SCOTTISH HOME AND HEALTH DEPARTMENT

New St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, EH1 3TF.

At the Palace of Holyroodhouse, on the 27th May 1977, The QUEEN received on the Throne Deputations with Addresses from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland; the Universities of Edinburgh, St. Andrews, Glasgow and Aberdeen; and the City of Edinburgh District Council, as follows:

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave, on the occasion of Your Majesty's visit to Scotland in celebration of Your Royal Silver Jubilee, respectfully to render to Your Majesty an expression of our devotion and deep affection.

Your Majesty has always occupied a special place in the hearts and pride of Your Scottish people. We remember with admiration Your courage and dedicated resolve, expressed in words of great nobility, in acceding to the Throne on the death of Your Royal Father, King George VI, the high sense of divine calling and public duty which characterised Your reign from the very beginning, and the gracious way in which Your whole life has been devoted to Your people and the great Commonwealth of Nations to which we belong. We humbly offer Your Majesty our profound appreciation of the fact that under Your reign the Throne has increasingly become a rock of stability in a time of cultural change and social tension, and a centre of unity and integration in our national life transcending differences in Church and community.

We desire, with loyal respect, to thank You for the supreme example You have given us all in the Christian standards of Your Majesty's own home and family life, and for the immense encouragement You have provided for all who seek the realisation of Divine Love and Righteousness in humanity. Surely no Monarch has reigned more securely in the affection and esteem of Her subjects. We rejoice particularly in the personal links of Your Majesty in Scotland; Your love of our hills and valleys, our moors and burns; Your sharing in our national heritage of Church and culture; Your honouring of the historic ceremonies of Church and State; and above all Your humble worshipping of Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, along with your Scottish people. With humble duty we beg leave to offer Your Majesty our high regard and deep affection.

It has always been most pleasing to us, Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, to have Your Majesty's Presence in Person at our General Assembly; and year by year to receive from Your hand sealed renewals of Your solemn vow to maintain and preserve the settlement of true Reformed Faith, with the government, worship and discipline, which the Church of Scotland acknowledges to be in agreement with the Word of God. The three times Your Majesty has been present in Person at our General Assembly have served in an unparalleled way to bring Crown and Church together which is widely appreciated for the support it has given to the witness and worship of your Scottish people.

We are deeply moved that in Your Christmas message You announced that the gift which Your Majesty would value most is that reconciliation should be found wherever it is needed. We thank Almighty God for the lead which Your Majesty has given to the movements for reconciliation at home and abroad, not least in areas where people of different races and faiths have inherited division. We humbly beg leave to assure Your Majesty of the support of the Church of Scotland for the crusade of reconciliation to which you have called us, and of the unending prayers of Your faithful subjects in Scotland that the peace and unity to which we are committed in the Lord Jesus Christ may everywhere be realised in Church and Community.

We desire, with loyal respect, to express our admiration for His Royal Highness, Prince Philip, in the resolute standards of faith and thought, of initiative and leadership, which have so signally characterised his life, not least in public affairs; as also for His Royal Highness, Prince Charles, who with all Your Majesty's children, holds a place of warmest affection in the hearts of Your Scottish people.

We pray that God Almighty, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, may richly bless Your Majesty and Your Household in this Year of Jubilee and Celebration. May He give Your Majesty supreme joy in Your own home, and continued strength and health in Your reign over us.

May it please Your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name by Thomas F. Torrance, Moderator 1976.

John R. Gray, Moderator 1977.

D. Macdonald, Principal Clerk.

Peter P. Brodie, Convener, Business Committee.

C. K. Davidson, Procurator.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I am deeply grateful for the Loyal Address which you have presented on behalf of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

Over the last twenty-five years I have seen much at first hand of the life and witness of the Church of Scotland both at home and overseas; and it is a particular source of pleasure to me to have been able in these last days again to attend the General Assembly.

The wide-ranging scope of the Assembly's debates offers continued testimony to its concern, as the highest court of the national Church, for all facets of the life and well-being of the people of Scotland. I am quite certain that each and everyone who has been present will leave fortified and encouraged in their faith.

For your generous references to myself and my family I offer you my thanks. The renewed assurances which you give me of the loyalty and affection of the Church of Scotland strengthen me in my continued resolve faithfully to discharge, under God's guidance, the duties of my high office.

27th May 1977.

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, and Principal, in our own names and on behalf of the University Court, the Senatus Academicus, the Teachers and all other members of Staff, the Students, and the General Council of the University of Edinburgh, on this happy occasion of Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee, offer our loyal and most cordial congratulations.

Sharing the general rejoicing in the signal services rendered by Your Majesty to all the peoples of the Commonwealth over the past twenty-five years, we take particular pride in Your Majesty's ancient Scottish descent and in this University derive especial pleasure from the fact that Your Majesty's name adorns our roll of honorary graduates and holds the first place in our devotion and esteem.

Since the time when Your Majesty's royal ancestor, King James the Sixth, announced his intention to take our College under his protection, its members have been proud and happy to enjoy the royal favour in their continued quest for true learning and excellence. Never more so than in this year of Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee, when we so clearly recognise in our sovereign lady one who has faced and faithfully discharged a complex burden of responsibilities. In due humility, but with profound conviction, we assert that Your Majesty's devotion to the loftiest ideals shines out in these difficult times, a bright and steadfast star for all to see.

So heartened and inspired by this example, we for our part pledge ourselves to such ready and diligent service as lies within the limits of our capacities and training, in the University and in the wider community of which it is an integral part.

And we, your subjects, shall ever earnestly pray that Your Majesty, aided, protected, and comforted by the members of the Royal Family, may long continue illustriously to reign over a people united in good accord, prosperity, and peace.

Philip, Chancellor.

Magnus Magnusson, Rector.

Hugh Robson, Principal.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I accept this Address with particular pleasure from the University of Edinburgh, of which I am an Honorary Graduate.

I acknowledge with gratitude your renewed assurances of loyalty to the Throne and of continued service to the community. I am confident that the University will continue to play its full part in the pursuit of knowledge and understanding.

27th May 1977.

UNIVERSITY OF ST. ANDREWS

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty,

We, on behalf of the University of St. Andrews, declare with our humble duty our deep devotion and loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne and Person on this, the joyful occasion of your Silver Jubilee.

For more than five centuries, our own tradition has sought to preserve the best in our heritage, alike in liberty and learning.

In the mists of antiquity it was a light which guided our forefathers from ignorance to knowledge. In the mists of uncertainty which have swirled about us during the years of Your Majesty's reign, we have striven to follow in that tradition, always safeguarding the liberty and ever advancing the learning.

During these challenging years, Your Majesty has set us a steadfast example of courage and faith in dedication and duty. Many of those who will mould the future, as our forefathers moulded the past, are passing through the Universities now. It is our hope and our prayer that liberty and learning will ever illumine their onward path.

We have witnessed your labours for your people, your long and exhausting travels, your goings-out and your comings-in, with affectionate admiration and pride. We give thanks to Almighty God for all that Your Majesty has meant to us.

We welcome Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee for many reasons, but not least for the occasion it affords us to pledge our allegiance anew; and this we do, with all our heart.

Ballantrae, Chancellor.
Steven Watson, Principal.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I am glad to receive at your hands this Address pledging the loyalty of the oldest University in Scotland to the Throne.

I know something of the services already rendered throughout the centuries by the University to the cause of learning in Scotland; and I will continue to follow with interest the academic life of your ancient foundation.

27th May 1977.

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
May it please Your Majesty,

In our high privilege of direct access to the Person of the Sovereign, we Your Majesty's faithful subjects, representing the University of Glasgow, humbly approach Your Majesty that we may tender our loyal and sincere congratulations on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne.

This University was founded in the year of Our Lord fourteen hundred and fifty-one by the favour of Your Majesty's Royal ancestor James the Second, King of Scots. For over five hundred years of our history, we have enjoyed the continued patronage and the generous recognition of Your Majesty's Royal House. The revered and illustrious Names of King Edward VII, of King George V and Queen Mary and of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, are inscribed upon our Roll of honoured graduates.

We humbly assure Your Majesty of our devoted attachment to the Throne and of our firm resolve that under Your Majesty's continued favour the University of Glasgow will seek ever to serve the welfare of the Kingdom and to advance good learning.

We rejoice in the happy celebration of the Silver Jubilee of Your Majesty's accession. Your Majesty's reign has added new and signal lustre to the annals of the Commonwealth and it is our fervent prayer that, in the years that lie ahead, Your Majesty may continue to inspire and guide Your loyal and devoted subjects with Your Majesty's unexampled wisdom and grace.

Alexander K. Cairncross, Chancellor.
Arthur Montford, Rector.
Alwyn Williams, Principal.
Robert A. Rankin, Clerk of Senate.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank you for the Loyal Address from the University of Glasgow, and sincerely appreciate the expressions of fidelity and good wishes which it contains.

The long association of the University with the Royal House is a source of great satisfaction to me.

I am confident that the University will continue to render signal service to learning and to the life not only of the great city of Glasgow but of Scotland as well.

27th May 1977.

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty,

The University of Aberdeen presents its humble duty to Your Majesty.

We offer to Your Majesty on the joyous occasion of the Silver Jubilee of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne the sincere and loyal congratulations of the University, with continued respectful devotion and prayers for the happy continuance of your reign for many years to come. The University is mindful of the generous part played in its foundation by Your Majesty's ancestor King James IV, and of the continuing relationship between the Royal House and the University, as witnessed by Your Majesty's own gracious kindness in making available to our students the facilities at Allt-na-Guibhsaich, a personal link that is greatly and warmly appreciated. It is our earnest hope that the strong ties between Your Majesty's family and that province of Scotland with which the University of Aberdeen is particularly associated will be maintained in strength, and that Your Majesty will continue to enjoy recreation and refreshment in your family home among us on Deeside.

Polwarth, Chancellor.
Fraser Noble, Vice-Chancellor and Principal.
Iain Cuthbertson, Rector.
T. B. Skinner, Secretary.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

It gives me great pleasure to receive this Loyal Address from the University of Aberdeen. I am grateful for the expression of loyalty which it conveys.

The part of Scotland with which the University is associated is firmly established in my affections, and I shall continue to take a close interest in your work.

I am confident that the proud record of the University will be enhanced in the coming years.

27th May 1977.
