By the QUEEN,
A PROCLAMATION,
 For a PUBLICK THANKSGIVING.
ANNE R.

WHereas it hath pleased Almighty God, of his great Goodness and Mercy, to continue to us his Protection and Assistance in the just and necessary War, in which we are engaged, for the Safety of our Realms, and of the Liberties of Europe, by giving to our Arms, in Conjunction with those of our Allies, a wonderful Course of Success this Campaign, and more particularly, a Signal and Glorious Victory in Spain: We therefore duly considering, That such great and publick Blessings do call for a Solemn and Publick Acknowledgment, have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy-Council, to Issue forth this our Royal Proclamation, hereby Appointing and Commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these his Mercies, be observed throughout England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Tuesday the Seventh Day of November next. And for the more devout, and orderly Solemnizing the same, we have given Directions to our Archbishops and Bishops, to Compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, within their respective Dioceses, and to take Care of the timely dispersing thereof. And we do likewise Direct and Command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be Religiously Observed by all our Loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of Suffering such Punishment, as we may justly inflict on all such as shall Contemn or Neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty.

Given at our Court at Kensington the Twenty sixth Day of September, 1710. In the Ninth Year of our Reign.

God save the QUEEN.

Turin, September 17. N. S. Great Remittances have been lately made here for the Service of the Confederate Army. The Troops continue in their former Posts near Oulx, and on the Frontiers of Savoy; but the Snow having begun to fall in great Quantities on the Mountains, it is thought they will soon be obliged to decamp. We do not hear that the Duke of Berwick has as yet made any Detachments towards Roussillon. They write from Rome, that they are in great Hopes there of seeing the Differences between the Pope and the Emperor brought to a speedy Accommodation. They say the Pope is to grant his Imperial Majesty a Brief for the raising 200000 Crowns upon the Revenues of the inferior Clergy in the Milanese; and that the Emperor in return engageth that no Troops shall be quartered in the Territories of Ferrara this Winter; and the Pope is not without Hopes of prevailing with his Imperial Majesty at length to restore Comachio to the Holy See.

Copenhagen, September 27. N. S. The Damage the Danish Fleet suffered in the late Storm, which happened on the 14th Instant, proves more considerable than was at first reported. Six Capital Ships are intirely disabled, and five others are still missing, as are likewise several of the Transports. Upon this Accident the King has resolved to defer sending for the Muscovites till the next Spring. Monsieur Waldersee is set out from hence for Ratisbon, and is to execute a Commission at the Court of the Elector Palatin, relating to an old Debt due to this Crown, on Account of the late Electress, who was Sister to the late King of Denmark.
