The Trunk Road (Longrock, Cornwall) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting) Order 1978

The Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order under sections 1 and 84D of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967 as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968 on the London—Penzance Trunk Road (A30) at Longrock in the District of Penwith in the County of Cornwall.

The effect of the Order which comes into operation on 19th June 1978 is to revoke and reimpose the provisions of the Trunk Road (Longrock, Cornwall) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting) Order 1971 with addition of an exemption as required by the Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (England and Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 1975, which will permit disabled persons' vehicles to wait on the sides of the trunk road specified in Schedule 1 to the Order for a period not exceeding 2 hours with no return within 1 hour, and at any time on the side of the trunk road specified in Schedule 2 to the Order.

Any person who desires to question the validity of, or of any provision contained in the Order, on the ground that it is not within the powers with respect to the Order conferred by the above Act, or on the ground that any requirement of, or of any instrument made under, any provision of that Act has not been complied with in relation to the Order, may within 6 weeks of the 1st June 1978 apply to the High Court for the suspension or quashing of the Order or of any provision contained therein.

A copy of the Order, together with the Order to be revoked, may be inspected during office hours at the offices of the Cornwall County Council at County Hall, Truro, and at the Penwith District Council, St. Clare, Penzance, or obtained by application to the Regional Controller (Roads and Transportation) at the address below quoting the reference DSW 504841/5/T/011.

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS 1978 No. 689

The Brucellosis (England and Wales) (Amendment No. 2) Order 1978

(Made 5th May 1978)

The Order which came into operation on 26th May amends the Brucellosis (England and Wales) Order 1977, as amended, in order to implement certain provisions of Council Directive 78/52/EEC of 13th December 1977 which relate to the accelerated eradication of brucellosis. The principal amendments made in implementation of these provisions are as follows:

- (a) a prohibition is imposed on the treatment of bovine animals for brucellosis in an eradication or attested area;
- (b) a veterinary inspector or other officer of the Ministry or an officer of the Secretary of State for Wales is given a power (in addition to his previous power in relation to bovine animals) to prohibit the movement of steers on to or off premises within an eradication or attested area except under the authority of a licence;
- (c) provision is made for the retention and disposal or destruction of the foetuses or calves and placentae from animals kept on premises within an eradication or attested area which are suspected of having aborted or calved prematurely;
- (d) provision is also made for the retention and subsequent disposal or destruction of placentae and dead calves (if any) from full-term calving from animals kept on premises within an eradication or attested area where infection is believed to exist;
- (e) powers are given to require the disposal or destruction of straw, litter or other matter which has come into contact with animals suspected of having been in contact with brucellosis, and the treatment and storage of manure and slurry from places used by those animals;
- (f) it is provided that milk from infected cows must be heat-treated before it may be fed to animals on the same premises as those cows.

This Order also declares new areas of England and Wales to be eradication areas. The new areas are set out in that
