HOME OFFICE

*Home Office, Queen Anne's Gate, S.W.1
19th July 1977*

The following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Friday, 1st instant:

THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Loyal Address to Her Majesty The Queen

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

We, Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Archbishops, Bishops, Clergy and Laity of the Church of England assembled in General Synod, approach Your Majesty with a dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We wish to convey to Your Majesty our warmest good wishes and our sincere congratulations upon the occasion of The Silver Jubilee of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne. We are deeply indebted to Your Majesty for the example which You set both in Your public work and in Your family life. Your leadership and single minded devotion to duty have won the admiration not only of Your loyal subjects in these islands but also, in Your visits abroad, of countless numbers in other lands. We see Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee as a time of thanksgiving for the privileges of freedom, peace, stability and plenty, which we have enjoyed under Your reign. We wish to thank Your Majesty for the encouragement which You have given to us in our own work, in particular by Your gracious presence at the inauguration of synodical government in the Church of England in November 1970 and at the inauguration of the second General Synod in 1975.

We are especially grateful for Your call, in Your Christmas Day Broadcast to the Nation, for an end to conflict and for the reconciliation of all peoples. Your Majesty may rest assured that the Church of England, of which You are Supreme Governor, will continue to strive for yet closer co-operation between the Christian Churches, for better understanding between Christians and people of other faiths, for social justice and for the improvement of relationships within our own community and beyond it between people of different races.

May the blessing of Almighty God rest now and always upon Your Majesty, upon Prince Philip and upon the other Members of the Royal Family.

Donald Cantuar, Archbishop of Canterbury.

Stuart Ebor, Archbishop of York.

J. N. D. Anderson, Chairman of the House of Laity of the General Synod.

O. W. H. Clark, Vice Chairman of the House of Laity of the General Synod.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank the General Synod most sincerely for their assurance of loyalty and their good wishes; and above all for their prayers for me, my husband and the other members of my family.

The past 25 years have been years of great change for the Church of England, and I have been particularly pleased to watch the development of synodical government during my reign. But the role of the Church in society, not only in spreading the message of God's love but in promoting brotherhood and understanding between people in all walks of life, is unchanging and I warmly welcome the Synod's determination to continue to work for these ends. I pray that God will continue to bless their efforts.

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, desire to approach Your Majesty in order to address to You our congratulations upon this occasion of rejoicing throughout Your realm, on the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Your Accession to the Throne.

We are proud to number You, together with Your noble Consort, His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh, among the distinguished holders of our Degree by Diploma, and we remember with lively pleasure the visits to Oxford which Your Majesty, setting aside other pressing calls upon You, has made during Your reign to grace with Your presence many memorable occasions in the life of this University and ancient City. Thus we have drawn strength and encouragement from Your Majesty's generous interest in our affairs, and we greatly value the signal proof which You and Your Royal Consort have given in these last years that a sensitive awareness of the many necessary changes which are taking place all over the world today can be combined with a determination to hold fast to all that is good in the great traditions of the past and the splendid heritage of the people of this land. By Your unceasing dedication to the wellbeing of all Your subjects, You have won the enduring affection, which springs from deep respect and admiration, of everyone, both at home and abroad, who has the best interests of this country at heart.

We pray that Your Majesty may be pleased to accept this assurance of our loyalty to Your Royal Person, which is coupled with our earnest prayer that You may long be spared to reign over us and so continue to sustain us all by Your gracious humanity and inspiring example.

Given in the University of Oxford under our Common Seal on 2nd June 1977. (L.S.)

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :

It gives me much pleasure to receive from you this Loyal Address from the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford. As Doctors of the University my husband and I fully appreciate the part which it plays in the life of the nation.

I have always been greatly interested by my visits to the University and I am most grateful for your congratulations and good wishes.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May It Please Your Majesty,

We, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, beg leave to offer our loyal congratulations on the completion of the twenty-fifth year of Your Majesty's reign, and to express anew the gratitude and devotion which we owe for the benevolent interest displayed to the University and Colleges through the centuries by Your Royal predecessors, a relationship continued in Your Majesty's own reign and strengthened by new and personal ties.

The years on which we today look back have seen the growth to manhood and to high esteem as Heir Apparent of His Royal Highness The Prince Charles, and our University is proud to have had its share in his education and to number him among its Masters. Your Majesty's Royal Husband, himself one of our Honorary Doctors, has evinced a continued interest in the University, and not least in the application, for the general good, of scientific research; and the University is proud and happy that he has accepted election to the office of Chancellor. It gives us great pleasure that one of the earliest ceremonies in which he appears in person in that office should be the presentation to Your Majesty of this our Address of congratulation.

The past twenty-five years have been a time when the nature and ends of education have been questioned as never before; yet in Cambridge standards of academic excellence have been upheld, and the birth of new Colleges testifies to the continued faith of both public and private benefactors in institutional forms which have survived from a long past and shown themselves adaptable to the present. Beyond the sphere of the University too, our traditional cultural and moral values have been severely challenged. Yet challenge and change can have positive consequences for good and we hope and trust that in matters of the intellect and the spirit, though it be our duty to test all things, we may still hold fast to that which is good. That we may share with all Your Majesty's loyal subjects in such high endeavour, and that You may long reign over us and see a fair harvest from this generation's sowing, is the earnest prayer of all who work in and for our University as a place of education, religion, learning, and research. (L.S.)

20th June 1977.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :

It gives me great pleasure to receive at your hand this message of congratulation from the University of Cambridge, with which our family has been associated over the years.

Whatever the changes in the world about us, the greatest guarantee of this country's future well-being lies in the advancement of knowledge and in the education of our young people. The University of Cambridge has a proud record in these fields, and I am sure that you will continue, during the rest of my reign, to reinforce and build upon the progress that has been made in the past 25 years.

THE RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May it please The Queen,

As representatives of the Religious Society of Friends, commonly known as Quakers, we bring warm congratulations on the occasion of Your Silver Jubilee.

You have reigned over a rapidly changing community of peoples in a world rent by many devastating conflicts. We must not minimize the problems of our time; nevertheless, during these twenty-five years we have as a nation become more conscious that we are members one of another. We are learning to value the richness of a multi-racial community and to realise our responsibility for the right use of limited natural resources. Our present difficulties provide opportunities to explore a simpler way of life. Many young people are showing a greater readiness to help the under-privileged, at home and abroad; there is also the spirit of adventure characteristic of youth—a spirit encouraged by The Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme. The welcome signs of openness and a willingness to think afresh give grounds for confidence and hope, despite all the complexities that beset us.

At the time of Your twenty-first birthday, You expressed a sense of dedication, which we know has continued through the succeeding years; and Your willingness to accept change has been balanced by faithfulness to those unchanging spiritual values which are eternal. To maintain this balance may well be the task which lies ahead of us all in the days to come.

In Your Christmas broadcast last year, You stressed the need for reconciliation in national and international affairs, and within our own homes and families. Civilization is a fragile thing and depends upon steadfastness in seeking the reconciling element in every situation. As Quakers, we share Your belief that reconciliation is the product of reason, tolerance and love. It is our Christian conviction that the spirit of God is to be found in every human heart and that it is man's task with God's help to discover it and to respond to it, however difficult this may sometimes be.

We are grateful for the quiet and faithful way in which You, with the constant support of Your husband, fulfil Your exacting role, and we pray that You will continue to be strengthened in Your task in the years that lie ahead. May God's blessing rest upon You and Your family, now and always.

Signed on behalf of Meeting for Sufferings, the standing representative committee of the Religious Society of Friends in Great Britain:

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank you, most warmly, for the congratulations and good wishes which you bring from the Religious Society of Friends.

Like you, I see encouraging signs for the future. The climate of change in which we live calls for high levels of adaptability and tolerance, but it also opens the way to progress for society as a whole, and to greater fulfilment for the individuals within it. The values of which you have spoken will give us our direction, and I join you in looking forward with confidence and hope.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

Most Gracious Sovereign:

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your most loyal and devoted subjects, representing the University of Your capital city, in this, the hundred and fiftieth year since a Royal Duke, Your Illustrious Ancestor, laid the Foundation Stone of its first Institution, send to You our warmest and most heartfelt congratulations upon the happy occasion of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

We recall with profound pleasure that, alone among living persons, You have done us the honour of accepting two Honorary Degrees from our University, in the Faculties of Music and Laws: symbolising thereby the inspiration to the soul of Your people and the respect for law and good order which have marked Your Monarchy.

You are our Visitor, the ultimate Repository of Authority in this Federation. Your most esteemed Great-Uncle was our Chancellor for over thirty years; and Your beloved Mother, who stands so high in our hearts and affections, has now been our Chancellor for as long as You have been our Queen. The debt we owe to You and Your family is great beyond words.

We earnestly pray that, as this University has benefited by Your benign Rule, so may this Nation flourish for many more years under Your continued care; and we take pride in thus being privileged to express to You this our tribute of duty and devotion.

Elizabeth, Chancellor.

Frank Hartley, Vice-Chancellor.

J. P. Quilliam, Chairman of Convocation.

Leslie Scarman, Chairman of the Court.

F. M. G. Willson, Principal.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank you most sincerely for your congratulations on the occasion of My Silver Jubilee and for your assurances of loyalty and devotion. I greatly value My personal association with the University of which I am Visitor and an Honorary Graduate, and I am deeply moved by your tributes to My Family. I assure you of My continued interest in the work and achievements of the University.

DEAN AND CHAPTER OF WESTMINSTER ABBEY

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

The Humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects express to You our sincere and respectful good wishes on the occasion of Your Silver Jubilee.

We are conscious that Your reign has seen great social and political change, not least in the reception of many immigrants into the United Kingdom as Your subjects. We are grateful for the role which Your Majesty plays in constituting a focal point of national unity and in embodying the concept of personal caring.

We are also aware that Your reign has witnessed the transition from Empire to Commonwealth, and we wish to record our appreciation of Your many and arduous journeys to the nation states which comprise it.

We have regard to the significance of Your role as Head of the Commonwealth ministering as we do in a Church where Services celebrating the Independence of member states have been held, together with the annual Commonwealth Observance which Your Majesty has attended.

With great respect may we say to Your Majesty that we value highly the link which Westminster Abbey, as a Royal Peculiar, has with You its Visitor. We recognise the independence which this confers upon us and it is our hope that we may use responsibly the opportunities which this constitutional position opens up before us.

We remember Your Majesty in the course of our daily worship and it is our constant prayer that God's blessing will rest upon You and Your family throughout the years ahead, and that You will ever be sustained in Your high office by the affectionate esteem of Your people.

The Corporate Seal of the Dean and Chapter was hereunto affixed by Chapter Order in the presence of

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ENGLAND AND WALES

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Cardinal Archbishop and the Archbishops and Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church in England and Wales and representatives of the clergy and laity, express our loyal and respectful greetings to Your Majesty on this the Silver Jubilee of Your Accession to the Throne.

Your Roman Catholic subjects have been heartened and edified by Your Majesty's example of the highest Christian ideals in Your own family life and in the devoted service given to Your people at home and throughout the Commonwealth. Equally inspiring has been Your Majesty's conviction, expressed or implicit in Your Addresses on public occasions, that the task of establishing the brotherhood of all mankind can be accomplished only with the guidance of God, Our Father, in whose hands are the destinies of nations. For all this we are grateful to Your Majesty.

We pray that God's blessing may continue to be upon Your Majesty and Your family, and that we may be privileged for many years to come to enjoy the sovereign virtues of Your reign.

The following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Friday, 8th instant:

CITY OF LONDON

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, whose predecessors served London and the Crown from times immemorial, proclaim our true loyalty and deep affection for Your Majesty.

The 25 years of Your Majesty's reign we celebrate with grateful hearts, and we give thanks that Your Majesty's wisdom, serenity and steadfast faith lighten the way ahead for each of us as they have been our examples in the past.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :

I am indeed grateful for these assurances of loyalty and affection from the Lord Mayor, Alderman and Commons of the City of London. The City has a long tradition of devotion and service and I derive much encouragement from the knowledge that, like my predecessors, I can continue to rely on the goodwill and support of the citizens of London. I especially appreciated coming to the Guildhall last month during the London celebrations of my Silver Jubilee. I join you in your expression of hope for peace and prosperity for us all in the years to come.

THE ROYAL SOCIETY

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty,

We Your loyal and dutiful subjects, the President, Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London, humbly beg leave to offer to Your Majesty, the beloved Patron of our Society, our respectful congratulations upon the completion of the twenty-fifth year of Your Majesty's reign.

During Your Majesty's reign the advance of Science, which has always exerted a powerful influence on human affairs, has proceeded at an ever-increasing pace, and has been characterised by a number of discoveries of far-reaching importance which have opened wholly new vistas for mankind. Among these, the elucidation of the chemical structure of the nucleic acids, followed by the recognition of the double helical nature of those which constitute the genes has led to the development, not just of modern genetics, but of the whole new science of molecular biology. Structural chemistry has been revolutionised by the new concept of dynamic stereochemistry, while in physics the development of radioastronomy has not only immeasurably increased our knowledge of the universe, but has been an important factor in permitting man to make his first ventures into extra-terrestrial space.

In all of these major advances, as in many others, Fellows of the Society have been deeply involved and the award to them of no less than twenty-nine Nobel Prizes during Your Majesty's reign is a tribute to the vigour of science in Your Majesty's realms. The promotion of useful Arts was laid down more than three hundred years ago as one of the functions of the Royal Society, and it is therefore appropriate to record the many contributions of Your Majesty's subjects to science-based technology as exemplified by the harnessing of nuclear energy for peaceful use and the development of supersonic transport.

The Royal Society is proud to think that under Your Majesty's patronage it has continued to fulfil the central object of the Charters granted to it by His Majesty Charles the Second, and accordingly claims the high privilege of offering this loyal tribute of esteem. It is offered in the earnest hope that Your Majesty may long continue in happiness and prosperity to reign over Your devoted and loyal subjects.

On behalf of the Council and Fellows of the Royal Society:

Todd, President.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

It gives me special pleasure to accept this Address from the Royal Society. As your Patron, I have watched the achievements of your distinguished members during the past 25 years with much admiration. Their efforts have resulted, not only in increased understanding of the working of the universe, but in the practical application of this knowledge to improve the quality of life for us all. My husband and I will continue to follow your work with close interest.

GREATER LONDON COUNCIL

THE LOYAL AND DUTIFUL ADDRESS OF THE GREATER LONDON COUNCIL TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Chairman and Members of the Greater London Council—representatives of the people of Your Majesty's capital—respectfully express our warm affection and congratulations to You on the occasion of the celebration of the Silver Jubilee of Your Accession.

In presenting an Address to mark Your Majesty's Accession, our predecessors referred to the comfort derived from the knowledge that the noble spirit and beneficent influence of Your father lived on in the Person of Your Majesty. Twenty-five years later we, on behalf of the people of London, can express our gratitude for the practical expression of those qualities during Your reign.

Although the changing character of the Commonwealth has resulted in Your Majesty spending more time with the other members of that partnership, the people we represent are proud to be citizens of the capital city to which You return and which we know You regard as Your home. Your presence at functions in London, whether connected with its position as the capital or of much more local significance, and whether alone or supported by Your Royal husband, The Duke of Edinburgh, has given pleasure to many. Although the nation is celebrating a landmark in Your Majesty's reign, we think it right to refer also to the special place in the hearts of Londoners still held by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother.

The celebration of Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee is occasion not only for expressing gratitude for the first 25 years of Your reign, but also for looking forward to the years still to come, in which the young people of the country, including Your Majesty's own children, will play an increasing part. We therefore welcome the appeal made by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales with its aim of helping young people to lead a fuller life and to serve the community.

We are proud to offer to Your Majesty our most loyal congratulations, our affection and our homage.

We pray that Your Majesty may be blessed with long life and happiness with Your family and that Your reign in the years ahead may be seen as an era in which the citizens of the Commonwealth and particularly of London were increasingly able to fulfil their ambitions to live in freedom, peace and prosperity.

I thank you for this loyal and dutiful address from the Greater London Council. As a Londoner myself I particularly appreciate your remarks and I am most grateful to receive the good wishes of this capital city.

CITY OF WESTMINSTER

TO HER MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the City of Westminster, offer on behalf of our Citizens, heartiest congratulations and most loyal affection on the attainment of Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee.

We take the utmost pleasure in recalling that we were first privileged to acclaim Your Majesty as our Sovereign on the twenty-first day of May 1952 and that, in the intervening years, no one has done more to promote love, co-operation and understanding, not only amongst the great Commonwealth of Nations, but in the world as a whole. During the past twenty-five years, so ably supported by His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh, Your Majesty has travelled countless hundreds of miles and visited over one hundred countries. Your Majesty's warm-heartedness and obvious affection for others have always been abundantly reciprocated whatever the venue or occasion and irrespective of colour, race or creed. We are proud and delighted that Buckingham Palace, to which Your Majesty has so often returned, is within the City of Westminster and we owe a debt of gratitude to Your Majesty's illustrious forbears from as long ago as the eleventh century for making this possible. Indeed, even as recently as 1964 and 1966 respectively, we were honoured to receive from Your Majesty, Letters Patent granting to the former Boroughs of Westminster, Paddington and St. Marylebone and to the Mayor the style and dignity of City and Lord Mayor.

The hopes and aspirations we expressed in 1952 have, we believe, been fulfilled and it is our fervent wish that, under Your Majesty's leadership we shall continue to meet any challenge the future may bring.

Your Majesty, may we with humble duty reaffirm our wishes of twenty-five years ago and, with one heart and voice, pray the blessing of Almighty God upon Your Majesty's reign.

Given under the Common Seal of the Lord Mayor, Alderman and Councillors of the City of Westminster this 8th day of July 1977:

Hugh Cubitt, Lord Mayor.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :

I am very happy, My Lord Mayor, to receive this Loyal Address on behalf of the citizens of Westminster. I thank you most sincerely for your reference to our travels to overseas countries. My association with the historic City of Westminster is one of which I shall always be proud and I am gratefully strengthened by your prayers on My behalf.

The following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty at Windsor Castle on Monday 18th instant:

THE DEAN AND CANONS OF SAINT GEORGE'S CHAPEL WINDSOR

TO HER MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's loyal and devoted servants the Dean and Canons of Your Free Chapel of Saint George within Your Castle of Windsor, present our humble duty.

Twenty-five years ago, when the Dean and Canons last had the honour to address Your Majesty, they declared their confidence that with the help of God Your Majesty would continue and enrich the tradition of service to this country and to the Commonwealth which Your father, King George the Sixth of beloved memory, had so splendidly exemplified. Now, on the occasion of Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee, we have the privilege of testifying how abundantly our predecessors' confidence has been justified. We thank God for our most gracious Sovereign Lady.

Furthermore we would signify how greatly we value the personal interest that Your Majesty, as our Patron, and Your Majesty's family, have taken in the worship and work of the College of Saint George and in Saint George's School and Saint George's House. Our predecessors expressed the hope that the Castle would often be graced with Your Majesty's presence; we rejoice that their hope has been fulfilled and pray that the Chapel may become increasingly a source of refreshment and peace from which Your Majesty may draw strength for Your high calling.

To support Your Majesty and the Royal House with our prayers is a principal concern of the College of Saint George. Holding Your Majesty in the same affectionate regard as our predecessors held King George, we shall pray unceasingly that the blessing of God may rest upon Your Majesty, as also upon His Royal Highness Prince Philip and all the members of the Royal Family, and that the years that lie ahead may witness a resurgence of our nation which will gladden your Majesty's heart.

Michael Mann, Dean.

J. A. Fisher, Canon.

A. O. Dyson, Canon.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :

It is with great pleasure that I receive from you here to-day this Loyal Address from the Dean and Canons of Windsor. I cherish the long and close association of the Throne with St. George's Chapel and I thank you with all My heart for your unfailing support and for your prayers for all the members of My family.

ROYAL BOROUGH OF WINDSOR AND MAIDENHEAD

TO HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH THE SECOND

Your Majesty,

On behalf of the citizens of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead it is our most pleasant duty to offer You, and to his Royal Highness The Prince Philip, our loyal and sincere greetings on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Your Accession.

The entire community of this Royal Borough are most conscious of the lively interest that Your Majesty and indeed all members of the Royal Family take in the affairs of the Borough, and remember with particular affection Your Majesty's River Progress through the new Royal Borough on the 18th October, 1974.

It is a happy coincidence that Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee is in the same year as the Sixtieth Anniversary of the foundation of the Royal House of Windsor and the seven-hundredth anniversary of the grant of the first Royal Charter to the town of Windsor.

All citizens of the Borough are most honoured and gratified that, even in this very busy year of Your Majesty's Silver Jubilee, You and Your family have devoted so much time to support the Borough's own celebration of the Jubilee and the septcentenary of part of our Borough.

Given under the Common Seal of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead this 18th day of July 1977 in the presence of:

I. G. N. Harris, Mayor.

P. A. Welch, Chief Executive and Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank you for these loyal and affectionate greetings on behalf of the citizens of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead. I share your pleasure that the celebration of the seven-hundredth anniversary of the grant of the first Royal Charter to the town of Windsor falls in the same years as the Silver Jubilee of My Accession. The Borough's celebrations of these two anniversaries demonstrate the close and happy relationship that exists between our Royal House and the people of Windsor and Maidenhead.
