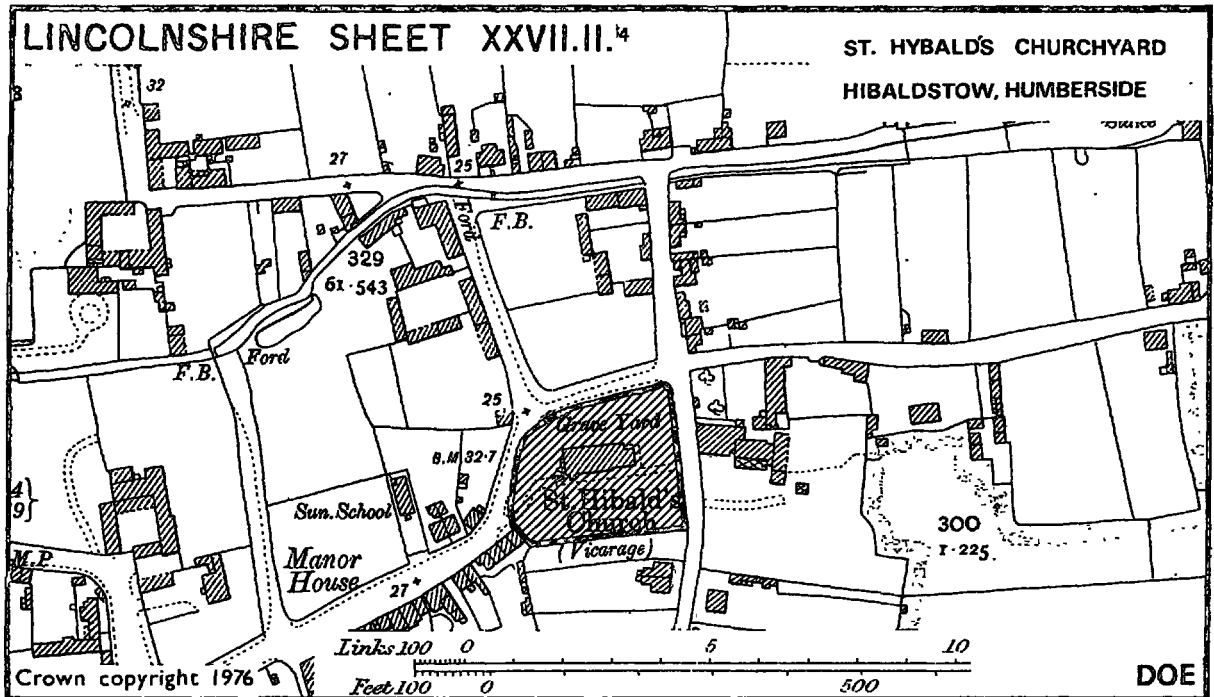

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith in St. Hybald's Churchyard, Hibaldstow, in the County of Humberside, which is shown hatched and outlined in black on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that the burial may be allowed in the said Churchyard at their decease of the bodies of Marjory Gilbert, Lilian Cash, Annie Grayson Borrill, Annie Clark Cuthbert and Robert John Denton, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Hybald's Churchyard, Hibaldstow, Humberside) Order 1977.

The Plan referred to in the foregoing Order in Council

At the Court of Saint James the 16th day of February 1977.

PRESENT,

The Counsellors of State in Council

Whereas Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Regency Acts 1937 to 1953, was pleased, by Letters Patent dated the 3rd day of February 1977, to delegate to the six Counsellors of State therein named or any two or more of them full power and authority during the period of Her Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom to summon and hold on Her Majesty's behalf Her Privy Council and to signify thereat Her Majesty's approval for anything for which Her Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in part of St. Cuthbert's Burial Ground, Kirkleatham, in the County of Cleveland, has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 15th day of December 1976, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and His Royal Highness The Prince Charles, Prince of Wales, being authorised thereto by the said Letters Patent, and in exercise of the powers conferred on Her Majesty by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853 (1853 c. 134) and all other powers enabling Her Majesty, do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her Majesty's behalf order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith in that part of St. Cuthbert's Burial Ground, Kirkleatham, in the County of Cleveland, which is shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that—

- (a) In the said part of the said Burial Ground, in the one earthen grave reserved for Edith Blair in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of her body subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
- (b) In the said part of the said Burial Ground, in the one remaining grave space, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of the family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Cuthbert's Burial Ground, Kirkleatham, Cleveland) Order 1977.
