

Cowes, September 30. Yesterday about four a-Clock the India Ships, with their Convoy, failed from St. Hellens.

Extrait of the Journal of Captain Culverden, Commander of the Queen Packet-boat.

On Saturday the 23d of September I failed from Lisbon at Noon, and met the Brail Fleet on the Bar going in, consisting of about one hundred Sail; part of the Fleet, they told us, was gone for Oporto, under Convoy of three English Men of War, who met them at Sea.

Whitehall, September 30. Her Majesty has been pleased to Appoint Arthur Moore, Esq; one of the Lords Commissioners for Promoting the Trade of Great Britain, and for Inspecting and Improving the Plantations of America and elsewhere.

Whereas by the Act for the Lottery, Anno 1710. the several Adventurers, their Agents and Assigns, who shall be possess'd of the Number'd Tickets entitled to Benefits, are to appear with the said Tickets before the Managers and Directors of the Lottery, at any time after six Days, and within seventy Days after the Drawing is finished, for the said Managers and Directors to examine, adjust and settle, to whom the said Benefit Tickets shall severally and respectively belong.

The said Managers and Directors give Notice, That the Drawing of the Lottery was finished the 26th of September last past, and that Attendance is given from this present Tuesday the 3d of October, 1710, and every Day after (Sunday excepted) during the said Space of Seventy Days, at their Office or Place of Meeting in Whitehall, from nine in the Morning 'till one at Noon, to examine, adjust and settle the Property of the said Tickets, in manner as by the said Act is directed.

And the said Managers and Directors give further Notice, That for the better Information of the Adventurers they have caused an exact Account of all the Numbers entitled to Benefits to be made forth in a Numerical Order with the Benefits attending them; which Account, by the special Order of the Managers and Directors, will be Printed and Publish'd in a short time by A. Bell, at the Cross-Keys and Bible in Cornhill.

Notice is hereby given by the Agent to the Captors, That the Officers and Companies of her Majesty's Ships the August, Restauration, Russell, Deptford, Royal Oak and Newark, may, at Mr. Master's House on Tower-hill, London, receive (according to her Majesty's most gracious Proclamation of the 20th of May, 1708.) their several Shares of the Prizes Mercury and Mary-Anne, as follows, viz. the August to be paid on Wednesday the 18th of October Instant, the Restauration on Friday the 20th, the Russell on Monday the 22d, the Deptford on Wednesday the 25th, the Royal Oak on Friday the 27th, and the Newark on Monday the 30th; and that the Shares of such as shall not then be received, may, during the space of three Years, be every Morning received at the Place aforesaid.

* * I William Colbrooke of Petersfield in Hampshire do acknowledge that the Words I spoke of his Grace, the Duke of Beaufort, viz. That his Grace was found in a Plot, and that he was for pulling down the Bank, and that there were three Men at Dunkirk, to assist in bringing in the prince of Wales, were falsely by me spoken; and that I was unadvisedly drawn in to speak those Words, to vilify his Grace's Character, for which, with all Submission, I humbly beg his Pardon, and make this Publick Acknowledgment.

WILLIAM COLBROOKE.

At some one Bookfeller's, Shop-keeper's, or chief Coffee-house in most Cities and great Towns in Great Britain, is sold at 1s. a Bottle, Stoughton's great Cordial Elixir: Now famous throughout Europe, for the stomach and Blood, as is described in the Bills with it, prepared only by him, Apocrycal, at the Unicorn in Southwark, for 40th 19 Years. It makes the best Purl in Beer or Ale, Purl Royal in Sack, and the bitter Draught in a Minute, being the best and most pleasant Bitter in the World; now drunk by most Gentlemen in their Wine instead of any other, Wormwood being to hot and drying, thickens the Blood, dulls the Brain, and weakens the Sight. This Lixir is well known to recover and restore a weaken'd Stomach, or lost Appetite (beyond any thing that ever was taken) occasioned by hard Drinking or Sickness, &c. and certainly carries off the effects of bad Wine. Where it is not yet cold, any Person who feels first may have it to feel again with good Allowance, many now feeling 50 or 60 Dozen a Year, some more.
