• Vienna, May 16. The Count, Serini is of late fallen into fo great a melancholly, that he will not admit of any convertation or divertifement.

This day a rived here a Courier fome days fince difpatcht by his Imperial Majefty to Conftantinople, to found the intentions of the Ottoman Court, and to find out what concernment they had in the Comm tions of Hungary; but the Emperor being ablent, we cannot fatisfy our curiofities in this point.

The principal Nobility of Hungary are cited to attend his Imperial Majefty at his return hither, to confult with him about the prefent flate and poffure of affairs in that kingdom, and to take Orders for the raifing of forces.

Three hundred Malons and other workmen are feat away to be employed for the compleating and perfecting the new Fort at Leopold, The Tu ks draw together their forces, which administers some cause of jealoufie to usy that they may have a defign to encourage the dilaffected party in that Kingdom.

Prince Ragotski feems to defire to make his peace with the Emperor, and fubmit himfelf to his obedience, but the Imperial forces still march forwards to their Rendezvous neer Tyrnaw, where Charles Prince of Lorrain is to enter upon his Charge as General of the Cavalty.

The Count strafoldo, or straffond, Governor of Zatmar, having defeated a confiderable body of the Hefats, and taken many of their horles, has fince deftroyed all the Mills about the (Countrey, and feifed on all the Corn and conveyed it into his Garifon.

His Imperial Majefly has been lately pleased to admit into his Council the Count de Princenstein, & arefhal of the Lower Hungary, and Count Sigismund de Dietrichstein.

The Empreis Eleanor has lately received Letters from their Majefties of Poland, acquainting her with the confpiracy among f leveral of the great men of that kingdom for the diffurbance of that Government. From Poland we are farther informed, that the difaffected party of that Kingdom had fent 3000 men who were marching towards Hungary for the affiftance of P.ince Ragotsky, but the King of Poland having timely intelligence of their motiony, had ordered leveral Regiments to march after them and to charge them, if they would not other wife be perfivaded to return.

The r3th inftant paffed over the Daniele at Dobing; feveral R giments lately employed under General Spankam in Croatia. The Emperor has ordered, that all his Army with his Artillery and Waggons, laden with Ammunition, that march with all speed towards #pper Hungary.

Vienna, May 16. The Waters overflowing by reason of our late great Rains, their Imperia Majesties were stopped in their way to out Lady of Celles, a place of great Devotion, and were constrained to stay till the 15 instant at Gedensstein, from whence they departed the next day, and came that Evening to Heimself.
